

THE 39TH ANNUAL Harney County Fair, Rodeo and Race Meet to be held in Burns September 5 through 8, has as reigning royalty these three lovely young ladies. Left to right are Princess Nancy Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Carson of Lawen; Queen Stephanie Sinkey, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Donald Sinkey of Burns; and Princess Dee Ann Jenkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Jenkins of Princeton. Harney county's biggest annual event boasts a three-day top notch rodeo, two days (Friday and Saturday) of pari-mutuel racing, two big parades, carnival, dances and new this year, "One Fantastic Night," featuring outstanding acts of magic and mystery, a two-hour show scheduled for September 6, at 8 p.m. The 1963 Queen court invites everybody to Harney county's annual Fair and Rodeo.

Three Bound Over For Grand Jury

Two men, Paskel Mason and Lavell Eastridge, pleaded guilty to charges of burglary not in a dwelling in Morrow county circuit court Thursday with Judge William Wells presiding. They were indicted the same day by the county grand jury. Trial will be in October. The third man held on the same charge, Andy Mack, did not appear for he is committed to the state hospital after a recent attempt to commit suicide.

Three men charged with burglary not in a dwelling in connection with the entry into the watermelon stand of Mrs. Mary A. Nelson, Boardman, during the night of August 2 were bound over to the grand jury following preliminary hearing in justice court of Oliver Creswick Monday.

The three are Paskel Junior Mason, 39, Andy Mack, 45, both of Firebaugh, Calif.; and Glen Lavell Eastridge, 34, Compton, Calif. They were represented at the hearing by John Kottkamp, Pendleton attorney, and Herman Winter, district attorney, represented the state.

After their arrest by state police shortly after the robbery of the stand, the three were brought to Heppner, then were taken to the Umatilla county jail where they have been held in lieu of bail. Mack allegedly attempted to commit suicide in the jail there by using a razor blade to cut his throat.

The Morrow county grand jury was to convene today (Thursday) to hear the case.

The Rev. Dr. C. C. Griffin and family were week-end guests at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Turner and family. Dr. Griffin is pastor of the First Presbyterian church in Pasadena, Calif. Mrs. Griffin is a cousin of Mrs. Turner, both originally from Mansfield, Ohio.

Lots are Listed For Horse Show Here August 30

Chairmen of the various lots in the Wrangler Horse Show, set for Friday, August 30, at the rodeo grounds are working on plans for the event.

The show will start with the conformation and halter division at 9 a.m. and will continue with the performance division following lunch.

The various lots and the chairmen are as follows:

Conformation and Halter:
Lot 1, colts foaled in 1963, female, Jim Farley; lot 2, colts foaled in 1963, male, Howard Cleveland; lot 3, yearlings foaled in 1962, Pat O'Brien; lot 4, yearlings foaled in 1962, male, Jim Bloodworth; lot 5, two-year-olds foaled in 1961, female, Roice Fullerton; lots 6, 7, and 8, gelding classes, Floyd Jones; lots 9, 10, 11, 12, and 13, mare classes, Art

Vance; lots 14, 15 and 16, stallion classes, Jerry Dougherty; lot 17, get of sire, Bill Healy; lots 18 and 19, pony classes, Betty Fullerton.

Ponies—Conformation and Performance under Saddle: lot 1, Jim Valentine.

Performance division:
Lots 1, 2, junior equitation, Ruth Nutting; lots 3, 4, 5, western pleasure, Bob Fetsch; lot 6, trail class, Jim Norene; lots 7, 8, reining classes, Ron Currin; lot 9, barrel race, John Eubanks; lot 10, junior calf roping, Corbett Green; lot 11, cow cutting, Ralph Beamer.

Attention of Wranglers is called to the fact that sleeve patches are available. Those interested may contact Mrs. Jim (Sue) Valentine. Fred Mankin also asks that anyone who has boots for flag staffs turn them into him. They are needed for the parade.

An error on announcers for the horse show was made in last week's Gazette-Times. The announcers will be Harold Irwin, Al Fetsch and Gene Pierce. Pierce's name last week was incorrectly reported as "Gene Fetsch."

Visiting this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parrish are their niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Waud, of Othello, Wn. He is county agent of Adams county and they are here to act as judges at the county fair, a job they have done for a number of years. See us for envelopes of all kinds. The Gazette-Times.
