

MORTGAGE OF ST. PATRICK'S Parish Hall was burned at special ceremonies August 15, with Bishop Francis P. Leipzig, Baker, putting a match to the note held by Phil Higgins, senior man in the parish. Also participating was Father Raymond H. Beard, pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic church.

Bishop Attends Burning Ceremony Of Parish Debt

At special services on August 15 parishioners of St. Patrick's Catholic church observed the burning of the mortgage on their parish hall. Bishop Francis P. Leipzig of Baker presided at the 5:30 p.m. Mass on the Feast of the Assumption, with Father Antonine Keating of Hermiston and Father Timothy Collins of Pendleton assisting. Approximately 150 people of the parish were present for the occasion.

Phil Higgins, senior man in the parish, held the note while the bishop put a burning match to it.

Under the leadership and inspiration of Father Raymond H. Beard, construction of the parish hall started in May, 1959, and was completed in January, 1960, at an approximate cost of $55,000. Members of the Holy Name Society who worked with Father Beard as a building committee included Paul Koenig, chairman; Alex Lindsay, John Williams,

Guild Makes Plans For Thrift Shop

St. Monica's Guild of All Saints Episcopal church met at the church parish hall Tuesday, September 17, with President, Mrs. Haskell Sharrard presiding.

The group voted to make plans to open a Thrift Shop with Mrs. Clint McQuarrie as chairman and Mrs. Paul Brown as co-chairman for organization and arrangements.

The Guild meets regularly on the third Tuesday of each month during the school year. The next meeting is set for 8:00 p.m., October 15, at the home of Mrs. Herman Winter. Mrs. Sharrard will be co-hostess for the evening when members will make stick horses for the annual church bazaar.

Gar Swanson, Jim Farley, Phil Blakney and Jim Healy.

A potluck dinner in the hall followed the ceremony. At the end of the dinner Bishop Leipzig spoke briefly to thank parishioners for their sacrifices during the four years of the hall's construction and generosity in paying off the mortgage.

Ione Garden Club To Stage Fall Show At School Sept. 29

Beauty in fall flowers will be displayed at the 12th annual fall flower show of the Ione Garden club on Sunday, September 29, at the Ione school cafeteria, between the hours of 2 and 5 p.m.

"Flowers on Parade" is the theme chosen for this year's show, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Ronald Bishop and Mrs. Oscar Lundell. A silver tea will accompany the public showing.

All growers of flowers in the county are urged to enter. There will be divisions of entries in both horticulture and arrangements for both adults and children. Bloom cycle, table settings for community organizations, separate classes for novice and blue ribbon winners in arrangements, and others. For those who do not already have show schedules, they may be obtained by contacting Mrs. Lundell, club president.

Of special interest will be a detailed display of varieties of dahlias by William Rawlins, and of outstanding chrysanthemums blooms of club members.

Entries will be received on Saturday afternoon and evening, beginning at 5 p.m., and on Sunday morning between 8 and 10:30 a.m. Judging will start at 11, with sweepstakes award going to one with the most blue ribbons.

One of the club's recent projects was the making of corsages and boutonnières for all teachers, wives or husbands who attended the Parent-Teacher's reception at the school last Wednesday evening.

Heppner Ponies Open Play September 26

Football fever is in the air for the Heppner Junior High Ponies again this year as they prepare for five games this season.

Coaches Tom Hughes and Clint Agee have had the 31 seventh and eighth grade pigskin enthusiasts working out for the past two weeks. The boys start in by learning the fundamentals and now are trying out for the positions on the team.

All of the games will begin at 2 p.m. and the seventh grade team will start off the season September 26 with a game at Iririgon against the A. C. Houghton team. The following day, Friday, September 27, the Ponies will travel to Ione for an encounter there. Remaining games are: October 4, Echo, there; October 18, Arlington, there; and last game is Ione here, October 25.

Carol Palmer Weds Dallas Rea In Summer Candlelight Ceremony

Miss Carol Ann Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer of Lexington, became the bride of Dallas Albert Rea, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clell Rea of Ione, at a double ring candlelight ceremony in the Ione community church on Sunday, August 25.

The Rev. Walter B. Crowell performed the afternoon ceremony in a setting of green and silver. White gladioli and green chrysanthemums arranged in tall standards and in altar vases, flanked by lighted tapers, decorated the altar. Organist was Mrs. Paul Tewes of Ione.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, the bride wore a street length white satin brocade sheath, with white fur edging the cuffs of the short jacket. A short illusion veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls combined with small silver leaves. Her only adornment was a pair of pearl earrings of the late Nellie Palmer, grandmother of the bride. Her bridal bouquet was a white orchid surrounded by white gladioli and ivy streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Ron Crabtree of Ione, sister of the bride, wearing a green and silver brocade sheath. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli with ivy streamers.

Serving as best man was John Howton of Hermiston, a close friend of the groom. Ushers were Joe Palmer, brother of the bride, and Francis Rea, brother of the groom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Palmer chose a dark peacock blue knit suit to which was pinned a white gladioli corsage with silver ribbon. Mrs. Rea, mother of the groom, wore a dark green linen suit. Her corsage was also of white gladioli.

A reception followed in the church parlors with Mrs. Bud Marshall in charge of arrangements. Centering the reception

Lutheran Inquiry Class to Begin

An adult class of instruction on the basic teachings of the Bible and Christian faith will begin this Sunday evening, September 22, at Hope Lutheran church. Class will begin at 8:00 and end at 9:30. This first of eight sessions will center about the themes, "Man and His Maker," and "Revelation." Succeeding sessions will study such themes as man as sinner, Jesus Christ a Savior, the Holy Spirit and the Christian Church, the Sacraments, Prayer, Christian worship, family life.

"The purpose of the course," says Pastor Robinson, "is to come to grips with God's plan and purpose in creating and redeeming men in Jesus Christ. We want to confront people with the joy of living a life in Christ." Class sessions will be informal using the methods of lecture, group study, and open discussion. There is no obligation or cost to those who come other than a willingness to search for and know the truth. Bibles and study guides will be furnished. Parents may leave children at the parsonage under the care of Mrs. Robinson.

All interested adults are cordially invited to come join the study group.

Taylor Recovers; Back at Work Again

Avery Taylor, who suffered a serious back injury in a fall from the roof of a mountain cabin while working there recently, has been dismissed from the hospital and is back at work again.

He has formed a company, Taylor's General Works, and is prepared to do home building and remodeling, ceramic tile work, cabinet building, painting, counter tops and similar jobs. He currently has four men working for him, he states.

Alaska Motor Trip Enjoyed by Sniders

Home again after a motor trip up the Alcan highway and through Alaska are Mr. and Mrs. George Snider who left on August 17 and were back on September 12.

They found that road conditions varied on the highway, hitting some good road, some dusty and some mud, especially in British Columbia where rains had been heavy.

Anchorage, a thriving city, reminded them very much of Portland. They visited the Richard Calvins, formerly of Heppner, while they were there and in Palmer they visited Perry Dawson, a cousin of Mr. Snider.

Part they liked best of Alaska was the Kenai Peninsula, and they drove out the peninsula to Homer. Considerable construction is going on there, and it seemed to them to be the richest and most picturesque part of the new state. Gas wells are being opened up, together with refineries, and it accommodates some of the biggest fishing industries.

The Sniders went to Fairbanks, but were not so much impressed by the city. They took the farthest road north on the continent and drove out to Circle from Fairbanks, staying at Circle Hot Springs. They also visited Dawson City and the Klondike.

Throughout the trip, they depended upon local accommodations and found motels and cabins every place that they went. They also found that prices were higher.

As to wildlife, they didn't see too many animals but did see several moose on the trip. En route home, they came by way of Edmonton, Lake Louise and Banff, the beautiful scenery there climaxing a thoroughly enjoyable trip.

THE ONLY 2-WHEEL DRIVE TRUCK BUILT WITH 'JEEP' TOUGHNESS

Toughness is a 'Jeep' tradition. For years the 'Jeep' truck has been designed and built for the roughest kind of use. And that's how we still build them.

The big news is that this same 4-wheel drive toughness is now available in a 2-wheel drive truck. Designed the same. Built the same. Endures the same as the virtually indestructible 4-wheel drive models.

The new 2-wheel drive 'Jeep' Gladiator truck is powered by the high-torque, 140 h.p. Tornado-OHC engine. More horsepower on less gas than any other production engine... standard gas at that. Power options available including automatic transmission.

Let us demonstrate the new Gladiator today. Find out about its passenger car ride. The big, wide, comfortable seat. The unlimited visibility. Available with pickup or stake body, 120" or 126" wheelbase, 7 or 8 foot pickup box. See your 'Jeep' dealer today.
