

Brothers Take Brides In Kinzua Ceremonies

By VIRGINIA KELSO

KINZUA—Weddings held the center of attention in Kinzua this week-end when Douglas and Dale Sargent, sons of Mrs. Myrna Smith of Silverton were married. The first wedding was Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Sargent, when Miss Dixie Middleton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mathews of Dayville became the bride of Dale Allen Sargent. The single ring service was read by Rev. Edwin Derick in the presence of relatives and close friends. The bride, given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Jerry Sargent, wore an orchid corsage with a corsage of white carnations. After the ceremony a reception was held at the Sargent home. Miss Middleton attended schools at Dayville and Mr. Sargent at Silverton. They are making their home here where Dale is employed by Kinzua Corporation. Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Mell Smith of Silverton.

Miss Sandra Lee Larsen, daughter of Mrs. Georgann House became the bride of Douglas Delano Sargent at the Kinzua Community church Saturday evening. The single ring service was read by Rev. Fermer Plank. The bride, given in marriage by Jerry Sargent, wore a full length gown of white satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip length veil fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli. Her maid of honor, Miss Loretta Esgasca of Fossil, wore pale pink and carried deep red gladioli. Dale Sargent served as best man for his brother. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Fermer Plank who also accompanied Sally Schroeder, Peggy Plank, and Belinda Meadows when they sang "Always" and "I Love You Truly." A reception was held immediately afterwards in the church annex. Mrs. Sargent attended school in Fossil and Mr. Sargent is a graduate of Silverton schools and is recently discharged from service with the Army. He is employed by Kinzua Corporation and they will make their first home here.
