COMING DOWN THE AISLE after their marriage August 27 in Anchorage, Alaska, are Mr. and Mrs. Tony Casa-Calvo. The bride is the former Marilyn Ann Calvin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Calvin, who lived in Heppner for several years.

Alaska Church Scene Of August Wedding Of Marilyn Calvin

Anchor Park Methodist church, Anchorage, Alaska, was the scene of the wedding of Miss Marilyn Ann Calvin and Tony Casa-Calvo on August 27. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard C. Calvin, former Heppner residents and now residing at 714 E. Street in Anchorage. The groom is the son of Mrs. Antonio Casa-Calvo of Spenard, Alaska.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Kenneth L. Heflin in a setting of pale yellow chrysanthemums and baby fern, flanked by lighted tapers. Organist was Laurence Peters, who accompanied Major William White when he sang, "I Love You Truly."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length gown, fashioned with Florentine lace bodice, elbow length sleeves, bell shaped chiffon skirt over satin, and empire waistline with insert of satin. Her elbow length bouffant French illusion veil was held in place by a demi-cap of satin, edged in tiny seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white miniature chrysanthemums and carnations, with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Carolyn Willard, sister of the bride attended as matron of honor. She wore an embroidered copan blue nylon dress, styled with scoop neckline, cap sleeves and fitted bodice with draped cummerbund at the waist. Her headpiece was a matching blue bow clip, and she wore a wristlet of white flowers.

Best man was Mike Lewis, home on leave from army service in Korea.

Ring-bearer was Ronald Ray

Willard, son of the matron of honor, carrying a heart-shaped white satin pillow bearing the double rings.

Ushers were Jerry Burgett and Terry Reese.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Calvin wore a chocolate brown faille redingote, with beige hat and accessories, and a corsage of pale yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Casa-Calvo, mother of the groom, chose a blue suit with matching accessories, to which was pinned a yellow rosebud corsage.

The couple greeted their friends at a reception in Wesley Hall, social rooms of the church. Pouring coffee was Mrs. Mike Lewis, mother of the best man, and pouring punch was Mrs. William Burquist, sister of the groom.

Centering the reception table was a double tiered white cake decorated with pale rosebud trim and a pair of doves holding double wedding rings. Sprays of tiny fern and pink gladioli decorated the table. Tiny gold wedding rings were placed throughout the cake for lucky guests. It was served by Mrs. James Jackson.

The bride wore a soft blue wool casual dress with brown accessories and off-white coat for going away. The newlyweds took a short wedding trip to Williwaw Lodge on Wasilla Lake.

After graduating from Heppner High school, the bride attended Pacific University in Forest Grove, and graduated from Alaska Methodist University in Anchorage, where she was a member of Kappa Delta sorority and of the Women's Swimming Association. For the past three summers she has been the director of Teen Center in the city of Anchorage recreation department.

Mr. Casa-Calvo is a student at the University of Alaska in Anchorage, is self employed in electronics, has worked for P.N.A. Airlines, Alaska Airlines and as part time announcer for KYBR radio station in Spenard, Alaska. They will be at home near the University in Anchorage.

The '64s from Ford are here: The Year of the Test Drive starts today!

Ford cars have changed. Only a test drive can tell you how much. Races and rallies, economy runs, braking and acceleration tests have bred into our 1964 models the kind of total performance you just can't create on the test track alone. They are hard-muscled, fast-moving, sure-footed. Open competition helped make them that way. They offer you substantially more car than anything at their price. You don't have to take our word for it. We're willing to rest our case on our cars.

TRY TOTAL PERFORMANCE FOR A CHANGE!
FORD
 Falcon • Fairlane • Ford • Thunderbird

1964 SUPER TORQUE FORD
 Strongest, smoothest, steadiest car in its field—by hundreds of pounds... More steel in frame and suspensions... Unique suspension system allows wheels to move backward as well as up and down to flatten bumps... Distinctive new rooflines.

1964 FAIRLANE
 Unique combination of family-size room, sports car feel and modest price... Optional 289-cubic-inch V-8 so lively it was adapted for famous Cobra sports car... Five engine choices, six transmission choices, eight different models.

1964 FALCON
 Everything's changed except the economy that made Falcon famous... Falcon's Six still holds all-time Mobil Economy Run record for Sixes or Eights... Plushest ride ever built into a compact car... 14 models—plus three extra-duty wagons.
