BEWARE, THIS is not my best day! First off I reached for a quart of peaches only to have two jars come out and one broke into a million pieces. I just love to clean up such nice "stuff" But the sun came out and now all there is to worry about is that old ironing! Oh, well, I can do that and dream about deer season to open soon.

THREE TABLES of pinochle were in session Tuesday night at the home of Judy Buschke. Guess they ganged up on Flo Connor because she didn't win high, but they did draw her name out of the hat to win the door prize! Luck, I guess! Linda Dunlap won high and Punky McDaniel won low. Others in on the play were Jeanne Berry, Lillian Key, Mary Lovgren, Bonnie Buschke, Marlys Phegley, Sharon Cutsforth, and Jo Simmons.

IT IS nearing time for the Elks fall pinochle tournament which begins Wednesday, October 2, at 7:30 p.m. Get your partner and join in the fun and maybe win a prize, too!

THE EARL Evans, Claude Buschkes, Bob Buschkes, and Ann Fehmerling journeyed to Portland September 14 for the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hyle. Mrs. Hyle is the daughter of Mrs. Fehmerling. They enjoyed a family dinner at a restaurant in Portland with 37 attending the festivities. The Hyles have one daughter, Mrs. Ron Kimpton, Portland, and a new grandson, Robert Ronald, born September 22.

HELEN SCHAFFITZ was hostess for the What's Trumps bridge club at the first fall meeting, Wednesday afternoon. Lota Tibbles had high score; Virginia Rosewall was second; and Cork Norene was low. Others enjoying the salad at noon and afternoon play were Hazel Mahoney, Madge Thomson, Cora Mae Ferguson, and Happy Graham.

SAY, ARE you fall house cleaning now? If so, how about donating your unused things to the Civic League rummage sale. Just call Velma Cantonwine, Patti Prock or Virginia Stillman for pick-up of your things. Remember the sale dates, October 25 and 26.

KATHY MELBY entertained a group of high school students Sunday afternoon with waffle feed following the afternoon skating fun. Some 20 youngsters enjoyed the good eats and dancing with crutches, how about that??

MARY JEAN McCabe had two tables of bridge Thursday night with Janina Johnson having high score for the evening. Edda Mae Lovgren filled in for one of the members and won second high. Donna Gordon was low. Also playing were Mary McClure, Mary McLeod, Marian Jonasson, and Jan Agee.

HAVE YOU had a slumber party at your house? You have not been initiated fully into parents' club until you have one! Our daughter, Dee, had her first one last Friday with six other little gals for supper, an evening of skating and the rest of the evening for giggling, dancing, listening to records and not sleeping! They finally gave out at 2 a.m. and up again early for a hearty breakfast giving orders to son, Steve, on how to cook their eggs. Lots of fun, not too much sleep, but we're game to try it again, although I may bunk them in the basement next time!

DORIS WATKINS won high at the Friday afternoon pinochle club with Mary Harris having two tables in play. Margaret Dubuque and Hannah Anderson Bergstrom having low. Others won the pinochle with Esther playing were Beulah Mankin, Pearl Wright, and Carrie Beckett. Millie Evans and Gladys Beckett were out of town over the weekend.

THE RHEA Creek HEC met at the country home of Mrs. John Bergstrom Thursday with a potluck dinner at noon. The business meeting followed during the afternoon. They planned a workday Saturday at Chapin-Rock Creek park which was well attended. Emma Cecil will have the next meeting starting with a potluck dinner October 17.

FOR THOSE planning to enter the "Make it with Wool" contest in Pendleton, the date was changed from October 12 to October 19 at the Tapadero motel. For more information, contact Mrs. Bob (Darlene) Hoskins, Ione.

LUCIA CUTSFORTH entertained the Duplicate bridge club Thursday night with many of the members absent because of conflicts. Substitutes were Inez Meador, Laurel Van Marter, Eddie Munkers and Phyllis Cole. Others playing were Kay Robinson, Bebe Munkers, Lois Hunt, Lorine Ledbetter, June Bellenbrock, Mildred Davidson, and Eileen Padberg. Eileen and Inez won high; Lois and Mildred second; Bebe and Eddie low. The girls will get together on the third Friday next month.

A GROUP of 25 eighth graders gathered Friday night at the home of Bill McLeod for an evening of dancing and cake, ice cream and punch. Bill insisted it wasn't his birthday party but the kids decided otherwise. He received many nice gifts and enough money to buy his hunting license and deer tag. Now, Bill, all you need is the deer!

GALS, DON'T forget the Elks Ladies Night next Thursday and send the guys out for hunters' night tonight (Thursday). They might win you a new rifle. And while we're talking about nights, remember the bowling lanes are to open soon, and if you would like to bowl, either on a team or just learn how, call Lorine Ledbetter, Vondie Lovgren, or Iris Campbell. They are signing up names now and organizing teams. Come along and get the fever with the rest of us!

Two Attend Legion Auxiliary Seminar

Mrs. Frank Hamlin and Mrs. Riley Munkers attended the seminar of District 6, American Legion Auxiliary, in La Grande Sunday. Mrs. Hamlin is Heppner auxiliary president and Mrs. Munkers is historian.

The auxiliary officers heard from all of the department of officers including Mrs. H. A. Weddle, department president, Salem. Mrs. Lois Rogers, Baker, district president, was in charge of the meetings during the day. The group discussed and planned projects for the coming year and stressed membership, following the slogan of the national president, Mrs. Luther Johnson, Valley, Neb., "Door to Door for '64." Mrs. Hamlin reports that Heppner has reached its membership quota of 53 already this year.

Glen Howe, department service officer, spoke to the group on the importance of the veterans to have their service records up to date and accessible to their families in case of death. He reminded them to have their discharges recorded at the courthouse in their respective counties. He reported that they have processed over 4,000 death claims in the state of Oregon this year and many families have had difficulty in obtaining their rights because the veteran husband had not made his service records available.

It was announced that Oregon won 13 national awards at the National American Legion convention held earlier this month in Miami, Fla. The Heppner Legion Post and auxiliary will hold a joint potluck supper meeting at the Legion hall Monday, October 7 at 7:30 p.m. All members and their families are urged to attend to hear the talks by Marti Dixon and Jennifer Brindle, Girls' State delegates, and Mrs. Hamlin, senior counselor at Girls' State.

Grand Matron Visits District Meet Here

Mrs. John (Virginia) Wright made her official visit at the district meeting of Locust and Ruth chapters of the Order of Eastern Star here last Thursday. Mrs. Wright resides at Myrtle Creek and is now on her tour of the state chapters for observation and instruction. Other guests were Mrs. Walter (Florence) Jaeger, Condon, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Sorenson, Pendleton; Mrs. Myrtle Winslow, Pendleton, junior past worthy matron; and Mrs. Roy W. (Kathryn) Lindstrom, Ione, committee member. Mr. Sorenson is grand sentinel of grand chapter. Mrs. Lowell Grable, worthy matron of Ruth chapter, entertained Mrs. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Don Turner, Lexington; and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, Ione, with dinner in her home before the Eastern Star meeting.

Rainbow to Install Worthy Advisor

Rogenia Wilson will be seated as worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly Rainbow for Girls, Sunday, September 29, at 2:30 p.m. The installation ceremonies are open to the public and are held in the Masonic hall. The Rainbow girls will meet with the Ione assembly at the lodge hall here Thursday, October 3, for the official visitation of Sandra Beck, Canby, grand worthy advisor.

Pearl Devine expects to leave for Seattle October 3 for several weeks stay. She will enter Providence hospital October 6 preparatory to undergo heart surgery October 9. She will stay at the home of her granddaughter, Mrs. Maxine Ness, before and after surgery, expecting to remain there for medical care until in December.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Evans and Mr. and Mrs. Piper Karl, Pendleton, enjoyed a fishing trip to Westport, Wn., and an extensive sight-seeing trip around that area. They also saw the baby elephant in Portland before coming home Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Bob McPherson, Spangle, Wn., were visitors at the Fred Mankin home Sunday and Monday on their way to Canada.

WCS Sub-District Meeting Held Here

Women of the Heppner Methodist church were hosts to the Blue Mountain Sub-district meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service for an all-day meeting last Thursday, September 19. Sixty-two were registered from the eight churches of the district and included several conference officers.

Theme of the meeting was "Called to Serve," with Mrs. W. C. Erther, sub-district chairman from Milton-Freewater presiding over introduction of guest discussion leaders and over the business meeting. Following a devotional period led by Rev. Melvin Dixon, Mrs. Frank Himes of Portland, district secretary of missionary education and service, gave a presentation of studies and officers.

Topic leaders through the day were Mrs. E. J. Schmitz, Mrs. Leo Small, Mrs. William Lamham of Hermiston, Mrs. Stanley Grimes, Mrs. Eugene Hamblen, Mrs. Ida Golihur and Mrs. C. T. Hunkapillar of Athena. Lunch was served by ladies of the Christian church in their dining rooms. The afternoon was devoted to group clinics.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruggles went to Portland last week and to Gearhart to attend a state insurance association convention. They returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Dee Jones took their daughter, Ann, to Eugene to begin studies at the University of Oregon. They left Monday and plan to return later in the week.

HEPPNER GAZETTE-TIMES, Thursday, September 26, 1963

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Conley of St. Louis, Mo., were here visiting last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Mahan. Mr. Conley is a brother to Mrs. Mahan.
