WELL, DID YOU DO IT? Get your deer? Not me, just dusted the tailfeathers of a small one, only that is a joke, because I still get buck fever and was just spraying the area and the deer did not run into the lead! But still another day and meanwhile back at the week-day business.

A REMINDER to all American Legion and auxiliary members and families to attend the potluck supper and meeting Monday night, October 7. The auxiliary will furnish the ham and potatoes and the members are asked to bring salad, vegetable, or dessert. The Girls' State delegates will be the featured speakers at the auxiliary meeting.

SEVEN TABLES of bridge were in action last Tuesday night at the Elks duplicate play. Rachel Dick and LaFyrne Pratt won high north-south and Dasy Collins and Dr. W. H. Wolff were second. And to keep things in the family, Ed Dick and Gordon Pratt teamed up to win high east-west. Harriet Hall and Dorcen Jacobs were second. The monthly duplicate bridge unit party is set for Sunday, October 6, at 2 p.m. in the Elks lodge.

MISERY LOVES COMPANY. Hazel Hamlin is saying now! While hubby Frank was in the hospital in Pendleton, Hazel was shopping for a gift for a friend when she turned her ankle, causing a bad sprain. And now she is hobbling!

JACKIE GLENNIE entertained the Pinochle club Tuesday night. Velma Cantonwine won high; Marge Eckman, pinochle; and Gail Burkenbine, low. Guess the pinochle prize was a little evasive and Velma held it until the last hand when Marge captured the sure win! Also in on the play were Myrna Sutherland, Carolyn Cole, Beverly Sherman, and Joyce Phegley.

THE ANNUAL Catholic smorgasbord is scheduled for October 20 at the parish hall. They will start serving at 3 p.m. Bring the whole family out for a delicious meal.

THE RENEGER gals combined a baby shower with a bridge party last Thursday evening at the home of Cork Norene. Bonnie Barratt was the honored guest of the evening. Those playing were Kay Anderson, Louise Farley, Laurel Van Marter, Sue Jones, Karen Thompson, and Inez Meador. Laurel won high and Kay won second and the Jack high prize.

BEULAH MANKIN broke a long dry spell Friday as she came up with the high score at Pinochle club. Millie Evans entertained the gals with Janina Johnson and Ann Fehmerling filling in for Pearl Wright and Mary Harris. Others playing were Doris Watkins, having low; Carrie Beckett, Gladys Beckett, Hannah Anderson. Carrie and Janina won the pinochle.

SUPERMARKETS ARE common everywhere now, some large, some small; chain store, or home-owned, and all are doing an increased business both in food-stuff sales and non-food items, according to Progressive Grocer's report. Six percent offer luncheonettes; 24% courtesy booth; 44% trading stamps; 87% offer off-street parking; and 34% are open on Sundays. Rolls, muffins, and biscuit mixes were the most popular mixes sold in 1962; peaches are number one canned fruit item. Consumers are turning to large size packages of breads and muffins. Butter sales went up in 1962; tomatoes and baked beans topped the canned vegetable items, and juices were the most popular frozen food item. Ease in opening and re-sealing containers were advanced last year. Just a few items of interest about our modern markets.

STILL HAVE a good supply of local fresh vegetables in the markets; cabbage, carrots, cucumbers, dry onions, peppers, potatoes, beets, and summer squash. Take advantage while the cost is down to as little as three cents or less per serving. Those moderately priced between three and seven cents per serving: fresh corn, egg plant, sweet potatoes, and vine ripened tomatoes. The Oregon apple crop forecast is larger than usual, prices now are moderate and will probably lower as the harvest gets into full swing. Enjoy other fresh fruits, peaches, pears, grapes, and melons while they are still in good supply.
