

Cards Continue Touchdown Parade Against Echo 11

Coach Dick Strait's Ione High football team continued the touchdown parade against Echo that it started the previous week against Arlington when they shellacked the Cougars at Echo Friday night, 40 to 19.

They scored two touchdowns in each of three quarters, while the Cougars tallied one each in three quarters. The Cards made theirs in the first, second and fourth, and the Cougars counted single tallies in the first, third and fourth.

Joe Halvorsen, Ken Klinger and Tom Heimbigner were the big guns of the Cardinal attack, with Halvorsen scoring three touchdowns, two on running plays of 15 yards and one yard, and on a 4-yard pass from Klinger.

Klinger broke loose for two long runs, of 35 and 46 yards, for two scores. He intercepted a pass prior to the 46-yard run.

Heimbigner snared a pass from Mike Halvorsen, which, with the run, was good for 52 yards and the sixth touchdown for the Cardinals.

Heimbigner figured in three extra points, scoring two himself and passing to Mike Palmer for a third.

Butch Williams of Echo had a hand in each of the three Cougar touchdowns. He passed to Dan Flanagan in the first quarter, ran 40 yards to paydirt in the third period, and ran 60 yards to score in the fourth.

Big gainer for the Cards again was Ken Klinger with 103 yards on offense. He made 17 tackles during the ball game.

Prineville Resident Recalls Flood Here

Lynn Hale of Prineville visited Heppner Tuesday and was seeking information concerning members of his parents and other relatives who were early day residents here.

Hale, accompanied by his wife and daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Williams, was born and raised here, leaving in 1925. Later he lived at Monument and Lonecreek before going to Prineville.

At the time of the Heppner flood in 1903, he was at Ritter, but five aunts and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Howard, perished in the flood. Hale also well recalls the big fire of 1918 in Heppner. Neva Matteson of Heppner is his niece.

Hale, now virtually blind from an eye ailment, was seeking the obituary of his father in the newspaper files. He said that he had lost the only copy that he had and was seeking to replace it.

IT ISN'T HARD to tell that David Hanna fills a big hole in the Heppner High school football team line. David, 5-11 tackle, weighs 200 pounds. The husky junior has been a strong performer for the Mustangs this year. (G-T Photo)

Umatilla Thumps Mustangs, 19-6, At Rodeo Grounds

Umatilla's Vikings, conquerors of three of five western division teams of the Greater Oregon league, included Heppner's Mustangs in its list of victims at the rodeo grounds here Friday night, 19 to 6.

A B-school powerhouse with no fear of A-2 opponents, the Vikings earned the victory on sheer power that they displayed. Led by Captain Albert Eisele, a powerful performer himself, the Viks scored first in the first quarter when Eisele ran over from 25 yards out. Tom Lewis ran the extra point.

Heppner, stopped until late in the third quarter, got on the scoreboard with a neat pass from Quarterback Don Munkers to Tim Driscoll, the pass and run good for 35 yards and the lone touchdown of the night. The point try failed.

But the Mustangs' optimistic thoughts of victory were soon jolted again when Bill Durand, another of the hard-driving backs of the Viks, scored from two yards out after a long sustained march. The conversion try failed.

Final touchdown of the evening came in the fourth quarter on a Heppner fumble—although it looked more as if Dale McCoy of the Viks broke through and literally stole the ball from the carrier's hands. This set up the visitors on the Heppner 15, from where they moved to the three and Durand took it over from that point.

Larry Muessig, senior back for the Mustangs, almost broke away on a couple of occasions, one at the opening kickoff. He took the ball on his own 10 and ran back to the 50 before he was halted. However, the Heppner gridders couldn't dent the Umatilla defense and were forced to kick.

Muessig averaged 5.7 yards per carry during the ball game, and Stuart Dick both ran and blocked well.

"They literally overpowered us," said Coach Jim Sutherland after the game. "They are very strong. Our defenses were a little slow in reacting to their power blocks."

Heppner, bolstered by some excellent defensive performances by Lee Paduerg, David Hanna and others, was able to stop the visitors up the middle but were hurt by their wide power.

Offensively, the Mustangs moved quite well around end and on some short passes, but couldn't gain up the middle.

Coach Sutherland said that Hanna's showing was "another good game, both defensively and offensively, for the third straight week." He commended David Anderson, 145 lb. junior guard. "Though small, he was very tough on defense," he said.

Heppner gained 108 yards running and 58 on passing while Umatilla racked up 201 yards running and nothing on passing. First downs favored the winners, 11 to 7.

A good-sized home crowd was on hand to witness the game which was played on a beautiful, balmy night. The loss brought Heppner's season's record to 1 and 2, winning over Condon and losing to Enterprise and Umatilla.

Leukemia Takes Life Of Dorrine Campbell In Portland Hospital

Dorrine Ellen Campbell, age 12½ years, died at Bess Kaiser Foundation hospital in Portland Saturday afternoon, September 28, after a week's hospitalization. She was stricken with leukemia last February but, with present day scientific medication, she led a normal life until late this summer.

Dorrine was born at Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner on January 16, 1951. She always loved Morrow county and enjoyed her returns to visit friends and relatives. This past summer was particularly enjoyable, even though she was often quite tired and unable to play and visit.

She was the daughter of Rev. Donald I. Campbell of Fort Worth, Texas, and Marjorie Campbell of Portland. An older sister, Laura Jean, and younger brother, William Don, all of Portland, also survive her. She was the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Campbell of Lexington.

Memorial services were held at Battman's Funeral Chapel of the Dawn in Parkrose, with interment in Lincoln Memorial Park, Portland.

Members of the family urge everyone's active and generous support of the American Cancer Society which designates money for use in leukemia research to fight this disease which so often claims the lives of young children and adults. They also have expressed gratitude for the many gestures of sympathy extended by friends.

Bertell Mason, Ex-Ione Merchant, Dies in Portland

Bertell (Bert) Mason, 86, a resident of the Ione area for 72 years and proprietor of a general merchandise store in that city for 46 years, died in Portland Friday. He resided at Willamette Manor at the time of his death.

Prominent in local civic affairs and a former mayor of Ione, Mason had a wide circle of friends in this area. He was always interested in public affairs and was a past exalted ruler of Heppner lodge, 358, B.P.O.E.

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mason, he was born March 6, 1877, at a ranch on Rhea Creek, eight miles south of Ione. He lived in Morrow county until 1949 when he moved to Portland. In business in Ione, he was first a partner in Halvorsen and Mason and later bought his partner's share and continued in business alone until retirement in 1945.

On February 1, 1911, he was married to Ruth Godfrey in Portland, and she survives. Graveside funeral services will be conducted at the Ione cemetery Saturday, October 5, at 2 p.m. with committal service in charge of the Heppner Elks lodge.

In lieu of flowers, contributions to the Elks' eye clinic will be appreciated, according to the family request.

Besides the widow, survivors include two sons, Dorr G. and Bertell Mason Jr., both of Portland; seven grandchildren; four great grandchildren; three sisters, Mrs. Clara Kincaid and Mrs. Mabel Cotter, both of Ione, and Miss Ella Mason, Portland; and three brothers, Joe Mason of Prineville, Harold Mason of Los Angeles, Calif., and Jess Mason of The Dalles.

Rev. Alsop Named Minister President

The Rev. Bill Alsop, pastor of the Assembly of God church, was elected president of the South Morrow County Ministerial association at its recent meeting. He succeeds the Rev. Walter Smith, former pastor of the Lexington Christian church.

Chosen vice president was the Rev. Charles Knox, pastor of the Heppner Christian church, and secretary-treasurer is the Rev. Melvin Dixon, pastor of the Methodist church.

The meeting was held in the Seventh-day Adventist church.

National Meeting Calls FFA Boys

Three members of the Heppner High school chapter, Future Farmers of America, will leave this week for the national FFA convention in Kansas City, Mo., Gerald Jonasson, advisor, states.

Chris Brown, who was chosen as a member of the national FFA band, will depart earlier than the other two, Tony Doherty and Frank Osmin. Brown will depart on the Union Pacific from Hinkle station at 2:30 a.m. Friday, joining two others from Oregon who will play in the band. They will have practice sessions prior to the opening of the convention, the first being in the Kansas City Municipal auditorium on Sunday, October 6. Director is R. Sedrick Anderson.

Doherty and Osmin will travel by Great Northern and will leave from Pasco, Wn., at 7:20 p.m. Saturday. Their route will take them to scenic areas of the northern part of the country.

The trio will be gone for a full week, including two week-ends. All juniors in school, they were chosen on the basis of their work in vocational agriculture and FFA activities.

Each youth receives a $100 scholarship for the trip but shares in his expenses by paying for his meals and some other costs. The scholarships take care of the train tickets and hotel bills, Jonasson said.

Among features at the convention are the national FFA speaking contest, distinguished speakers, and the American Royal parade. Brown will march in the parade as a member of the band. Local businesses, as well as student organizations, make the trip possible by contributing to the costs, Jonasson said.

Magazine Drive Start To Help Buy Uniforms

Campaign for the soliciting of magazine subscriptions will get underway Friday by members of the Ione High school band, according to Gene Harryman, high school principal. Proceeds of the drive will go toward the purchase of new band uniforms.

The drive will cover a two-week period; when new or renewal subscriptions may be made through band members to any of the leading magazines, published by Curtis Publishing Co.

Tickets Due Soon On Farm Banquet

Tickets will be available by the middle of next week for the Farm-City banquet which will be held November 2 in connection with the annual meeting of the Morrow County Livestock Growers association, Dick Wilkinson of the committee in charge announces.

The meeting will be held November 1 and 2, being moved from the usual January date because of interference with calving at that time. A full program is being lined up for the meetings, which will center in the fair pavilion.

This year's Farm-City banquet will be a combination affair, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, the Livestock Growers and the Soil Conservation district, thus eliminating some duplication in the past. Tickets to the banquet will be placed on sale at the Bank of Eastern Oregon and the Heppner branch, First National Bank.

Guests last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank S. Parker were their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Crawford of Eugene. They left on Monday to continue their trip through southern Oregon.

Johnson's Father Dies in California

Harry Johnson, father of Bill Johnson of Heppner, died September 7 in San Pedro, California, at the age of 67. He had worked on a newspaper there for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and two sons went to San Pedro after being notified of the death and were gone about three weeks, returning last Thursday. The mother, Mrs. Harry Johnson, returned with them and will stay several weeks before going back to San Pedro to take care of business matters. Then she plans to return here to be with her son and daughter-in-law.

Funeral services for Mr. Johnson were held September 10. He had not been ill, and death came suddenly from a heart attack.

Ione PTA to Meet

Meeting of the Ione PTA has been set for Wednesday evening, October 9, at 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria, it is announced. Everyone is urged to attend.

Roadside grass and brush are dry enough to burn. One carelessly flipped cigarette or match could start a forest fire. Train yourself to use your car ashtray when driving and you will be doing your part to prevent forest fires from starting. Keep Oregon Green.
