

TEMPEST CUSTOM DEBUTS — Entirely new for 1964, the Tempest Custom four-door sedan above features a rich interior of Morrokide vinyl coated fabric and floor carpeting. The Custom series includes a two-door sports coupe, a convertible and four-door station wagon. The new Tempests are nearly nine inches longer and have a box-type frame for improved riding. A Pontiac-built, six-cylinder engine is standard and a V-8 is optional. Emerging as a new and different car is Pontiac's 1964 LeMans convertible below. The LeMans models have all new styling and are quickly identified by their distinctive grille treatment and rear end design. To continue the sports car theme, LeMans tail lamps are integrated within a decorative rear end panel. Standard equipment includes bucket seats, a custom steering wheel of solid plastic and door to door carpeting of nylon blend loop pile. The LeMans is also available in a two-door sports coupe.

Heppner Ponies Lose Two Games

Heppner Junior high ponies ran into trouble in their first two pigskin encounters last week as the seventh grade team was trampled by the Irrigon Junior boys, 19-0, Thursday, and Ione took the Heppner lads, 13-8, on Friday.

At Irrigon the big boys proved too much for the jayvee team scoring two touchdowns in the first half and one in the third quarter. Heppner's only chance to score came late in the third quarter when they reached the Irrigon three-yard line but were held there on downs. From there the two teams battled in the fourth quarter for no score. Team members going over with Coach Tom Hughes were: Terry Prock, quarterback; Larry Pettyjohn, Gary Ball, Monte Evans, Charlie Anderson, backs; Jerry Healy, Jim Bloodworth, Gary Kemp, Tim Loyd, Terry Peck, Bill Stockard, Jon O'Donnell, Dean Massey, Steve Munkers, linemen.

In the game Friday at Ione, the Ponies got off to a fast lead as they trapped Ione in the end zone for a safety and two points. Ione then had to kick off from their own 20 yard line and David Hall picked up the ball to run it back for a touchdown. Heppner held the 8-0 lead until the second quarter when Ione passed for a TD. The half ended with Heppner in front, 8-6. The two teams fought to a standstill in the third period and Ione took the lead in the fourth quarter with a touchdown and drop-kicked for the extra point to lead, 13-8. The Ponies couldn't put anything together in the waning moments with Ione picking up a Pony fumble to end the game. The two teams will tangle again here October 25.

Next game for the Junior high boys is at Echo Friday, starting at 2 p.m. Both the seventh and eighth grade teams will travel.

Squad members going to Ione were: Bill McLeod, Kit Anderson, and Hall, backs; Bob Dobbs, Steve Pettyjohn, Russell Kilkenny, Alfred Drake, Jim Sherman, Frankie Lovgren, Frank Unrein, Earl Ayres, and the same players, except Massey, who went to Irrigon. Managers are Rick Gimbel, Earl Struckmeier, and coaches Hughes and Clint Agee.

Exclusive Areas Sought by PP&L

Kinzua Church Scene Of McMinn Wedding

By VIRGINIA KESLO

KINZUA—In a single ring ceremony read by Rev. Edwin Derrick in the Kinzua Community church, Miss Patsy Wham became the bride of Billy Joe McMinn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe L. McMinn.

Miss Wham, daughter of Mrs. Richard Copeland of Portland and Sterling Wham of Thorne Bay, Alaska, was given in marriage by her uncle, Harlan Schroeder. She wore a royal blue suit with white accessories and carried a white Bible centered with a lavender orchid with matching streamers.

Maid of honor was her cousin, Becky Schroeder, who wore a blue suit and carried a nosegay of lavender and white chrysanthemums. W. C. Freeman served as best man and Marcia Freeman and Janice McMinn were candle lighters. Wedding music was played by Mrs. Robert Kelso who also accompanied a trio, Sally Schroeder, Belinda Meadows, and Peggy Plank, who sang, "Always" and "Melody of Love."

The bride's mother wore a brown knit suit with a pink carnation corsage and the groom's mother wore a green suit with pink carnation corsage.

A reception was held immediately afterwards in the church annex where a 3-tiered wedding cake centered the serving table. After the first slice was cut by the bride and groom the cake was cut and served by Mrs. Edward Wham while punch was served by Mrs. John Meadows and coffee by Mrs. Harlan Schroeder. Grooms cake in bell-shaped containers was passed by Connie Schroeder.

The young couple left for a short honeymoon after which they will make their home in Fossil. Mrs. McMinn is a graduate of Wheeler County High school and Links Business College in Boise, Idaho. Mr. McMinn attended schools in Kinzua and Fossil and is employed by Eastern Oregon Logging Co.

Mrs. Richard Mortimore and sons Roger and Earl and Mrs. Earl Norris were in Heppner last Tuesday to deliver to W. A. Blake the sun he had won in the Camp 5 pre-hunting season drawing.

Mrs. Don Culver and daughter Judy of Service Creek and Miss Billie Jean Bastian went to Corvallis last Tuesday where the girls took their college entrance examinations. On Monday Mrs. Walter Bastian and Mrs. Earl Norris took the girls to Corvallis to begin their college year. They returned by way of Portland where they visited Miss Dolores Bastian.

The F. L. Pinochle club was entertained at the Camp 5 Community hall Friday evening with Mrs. Barbara Mortimore as hostess to the group. High for the evening was held by Ann Asher, low by Rollene Fulton, and floating prizes by Ann Bastian and Marge Asher. Others playing were Lola Ferrel, Pat Hyatt, Hazel Hulett, Marilyn Thomas, Carol Norris, Jean Medlock, and Barbara Wehril.

Frank Ferrel was in Portland Friday for medical care and to visit the Burton Nelson family. Guests at the Ferrel home for the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Getchell of Portland.

Mrs. Robert Kyle and children and Mrs. Mike Michel and children were business visitors to Condon Saturday.

Mrs. Walter Bastian and daughter Billie Jean were in Heppner Friday for shopping and in Condon Saturday for business and to visit relatives.

Mrs. Carol Norris went to Sisters Friday to attend the Wheeler High-Sisters football game. Going with her were Karen Bastian, Joan Hamilton, Glenda Shelton, Barbara Bell, and Terry O'Brien.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Norris hosted a dinner party Saturday evening honoring Mrs. Norris on her birthday. Later in the evening the group went to Kinzua for dancing. Those helping Mrs. Norris celebrate were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Mortimore, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kyle, Mr. and Mrs. Rusty Medlock, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Michel, and Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Adams.

Spending Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kyle were Mr. and Mrs. Dale McKenzie and family of Dayville.

Mrs. Marie Hulett and Mrs. Marie Rhoton were business visitors to Condon Wednesday.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Michel were Mr. Michael's sister, Mrs. Raymond Gross and son of John Day. Mrs. Gross is a teacher in the John Day schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Winters of Bend spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Hap Gregg and did some chukar hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mudd and family of Richland spent Sunday visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lorengel and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nesselrodt and family of Long Creek spent the week-end here visiting Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Perry.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Flaek were in Heppner for medical care. While there they visited with Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Rood, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Norvin Adams of The Dalles.

Mr. and Mrs. Woody Webb were business visitors to Heppner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dyer moved over the week-end to the house recently vacated by the Walter Walker family.

Local folks in Prineville during the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. Bud Bird and family, Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Graham, and Mr. and Mrs. Arlet Campbell and daughter Andrea.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Browning were visitors to Heppner Sunday.

Robert Nistad of Spokane, Wn. visited during the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Allen Nistad.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Zitek and family spent the week-end visiting relatives at Redmond.

Mrs. Clarence Woods went to Heppner early Monday morning where she had her tonsils removed at the Pioneer Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Robert Kelso and Mrs. C. L. Flaek were business visitors in Heppner Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Copeland of Portland spent the week-end visiting Mr. and Mrs. Paul Muzzy and attending the Wham-McMinn wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hoover and Mrs. Bill Edwards and children were in Pendleton Saturday for business and shopping.

Blake Wins Top Prize
A pre-hunting celebration card party was held Sat., Sept. 14, at the Camp 5 Community Hall with a good attendance present. Pinochle was played and high score was held by O. L. Adams and Joan Michel; low score by traveling prizes by Rusty Medlock and Virginia Sitton. Door prizes were won by Kenneth Norris and Joan Michel. Winner of the drawing for the pistol was Bill Blake of Heppner with Ann Asher of Kinzua winning the hunting knife, which was second prize. All winning tickets were drawn by Mrs. Mark Samples. Hostesses for this party were Barbara Mortimore, Jean Medlock, Joan Michel and Carol Norris.
