THIS IS almost hi and goodbye, as it is fair week and I have been riding herd on three kids and six animals, so puff puff, I don't have much social scoop! Just come out tonight (Thursday) to enjoy the 4-H pig scramble and livestock sale. Don't forget the livestock open class judging on Friday to close out the fair!

JANINA JOHNSON entertained the Friday Afternoon pinocle club at her home last week with two tables in session. Gladys Beckett won high, and Doris Watkins was low. Doris teamed up with Janina to win the pinocle. Only Janina didn't win either, she gave it to Myrna Sutherland who had held the pinocle four times during the afternoon and Janina said she only sneaked in on it just the last minute! Others in on the play were Millie Evans, Mary Harris, and Pearl Wright.

AS REPORTED from the Oregon State University Food marketing specialists, the markets have an abundance of top quality fresh fruits and vegetables now which makes for easier summer cooking and more enjoyable to the family. Perk up a summer meal with a good crisp salad with any of these salad materials: lettuce, onions, radishes, cabbage, tomatoes, and cucumbers. Over The Tee Cup

By DEE GRIBBLE

The mistake I made this last week is big enough to last all summer. So I want to make my apologies to Harlan McCurdy for not even mentioning the "hole-in-one" he made on No. 5 green, while playing with Mahoney, Brown, Groves, McQuarrie and Gribble. We gals following behind witnessed it, too, and it was beautiful. Add that to the blessed event in their family and you'll find Harlan "way out." Our congratulations on both events.

Sunday there weren't many golfers, that I could count, and Tuesday was very poorly attended. But you know, this is the time of year when we change golf shoes for cowboy boots, so gals we'll forgive ya.

Please pay attention to the article elsewhere in the paper about our Junior Golf Tourney Sunday. This event could be real fun and very interesting, since it's the first of its kind here. I need gal golfers to be score keepers for our contestants.

Tee-off time for first golfers is 12:45. So gals, turn out Sunday the 25th and help us out.
