Kinzua Enrolls Grade Students

By VIRGINIA KELSO
 KINZUA—The Kinzua grade school started the fall term Monday, September 9, with 107 students enrolled.

Mrs. Wilma Thompson has the first grade, Mrs. Connie Spivey the second, Mrs. Lucy Plank the third, Grayson Gerard the fourth, Mrs. Ruth Vreeland the fifth, and half the sixth, Milt Boring, half the sixth and the seventh, and Robert V. Davis the eighth.

Mr. Davis is the principal of the school and Mrs. LaVina Conner is the school secretary. Milt Boring will be the athletic coach and Mrs. Spivey will have the girls' P. E. class. There will be no enrichment program this year.

The Kinzua Women's club had its regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the kitchen, starting the afternoon off with a pot-luck luncheon. Afterwards a short business meeting was held and then games were played for traveling prizes.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Guinn and Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coleman left Tuesday afternoon to spend several days in Portland attending meetings of the Western Pine Association.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Flack were business visitors to Condon Thursday evening.

Young Golfers Get Awards
 On Friday night, September 6, the second annual awards party for the young members of the Kinzua Golf club was held at the clubhouse. Prime objective of the evening was the awarding of trophies to the winners of the various divisions in the recent young peoples tournament in which 31 future golfers participated. A fine "pizza" dinner was prepared and served by Harlan Schroeder, Vernon Miller and Jim Walker after which the balance of the evening was spent in Bingo and dancing. An added highlight was the cutting and eating of a huge cake, donated by Quentin Viegas honoring the young divotees.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Fletcher and son Verlin of Wallowa spent the week-end here visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Hastings and other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Samples and granddaughter of Central Point spent several days here this past week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Adams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Hugabloom of McPherson, Kansas, spent Monday and Tuesday here with Mr. and Mrs. Paul Oylar. When they left Tuesday for home they were accompanied by Mrs. Oylar who will make an indefinite visit.

Mrs. Mark Jellick and children Dennis and Kathy were in Condon Friday afternoon for dental care.

Mr. and Mrs. Wade Weatherman and family of Westfir spent several days last week visiting friends here. This was their vacation and they were camping out until they got rained out Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Woods and Max spent Saturday at Pendleton attending the Round-Up.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Hyatt and daughter Theresa were in John Day Saturday having dental work done.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Hollomon went to Hermiston Friday evening to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Hollomon and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. George Leach of Hermiston were business visitors here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Bell spent the week-end at Pendleton visiting their daughter Florence and having medical checkups.

Mrs. Slim Rhoton, Mrs. Red Hulett, and Mrs. Clarence Hall of Heppner were business visitors to Pilot Rock Wednesday.
