Further evidence that man is dog's best friend is borne out by the fast-growing 4H Club dog care and training program.

In four short years the number of boys and girls enrolled in the program has increased tenfold to nearly 20,000, reports the National 4-H Service Committee. By the end of 1963 another big jump in enrollment is expected.

Sponsored nationally by the Ralston Purina Company, the carefully planned "pet" program has become popular with city 4-H'ers.

that may prove valuable back

He has been somewhat amazed with the magnitude of the country and its diversity—from the flat country in Nebraska with its cornfields to the rugged mountains and the rolling hills of Morrow county. He had pictured that wheat country would be perfectly flat, but was find-ing in Morrow county that this is not necessarily true. The dis-tances involved in getting from place to place are also impres-

From here, Dugdale boarded a bus for Richvale, Calif., where he will visit the Glen Harris ranch, and of all things, will observe rice growing. He laughingly denied any intention of starting rice paddies at the family home, "The Forest," at Newtown

The next stop from there will be the Golden Fine ranch at Yuba City, Calif. Walnuts are raised at this ranch. At the home place in Montgomeryshire, Wales, the Dug-dales have 500 acres and rent another 100. The young man's mother inherited an additional 1500 acres from his grandfather, but inheritance taxes are so high, it seems likely that this must be sold, he said. They principally engage in raising sheep.

"The Forest" is surrounded by Norwegian spruce, although timber is scarce in Wales. Some planting is now being done to supplement the natural growth of the evergreens.

Because of the scarcity of wood, the big 19-room family home, built around 1670, is construc-ted almost entirely of stone. Michael is a graduate of Eaton college (comparable to our high schools) and has attended one year at the Royal Agriculture College at Cirencester, England. He will continue there this year taking estate management.

His father and mother are a handsome couple, of identical ages to the day, and the father is high sheriff, a considerable honor. Michael displayed pictures of his parents and of his father in the rather lavish uni-form of the high sheriff.

The Barratts thoroughly enjoyed having Dugdale as their guest particularly because of the ease with which he became acquainted and became a part of the living around him. His ex-

After arriving here last Tuesday, Dugdale left Monday to board a bus at Pendleton. Garnett Barratt took him over. The young man said that he had a $99 ticket that allowed him to go wherever he needed by bus, a good, convenient and reason-able way to travel.

This was his first trip to America, but it was evident that those who had the good fortune to meet him on his short stay are hoping that he will pass this way again.

Michael insisted that he will come back again. One idea is that he might join a combining crew that starts out in Texas and works its way to Canada.

Wh. and Mrs. Charles Ruggles, and his mother, Mrs. Ola Ruggles, enjoyed a trip to Banff, Lake Louise and Jasper National Park in Canada last week, taking their house trailer on the jaunt. They encountered good weather and took a leisurely pace, averaging only about 100 miles per day. Scenery was beautiful and they took many colored pictures. They advised anyone making the trip to take a trailer or camping gear because most accommodations along the way were full by noon or 1 p.m. each day.
