

New Teachers Given Special Welcome by PTA

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM
 IONE — Many parents and school friends gathered at the lone cafeterium last Wednesday evening to welcome the new teachers and to attend the first PTA meeting. Joe Hausler, president, presided at the short business meeting. The following committee chairmen were appointed: Mrs. Norman Nelson, social; Mrs. Eulenna Corley, program; Gilbert Lujan, legislative; Mrs. Ray Boyce, membership; Mrs. Wallace Matthews, hospitality; and Mrs. Garland Swanson, band and music.

The reception was in charge of Mrs. Norman Nelson and assisting her were Mrs. James Barnett, Mrs. Phil Emert, and Mrs. Jack Hynd. Leonard Herrick presented the grade school teachers and Gene Harryman introduced the high school staff. The tea table was beautifully decorated using the school colors, red and white. Mrs. Omar Rietmann and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom poured.

Parents of school children are urged to support their school by becoming members of the PTA by contacting the membership chairman or room mothers.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Rietmann are spending a vacation at Walla Walla Lake. On their return they will meet her father, George Munsford of Nampa, Idaho, at Baker and bring him home with them for a visit.

Bert Mason is seriously ill at the hospital at Willamette Manor in Portland, according to word received here by relatives.

Gary Morgan left on Monday for Pasco to enroll in Columbia Basin College. Orientation classes for freshmen began on Tuesday and classes started Thursday.

Mrs. John Botts is in the hospital in Heppner. Their daughter, Mrs. Larry Sullivan (Louise Botts) and baby left for Vancouver, Wn. the first of the week after a visit here. The Sullivans have just returned from the Hawaiian Islands, where Mr. Sullivan has been stationed for two years.

Mrs. Tom Davidson and daughter, Joyce, of Los Angeles left for their home Thursday morning after a visit with her father, Earl Morgan, and other relatives. They attended the Round-Up on Wednesday.

Club Discusses Business, Plans for Church Installation
 On September 12, Mrs. Marion Palmer was hostess to the Maranatha club at her new home on the lone-Lexington highway. Nineteen members and several guests were present. Mrs. Mary Swanson led in the devotional program, using scriptures from the New Testament as her topic.

As a part of the business meeting, the matter of a second exit from the church, and fire escape were discussed and a letter of recommendation sent to the trustees was approved. By hauling their own gravel and using welded pipes for railings, a saving of more than $60 can be made on the fire escape. This work has all been offered as a donation by church men.

The Church School Board of Education presented the program, Mrs. F. T. Martin and Mrs. Robert Rietmann were speakers and both gave excellent information on advanced and primary schools respectively. They impressed the idea that "people can learn a lot about the Bible" by study, but "little about God without faith."

Installation of new church officers will be held during church services, Sunday, September 22, it was announced. A sandwich and salad luncheon will be served after which the annual business meeting of the United Church of Christ, lone Community church will be held. Several amendments to the by-laws will be submitted for action and church reports for the year given.

The Cottonettes 4-H sewing club held its last meeting of the year at the home of their leader, Mrs. Keith Rea. The girls checked their record books to see that they were complete and went over their fair judging sheets to review suggestions made. Mrs. Rea served them refreshments following the meeting.

Week-end guests at the Wallace Matthews home were his brother, Otto Matthews of Roseburg, his niece, Mrs. George Johnson of Winlock, Wn., his grand-niece, Mrs. Mark Munday of Prineville and Mrs. Effie Peters of Sutherlin. They enjoyed the Round-Up on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tews and children left on Tuesday for an extended trip to Kindred, N. D. to visit Mrs. Tews' family.

Rep. Smith is Topic Speaker
 Topic Club met at the home of Mrs. Mabel Cotter on Friday afternoon. Guest speaker for the meeting was Rep. Jack Smith of Condon, who was accompanied by Mrs. Smith. He spoke on the procedure necessary for a bill to become a law and he also discussed the new tax law, which is to be referred to the people on October 15.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wortendyke of Vancouver, B. C. arrived on Thursday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay. They are cousins of Mrs. Lindsay. On Friday James Lindsay took Mr. Wortendyke and Homer Mankin to the parade and Round-Up in Pendleton.

Other guests of the Lindsays Thursday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lorence and Mrs. Betty Kane of Silverton, who went on to the Round-Up on Friday. Mrs. Lorene and Mrs. Kane are sisters of Mr. Lindsay.

Club Takes Garden Tour
 The lone Garden club assembled at the Oscar Lundell home at 10:00 a.m. on Tuesday morning and went on a tour of the attractive gardens in town. After a sack lunch at the Lundells, the members drove south of town to view the Garland Swanson strip farming and continued on to the William Rawlins ranch, where the business meeting was held and a tour was made of the Rawlins' garden. During the business meeting plans were made for the annual flower show to be held in the high school cafeterium on September 29. A silver tea will also be held at the same time.

Miss Helen Salter, who is employed at St. Helena's hospital in St. Helena, Calif., is spending her vacation here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Salter.

Dinner guests Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCabe were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Wortendyke, Mrs. D. W. Akers, and Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay.

Miss Linda Heimbigner left on Thursday for the University of Oregon, where she is a senior in Education. As a member of Sigma Kappa, Linda had to leave early to prepare for Rush Week.

Mrs. Victor Rietmann left for Portland Saturday, where she will shop and receive medical attention.

Arthur Turner of Tacoma, Wn. was a guest at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Fannie Griffith, on Saturday night. He had attended the Round-Up for three days. The first time he attended was 50 years ago and he saw many changes, but enjoyed this year's show immensely. He left for home on Sunday.

Kenneth Nelson entered Columbia Basin College this week as a sophomore.

Mrs. Edna Yarnall is releasing from the hospital in Heppner on Monday afternoon and went to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles O'Connor.

Mrs. Charles McElhinny of Salem left on the train early Friday for her home after a visit here with her daughter, Mrs. Norman Nelson and family.

Ralph Kincaid had the misfortune to break his ankle, when he jumped from a horse he was riding.

Miss Karen Lundell left for Parkland, Wn. on Thursday, where she will enroll as a senior in Education at the Pacific Lutheran University. She accompanied her fiancé, Francis Stack of Big Sandy, Mont., who has been visiting at the Lundell home.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell spent Thursday in Portland.

Miss Marilyn Morgan of Portland spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan. Other guests, who came up with her, were her cousin, Peggy Voorhees and Val McCoy and Alice Martin, college friends of Marilyn's, who spent the summer with her in Hawaii. The girls attended the Round-Up on Saturday, the first time for Val and Alice.

Miss Jean Martin was maid of honor at the wedding of her Oregon State classmate, Miss Sylvia Post to James McGill at Monmouth last Saturday.

Mrs. Lee Palmer entertained her twin daughters, Debra and Donna, with a birthday party on Monday. The girls were four years old. Guests present were Mrs. Dick Sherer, Scott, Todd, and Brett, Mrs. Cleo Childers, Laurie and Harvey, Mrs. Carol Miller, Pam and Greg, Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn and granddaughter, Kimber Lee, Mrs. Clell Rea, Mrs. Garry Tullis, Mrs. Gottfried Hermann, Mrs. Elmer Palmer, Mrs. Dale Ray, Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mrs. Harold Sherer and Judy, and the twin's sister, Barbara Ann.

Craig Crawford of La Grande is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Hermann.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Peterson and family returned home on Tuesday from a vacation, which took them to Portland and Eugene, where they visited his aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dobbins. They came home via Bend.

Mrs. Joe Dixon of The Dalles spent Wednesday here visiting her husband, who is painting the exterior of the home of Mrs. Mabel Cotter.

Home Ec club of Willows Grange will hold an all day meeting on Friday, September 20, for a clean-up at their hall. Potluck lunch will be enjoyed at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Hansen were here for the week-end visiting their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Peterson and family. They also went to the Round-Up. They returned to their home in Portland on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lundell of Pendleton were visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Lundell on Sunday.

Miss Jean Martin spent last week observing classroom teaching of Mrs. Elmer Schmidt in home economics at the Heppner grade and high school as part of her assignments at Oregon State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Carlson and family were in Portland this week-end and were dinner guests in Salem on Sunday at the home of his sister, Mrs. Joyce Darst and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bristow and family of Portland and Mr. and Mrs. Gerry Bristow and baby came up for the week-end to visit Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Bristow. On Saturday evening Gerry played with the alumni team in a football game against Eastern Oregon College. The alumni successfully defeated the Mountaineers.

The ALCW of Valby Lutheran church met at the home of their pastor's wife, Mrs. Kenneth Robinson, in Heppner on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie McCabe and Christine, and their grand-daughter, Linda Pettyjohn, and Mr. and Mrs. Alvin McCabe and boys went to Mt. Adams last week-end to pick huckleberries.

Also camping out at Mt. Adams last week were Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Martin and Jean and their houseguest, Al Brazell, of Jacksonville Beach, Fla. Al left on Saturday for Corvallis, where he is a student at Oregon State.

Kenneth Smouse and son Kenry Lynn enjoyed a camping trip in the Blue Mountains last week-end.

Mrs. Beulah Lundell of Portland drove up on Sunday to visit relatives and supervise a new roof being put on her house in Gooseberry.

Mrs. G. Hermann entertained a group at a coffee party at her home on Wednesday afternoon. Guests attending were Mrs. Cecil Thorne, Mrs. Victor Rietmann, Mrs. Marion Palmer, Mrs. Lee Palmer and girls, Mrs. Garry Tullis, Mrs. Clell Rea, Mrs. Harold Sherer, Mrs. John Jepsen and Mrs. Dale Rea.

Saturday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Palmer were her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Parson and Teri Lee of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Thorne are visiting her son, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Eagle and family at Missoula, Mont.

Enrolled at Victoria, B. C.
 John Krebs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Krebs of Cecil, has enrolled in the University School for Boys at Victoria, B. C. He is a seventh grader. He was taken to school by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Krebs of Arlington, who continued on through Canada on a vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Sr. left for their home in Lake Grove on Monday after a week's visit at their farm home here. They enjoyed going to the Round-Up on Friday with the Norman Nelson family.

Plastic Containers Needed
 Mrs. Earl McCabe requests that anyone having plastic strawberry or tomato containers might donate them to the kindergarten. They may be left at Bristow's Store where she will pick them up.

The lone-Lexington Cemetery District has purchased a new truck, tractor with some attachments, including a rotator, and other garden tools. The Lexington cemetery will be cleaned, fenced and weed control practiced until such time as water can be obtained. This will also be done at all the small country cemeteries in the District. At the lone IOOF Cemetery, work is progressing on leveling, killing weeds etc. preparatory to planting grass, where this service has been requested. Anyone desiring annual or perpetual care of their plots should let the secretary, Carl Troedson, know. A steel fence with posts set in concrete is soon to be erected. Keith Savage is the caretaker.

Two Fined $250 On Hunting Raps

Fines of $250 and $4.50 costs each for illegal hunting were levied against Leonard J. Halsey, 24, Lexington, and Rease R. Endicott, 22, Wednesday in justice court of Oliver Creswick. Halsey pleaded guilty to a charge of possession of illegal venison and Endicott pleaded guilty to killing deer in a closed season.

Officers Jim Gordon and Neal Nelson of Oregon State police made the arrests. A deer was shot in the Ukiah area and was boned, wrapped and frozen by the men, Creswick said.

COLLEGE isn't easy — you have to have grades and money. Money at work now at Equitable Savings can carry the college financial burden later. Equitable's college cost comparison chart helps. Just call me.

Bill Morgan
 39 S. W. Dorion Avenue
 Pendleton, Oregon
 CR 6-2421
 Money at work earning 4% and 4½%* Automatic Pay Off.
 *Current rate at maturity if you qualify.

Equitable SAVINGS
 A SURE INVESTMENT
 IN PROGRESS SERVING THE COMMUNITY

Club Discusses Business, Plans for Church Installation

On September 12, Mrs. Marion Palmer was hostess to the Maranatha club at her new home on the lone-Lexington highway. Nineteen members and several

CHECK YOUR FURNACE NOW

Be Ready For The COLD of WINTER

Let us check your heating system now and do what's needed to put it in shape for top performance (at minimum fuel consumption) throughout the winter.

See Us For All Kinds Of Floor Coverings

M & R CO.

S&H Green Stamps Ph. 676-9418

HUNTERS HEADQUARTERS

GOOD SELECTION OF RIFLES SHOTGUNS

GOOD STOCK OF SCOPES, CLEANING KITS, GUN OIL, AND ALL HUNTER'S SUPPLIES.

USED GUNS RIFLES—SHOTGUNS FOR SALE

GILLIAM & BISBEE HDWE. CO.

106 E. May Ph. 676-9433

We Will Deliver Your Processed Meat

Free Of Charge To Heppner, Lexington, lone.

WHOLESALE MEATS CUSTOM SLAUGHTERING SCHEDULE:

Hogs ————— Tuesday
 Cattle ————— Wed., Thurs.
 Sheep ————— Any Day

Follett Meat Co.

Hermiston, Oregon
 Ph. JO 7-6651
 On Hermiston-McNary Highway

HUNTING SUPPLIES

AT

Western Auto

HEPPNER