Earl Ayres Views New 1964 Mercury

Flying weather was rough but the new 1964 Mercury is smooth, Earl Ayres, owner of Heppner Auto Sales, reported upon his return from Seattle Monday where he attended the 1964 Lincoln-Mercury showing.

He left by plane Sunday and was back home Monday night. Ayres said the Mercury models are particularly attractive, some with new roof lines.

On the flight home from Seattle the plane encountered a lightning storm near Portland and it was necessary to maintain a holding pattern for 20 minutes before it was safe to land because of high winds. Shortly after, however, he took off again for Pendleton in another commercial plane.

Ayres made the trip alone from here. The entire staffs of the Heppner Auto Sales and Condon Auto Sales, however, will attend the new Ford showing in Seattle on September 17 and 18.

Ione Grid Slate Lists Seven Games

Seven games are included on Ione High school's football schedule for the 1963 season, Coach Dick Strait announces. First contest for the Cardinals will be on Friday, September 20, against Arlington on the Ione field at 2:30 p.m.

The team takes to the road for the second game at Echo at 2:30 on Friday, September 27, then returns home against Weston for an October 4 game at 2:30.

Balance of the schedule is as follows: October 11, 2:30, Ione at Umapine; October 18, 2:30, Helix at Ione; October 25, 2:30, Riverside at Ione; and November 1,

Club Plans Barbecue

An outdoor barbecue will start off the year's activities for the Heppner Mothers' club on Sunday evening, September 15. Members and their husbands will meet in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Winters for barbecue dinner and informal evening, starting at 6:30 p.m. Those attending are asked to bring their own table service.

Ione at Fossil. All are league games with the exception of the Arlington and Fossil contests.

Coach Strait, who succeeds Coach Glenn Biehl as mentor for the Cardinals, said that he has a turnout of 20 men and he looks for a good active season.

Biehl, who was at Ione for two years, accepted a coaching position at La Grande High school.
