AH HA, the kids are off to school again! Sounds nice, but it is sure awfully quiet around here and very hard to get settled down to the job! The boys were a little excited, mostly, I think, because of the thoughts of playing football. Dee was anxious to find out which room she was in and who would be there with her. With September here, everyone will become more involved with club and lodge meetings and following the youngsters with school activities. So goes fall into winter and spring!

SMALL WORLD, or so it seems to Joan Sumner who was introduced to her neighbor in The Dalles right here in Central Market in Heppner! Pat Brindle came up to Joan and introduced her friend, Mrs. L. L. Hagen, who lives just a few blocks from Joan. Mr. and Mrs. Hagen and family visited the Brindles for a week. Mr. Hagen has been recovering from an auto accident.

SIX TABLES were in session last Tuesday night at the Elks lodge for duplicate bridge play. Karen Thompson and Marian Jonasson won high north-south and Grace Nickerson and Daisy Collins were second high. Bobbe Driscoll and Bill Collins won high east-west and Jim Driscoll and Shirley Blake were second high. The next get-together is set for September 10 at the lodge.
