Golf Club News
The annual husband and wife mixed two-ball foursome was played at the Kinzua Golf club on Saturday afternoon, August 17. Seventeen couples, hitting alternate shots, beat their way around the course determined to out-do each other in a contest of skill and cooperation. When evening caught up with the swingers Ola and Clarence Smith had topped the field with a one stroke lead over five other combinations tied for second spot. The edge was determined when Ola pitched a ball into the cup for a neat eagle two on the ninth hole. Low net was won by LaVelle and Mark Jellick, two of our short time golfers who turned in a nice net for the nine.

The day was climaxed by a banquet featuring thick, juicy steaks grilled and served by Harlan Schroeder, Milo Prindle, Dick Graham and Alan Guinn.
