

Vows Exchanged At Tigard Wedding

KINZUA—In a double ring ceremony at the Metzger Methodist church in Tigard, Miss Linda Koenig, daughter of Mrs. Marguerite Koenig of Portland, became the bride of Charles H. Robertson, son of Mrs. Joseph Browning of Kinzua. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Paul Jewell.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, George DeLapp of San Francisco, Calif., wore a street length dress of white brocade satin and carried white carnations centered with a white orchid. Her veil fell from a crown headpiece. Her bridesmaid, Talmi Sorenson, wore deep pink and carried pink carnations. Philip Genetmann was best man and Bill Koenig ushered. Miss Sharon Kilm of Portland sang "At Dawning" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride's mother wore a blue dress and had a pink rosebud corsage and the groom's mother wore beige with a rosebud corsage. A reception was held immediately afterwards in the social room of the church. Both will attend Oregon State University this fall where Mr. Robertson is a senior, majoring in engineering and Mrs. Robertson is a junior. They will make their first home in Corvallis.

Saturday evening Mrs. Koenig entertained members of the wedding party and relatives of the young couple at a dinner at the Anchorage Club. Attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Browning and daughters, Joan and Linda, and Bob Loomis of Fossil.

Pettyjohns Observe 25th Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Pettyjohn were honored Sunday at a no-host dinner held on the courthouse lawn for their 25th wedding anniversary. Members of their family including their four children, were present for the potluck dinner.

The couple was presented with a large map with the route from Heppner to Ft. LeJeune, S. C., lined with silver dollars to go towards their trip next month. Other "silver" gifts were given them during the afternoon as friends and relatives called to congratulate them and enjoy wedding cake and coffee or punch.

Their children present were Rita and Rick, living at home; two daughters and sons-in-law, Sgt. and Mrs. Neil Kellogg, and two daughters, Michelle and Melinda; and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Ball, Ione.

The Kelloggs recently arrived from Germany where he was stationed with the U. S. Marines for the past two years. They will leave Saturday for his new assignment at Ft. LeJeune, S. C. The children will remain for a month with their grandparents who will take the youngsters to South Carolina next month.

Ellis Pettyjohn and Betty Hughes were married October 3, 1938, in Walla Walla, Wn. and have lived in the Heppner-Ione area all of their lives. They now live on a ranch on the Heppner-Lexington highway.

Family Reunion Held At Hermiston Park

Ayers and Privett Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ayers announce the engagement of their daughter, Sharon, to John Privett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Privett, all of Heppner.

John graduated from Heppner High school with the class of 1963 and is presently employed at Jack's Chevron station. He plans to attend Blue Mountain college in January. Sharon will complete studies at Heppner High this year and will be employed by Mrs. Charles McKinon during the school year.

No wedding date has been set.

Soroptimists Host Court and Mothers At Luncheon Meeting

Queen Sandra, her Morrow County Fair and Rodeo court princesses and their mothers were guests of honor at the Heppner Soroptimist club at their luncheon meeting last Thursday noon.

Introductions of the girls and their mothers were made by the court's official chaperone, Mrs. John Eubanks. Each told of some highlight which had impressed them in appearances they had made this summer. Their places were marked by gilded horseshoes bearing their names. Miniature horses also decorated the tables, arranged by Mrs. Roice Fullerton.

Group singing led by Mrs. Harold Laird, accompanied by Mrs. Wes Sherman, was part of the program.

Guests included Princesses Nancy Cleveland and her mother, Mrs. Howard Cleveland; Princess Shannon Mahoney and her mother, Mrs. P. W. Mahoney; Queen Sandra Eubanks and her mother, Mrs. John Eubanks; Princess Louise Pointer and her mother, Mrs. Don Pointer; Princess Sharon Donovan and her mother, Mrs. Bernard Donovan. Other guests were Mrs. Jerry (Harriet) Bolman of Seattle, Ramona Wright of Prairie City, and Mrs. Robert Webb of Heppner.

Farewell Gathering Honors Terry Blevins Before Move to Ukiah

Friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Terry Blevins gathered at the Courthouse Park Wednesday evening for a farewell dinner in their honor. Mr. and Mrs. Blevins and baby daughter moved today (Thursday) to Ukiah where they have bought the Steley Chevron station.

Mr. Blevins had been employed as a mechanic in Farley Motor Co. for the past six years, coming here from Milton-Freewater where they had previously owned a station. They have placed their home here for sale.

Attending the dinner were Mrs. Blevins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gonty, Doug and Tom, Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Herschell, Mr. and Mrs. George Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Miller of Cecil, Mr. and Mrs. Walt Edger, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daniels, Mrs. R. F. Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Ramberg and daughter.

100 Entries Due In Fair Parade

HERMISTON—More than 100 entries are expected in the Umatilla County Fair Parade Saturday morning at 10, according to Larry Karrick, the Hermiston Jaycees' parade chairman. Floats have been promised by the Tri-Cities and Milton-Freewater Chambers of Commerce as well as the Hermiston Chamber of Commerce. The reviewing stand will beat East Second and Main streets.

Sheriff Roy Johnson will lead the parade on horseback while carrying the American flag. He will be followed by a color guard and Grand Marshal Harold Rankin, 20 years fair board chairman, now retired.

Among the entries are two marching bands and 15 marching units. Kennewick, Pasco, Pendleton, Milton-Freewater and Hermiston Jaycee units will be entertaining. The Hermiston Jaycees are entering their 1927 Studebaker as the last unit in the parade.

Representative Jack Smith of Condon will ride in the parade. A 1909 Cadillac will be entered by an auto dealer.

Two public address systems will keep the crowd informed as to the various units; one will be at West Third Street and Hermiston Avenue and the second one will be at East Second and Main Streets. John Cermak and Bill English will announce the units as they appear.

Line up will be on Orchard Avenue and the race track. Judging will start at 9 a.m. The parade route is as follows: West Third, Hermiston Avenue, Gladys Avenue, East Fifth Street, Main Street to First Place and Orchard Avenue where the parade will disband, Karrick said.

A network of four Jaycee walkie-talkie radio outfits, four county sheriff's cars, three state police cars and two city cars all tuned to the same frequency will guide the parade.

Saturday evening after the Fair Polles the Hermiston Jaycees will sponsor a dance at the CRC with music by the Jag-uars from the Tri-Cities.

Those wishing to enter a unit in the parade should contact Karrick (Ph. 567-8511) or Mel Hirling (Ph. 276-2211).

Kindergarten Sets Registration Dates

Parents with kindergarten age children must register their children August 29 between 1 and 4 p.m. in the kindergarten room. The room this year will be in the old high school building in the basement on the north side of the building.

Mrs. Gerald Jonasson will be the new kindergarten teacher, taking the place of Mrs. Roy Tabor, who resigned to join her husband in Hermiston. The number of youngsters participating will determine whether there is more than one class this fall. The registration fee is $10 with a monthly charge of $6.50. For further information, parents may call Mrs. Matt Hughes or Mrs. Jack Healy.
