

Guests Attend Rainbow Meeting

Many guests attended the meeting of Ruth Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, at the Masonic hall Monday night. Diane Schaffitz, outgoing worthy advisor, was honored on her 16th birthday with refreshments served after the meeting by Mrs. Clarence Baker, Mrs. Harley Young, and Mrs. Jim Myers.

Guests included Mrs. Harold Beckett, grand deputy; Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, mother advisor of Ione assembly and worthy matron of Ione OES; and Lee O'Connor, worthy advisor of Ione assembly. Also present was Mrs. Lucille Wilson, advisory board member.

The assembly welcomed two new advisory board members, Mrs. Floyd Worden and Mrs. Wes Marlatt.

The worthy grand advisor and supreme deputy for Oregon will make their official visit here October 3 at a joint meeting of the Ruth and Ione assemblies at the Masonic hall.

Installation of new officers will be held, with Rogenia Wilson going in as worthy advisor, and is open to the public. Exact date and time will be announced later.

Neil White Succumbs In Pendleton Hospital

Graveside services were conducted at the Lexington cemetery Tuesday afternoon, September 17, for Neil White who died Friday at a hospital in Pendleton. Funeral services had been held earlier that day at the Folsom Funeral Chapel, Pendleton, with the Rev. Raymond Riese officiating. Rev. Earl Soward, Lexington, presided at the graveside services.

Mr. White was born in Lexington, the son of the late Marsh and Sarah White. He lived most of his life in Morrow and Umatilla counties. At the time of his death he was a resident of Pilot Rock.

Surviving him are his wife, Lulu S. of Pilot Rock, a son, Vivian Neil of Anaheim, Calif., a brother, Gerald of Raytown, Mo., a sister, Iona E. Gilbreath of Dayton, Wn., and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Amanda Duvall, sister to Mrs. White, flew home from her visit in the east to attend the services.

Vacation Trip Takes Couples to Alaska

Returning Sunday from an enjoyable vacation trip into Canada and Alaska were Mr. and Mrs. Don Heliker, Ione, and Mr. and Mrs. John Graves of Hardman. Traveling in campers over the Alcan highway, they covered a total of 7,588 miles on the month's trip, of which 3,500 miles was on graveled roads.

They traveled north by way of Dawson City, as far north as Fairbanks, enjoying Mt. McKinley National Park, Anchorage, Glacier, and returning over the southern route from Whitehorse, through Elberta and Glacier National Park. In Valdez they

Links Club Plans Winter Activities

By DELPHA JONES
LEXINGTON — Three Links club met at the home of Mrs. Florence McMillan last Thursday afternoon. The card parties for the fall were discussed and plans were made to start them the first Saturday in October. Serving on this committee are Bernice Wihlon, Merle Cornelison, and LaVerne Henderson. Plans were also discussed concerning the annual turkey dinner, which is to be the first Saturday in November. Named to this committee were Delpha Jones, Hilda Yocom and Bertha Hunt.

Following the business meeting, birthday cakes honored the September birthdays of Mrs. Earl Warner, Mrs. Trannie Parker, Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth and Mrs. Charley Padberg.

Others present for the afternoon were Mrs. Edward Hunt, Mrs. Armin Wihlon, Mrs. Joe Yocom, Mrs. Art Keene, Mrs. Al Petsch, Mrs. Bertha Hunt, Mrs. Altonzo Henderson, Mrs. Merle Cornelison, Mrs. Oris Padberg, Mrs. Charlie Padberg, Mrs. Charles Colly, the honorees, Mrs. Cutsforth, Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Padberg, and the hostess, Mrs. Florence McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fredrickson and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Van Winkle are spending a few days at Ritter Hot Springs.

Miss Deanna Hays and houseguest, Miss Pat Cordruna of Corvallis, visited last week-end with Miss Hays' grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warner.

Friday night dinner guests at the Earl Soward home were the parents of Mrs. Marvin Soward, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Johnson of Wichita, Kans. They had been on a business trip to Canada and came through Eastern Oregon to enjoy the Pendleton found-up and to visit the Sowards.

Rev. Earl Soward is going to fill the pulpit at the Lexington Christian church for several weeks, until a new minister arrives. The church would like any calls going to the parsonage to be transferred to 989-8410, the Soward residence.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones and son Kenneth were overnight guests of the Edward Hudson family at Fox, and spent Saturday visiting the "so-called" Ghost Towns of Eastern Oregon, Whitney, Austin, Granite and Sumpter, returning on Sunday.

Mrs. Dean Hunt and daughter Jeannine and Mrs. Oliver Creswick of Heppner were Walla Walla visitors one day last week. Guests Sunday at the Charles Colley home were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Shafer of Hermiston.

called on Mrs. Raymond (Jeannette) Huddleston, daughter of Frank Turner. Making the trip purely for pleasure and sight-seeing, they found little time for hunting or fishing, but hope to return at another time for these.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yocom and children, Marian and Stanley, visited in Wasco over the week-end.

Guests this week at the Jim Driscoll home were her mother, Mrs. A. R. Fortner, Boardman; and her sister, Mrs. Isabelle Davis, Condon; Mrs. Bruce Lindsay, Portland; and Mrs. John Klein, Bellevue, Wn. They are here visiting Mr. Fortner who is ill in Pioneer Memorial hospital. Visiting with the Rev. and Mrs. Melvin Dixon and family for a few days this week was G. Z. Wollam of Medford. Wollam, a retired Westinghouse Electric executive, attended the Pendleton Round-Up and then came to Heppner to visit his former pastor and family.

Mrs. Raymond (Jeannette) Huddleston came Tuesday for a two weeks visit with her father, Frank Turner. She came by jet from her home in Valdez, Alaska. Mickey and Lynn Espy returned to Moscow, Idaho, last Thursday after visiting with the Kenneth Cutsforth family for the past month. While here they visited also at Seaside, Portland and at Mary Hill. The children were taken home by Orville Cutsforth in his airplane and Mrs. Ken Cutsforth also made the trip.
