

Judy Sherer is Princess For Pacific International

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Miss Judy Sherer was chosen as the Morrow county representative for the Miss PIP (Pacific International Parade) at a contest held at the Alpenrose Dairy in Portland on Saturday. Dressed in western attire, girls from 14 counties took part. They were judged on their 4-H background and an extemporaneous speech they were required to make.

Miss Judi Elliott of Polk county was chosen Miss PIP and Judy was chosen as one of her eight princesses. They will ride in the P. I. Parade on Saturday, October 12, in Portland and will have the pleasure of presenting the trophies and ribbons to the winners at the P. I. Show.

Judy, Ione High school senior, is a member of the Ione 4-H saddlehorse club, "The Trail Dusters." She was selected for the PIP honor by the county 4-H agent and committee.

The contest was sponsored by the Portland Jaycees and was staged against the setting of a small frontier town. The girls, attired in western clothing, were escorted there in stagecoaches and surreys. They were filmed for television over channel 8 and interviewed by the press. They talked on "My Most Memorable Experience in 4-H."

The court will lead the P. I. parade Saturday, October 12, and present the trophies to the P. I. winners during the following week.

Judy and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Sherer, along with the other contestants were entertained at a dinner in their honor on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Elmer Griffith is spending some time visiting her niece, Miss Grace Cunningham, at Post Falls, Idaho.

High school students and faculty enjoyed a Sadie Hawkins Day dance at the school cafeteria on Friday evening. The affair was sponsored by the Lettermen's club with Dick Strait as their advisor.

Tom Bristow of Portland has informed his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Bristow, of his enrollment in Portland Community college. He will take an eleven week course in communications.

Social Club Elects Officers
Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen was hostess for the Eastern Star social club on Wednesday afternoon at her home. Plans were made to have a traveling food sale on Wednesday, October 30.

Officers elected for the coming year were Mrs. James Barnett, president; Mrs. Eulena Corley, vice-president; and Mrs. James Lindsay, secretary. Fourteen members were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn Jr. were hosts for a "Come As You Are" party on Saturday evening. The following guests enjoyed pinocle: Mr. and Mrs. Larry Fettsch of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Devin, and Mr. and Mrs. Vern Viall of Lexington; Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Calhoun of Milton-Freewater, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Sherer, Mr.

and Mrs. Cleo Childers, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Rea, and Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Kincaid, all of Ione. Dick Sherer received high prize for men and Mrs. Childers high prize for women. Lindsey Kincaid was awarded a prize for most "unusual" costume.

Rietmanns Observe Anniversary
Mrs. Dean Rhode of Kennewick, Wn., has been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rietmann. Mrs. Rietmann met her in Hermiston on Wednesday. Her husband joined her here on Saturday and they returned home Sunday. Other guests at the Rietmann home on Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Rietmann and family and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Rietmann and family, who came to help their parents celebrate their 38th wedding anniversary.

Danny Akers, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Akers, underwent major surgery on Wednesday at Doernbecker hospital. He is reported in satisfactory condition, but very homesick and would welcome mail from his friends here. The address is Doernbecker Hospital, Childrens Ward, Portland, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn Sr. spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland.

Twelve couples from the dancing class sponsored by the Lions club, met at the Legion Hall Saturday night for a dancing party. Refreshments were served by hosts, Mr. and Mrs. James Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Gar Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. David Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom.

Gene Harryman, administrative principal at Ione High school attended an Oregon Principals' Association meeting in Corvallis on Monday and Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell and Cheryl spent the week-end in Portland attending to business and shopping.

Those attending the evangelism workshop at The Dalles Congregational church were Rev. and Mrs. Walter Crowell, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Smouse, Fredrick Martin, and Don Bristow, chairman of the board of deacons.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan and Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Morrison and Merrie Jo spent the week-end in Portland and attended the OSU-Baylor game. Geraldine Morgan and Cheryl and Michelle Morrison of Oregon State met their parents in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Matthews and Berniece and Denise and Virgil Morgan and Jerry Stefani drove to Portland on Saturday and attended the football game, coming home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Berl Akers and Bonnie were week-end visitors in Portland.

Guests Saturday night and Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom and family were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dorr Mason and sons, and her sisters, Judy Mason of Pico Rivera, Calif., and Mrs. Richard Rea and daughters of Portland.

Mrs. S. E. Ransdell of Portland is a guest at the home of her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson Jr. She rode up with Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Sr. of Oak Grove, who came to attend the Bert Mason rites on Saturday. Other guests of the Nelsons and the Norman Nelson family were Mr. and Mrs. Bertell Mason, Jr. and family, who were here for the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. James Lindsay have returned from a ten day visit with his mother, Mrs. Ida King, who has been quite ill at her home in Silverton.

Mrs. Henry Wright of Payette, Idaho is a guest at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey Kincaid and baby daughter.

Mrs. Adon Hamlett and family of Fruitland, Idaho arrived on Saturday evening for a few days visit at the home of her mother, Mrs. Mary Swanson. Monday afternoon Mrs. Hamlett entertained a group of friends at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Gar Swanson, with a jewelry party.

Mrs. Bert Mason, Sr. spent Saturday night as a guest of Mrs. James Lindsay.

Attend District Rainbow Meet
Rainbow girls of Ione Assembly No. 89 attended a district meeting with Ruth Assembly in Heppner on Thursday evening. Special guests were Miss Sandra Beck of Junction City, Grand Worthy Advisor, and Mrs. Charles Graham, Grand Deputy of International Order of Rainbow for Girls in Oregon. Lee O'Connor, Worthy Advisor, Susan Lindstrom, Elaine Gaarsland, Bonnie Hynd, Mrs. E. R. Schaffer and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom attended a dinner at the Wagon Wheel given in Sandra's honor, preceding the meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mason left on Monday for their home in Prineville after a ten day visit here with his sisters, Mrs. Clara Kincaid and Mrs. M. E. Cotter. Mrs. Sam McMillan of Portland and her aunt drove to Ione on Saturday to attend the Mason services. They also visited Mrs. McMillan's mother.

Bill Eubanks and a friend from Portland spent the week-end hunting at the mountain cabin of Mr. and Mrs. John Eubanks.

Mrs. Gordon White of Portland and her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Weiling of Seattle, were visiting Mr. White and other relatives over the week-end.

Church Holds Dedication
Dedication services were held Sunday morning during services at the United Church of Christ for the Board of Education. The group includes Mrs. F. T. Martin, chairman, Mrs. Jack Barak, Mrs. Lindsey Kincaid, Mrs. Norman Nelson, and Rev. Walter Crowell; church school superintendent, Mrs. Norman Nelson; Mrs. F. T. Martin, assistant superintendent; Mrs. Walter Roberts, primary superintendent; Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, secretary; and the other classroom teachers.

Betty Hausler and Terry O'Connor were hostesses on Friday evening for a party at the Hausler home honoring Janice Snider on her fourteenth birthday. The seventh and eighth grade guests enjoyed dancing and games followed by punch, popcorn and snacks.

Auxiliary Plans Food Sale
Legion Auxiliary met at the hall on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Eulena Corley as hostess. A traveling food sale was planned for Saturday morning, October 12 at ten o'clock. Members are reminded to bring gifts for the Veteran's Gift Shop by the November 5 meeting.

Topic Club will hold their October meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles Carlson.

The Ione Grade School football team played Irrigon on the home field Thursday afternoon and won by a score of 6-0. Janice Snider, Betty Hausler, and Terry O'Connor are the grade school yell leaders.

Bill Salter of Forest Grove drove to Ione this week-end, accompanied by two friends, Dick West and Roger Jensen of Portland. They visited Bill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Salter, and went deer hunting.

Children of all eight grades at the school have visited the City Library recently and become

THE GAZETTE-TIMES

Heppner, Oregon, Thursday, October 10, 1963 Sec. 3 — 4 pages

Dollars Against Dystrophy

Patty Duke, Academy Award Winner and national youth chairman for Muscular Dystrophy Associations of America, demonstrates her drawing power at a teen age record hop for the benefit of MDAA. The charming young actress, now starring in her own TV network show, has stimulated young people throughout the country to take part in the March for Muscular Dystrophy, through which funds are raised for the research program sponsored by MDAA.

acquainted with the new books on the shelves. Members of the Topic Club, who sponsor the Library, served them punch and cookies. Faculty members were also entertained at a tea at the library, when members of the library board acted as hostess, Mrs. Roland Bishop is the librarian and the library is open on Monday and Thursday afternoons from 2:30 to 4:30. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rice returned on Tuesday from a visit in Sacramento, Calif. with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Martin.

Room Mothers Named
PTA room mothers, who have been appointed for the 1963-1964 year are as follows: First

Mason Services Bring Relatives To Ione

IONE — Graveside services were held Saturday afternoon, October 5, at the IOOF cemetery for Bertell (Bert) Mason, 86, longtime merchant and former mayor of Ione, who passed away on September 27, at Willamette Manor in Portland. Committal services were conducted by Heppner Elks Lodge No. 358 with Exalted Ruler, Bob Flatt; Chaplain, Clint Agee; Est. Leading Knight, Darrell Padberg; Est. Loyal Knight, Claude Graham; Est. Lecturing Knight, Jerry Daggett taking part.

Out of town relatives attending were Mrs. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Dorr Mason and sons, John and Gerry, and Mrs. Richard Rea (Alice Mason) and daughters of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Bertell Mason Jr. and Frieda and Chris of Oak Grove, Miss Judy Mason of Pico Rivera, Calif., and Mrs. Mason's niece, Mrs. Velma Stillwell and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Dezell and Dora Lee and Phyllis of Spokane, Wn. and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mason of Prineville.

Members of the Eastern Star served dinner to the family and old friends following the services. The relatives from Spokane returned home immediately after the services.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hutchins had as hunting guests the past week, his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Prather of Turner. They left for their home on Sunday.

Rhea Creek Club Elects New Officers

The Rhea Creek Livestock club was called to order by Dale Van Blokland Sunday, October 6, at the Rhea Creek Grange hall. We got our record books back and talked of how to improve them.

We elected officers for the coming year. They are Bob Harris, president; Tom Rawlins, vice-president; David, secretary; John Harris, news reporter, and Terry Corbin, sergeant-at-arms.

We have three new members. They are Steven and Scott McDaniel and Diana Wright. After the meeting was adjourned, refreshments were served by Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Van Blokland.

John Harris, reporter

Busy Bees Meet

The ninth meeting of the Busy Bees was September 24. The members completed their record books for the year and the leader, Mrs. Bryce Keene, is going to quit.

Maureen McElligott, reporter

WANTED!!

DO YOU HAVE . . .

Good Useable Articles of Clothing You Are Tired of or Have Outgrown?

Household Articles That You Don't Want or Need?

Good Toys That Would Make Some Child Happy?

Or Other Good, Miscellaneous Articles?

Donate Them To The Civic League

RUMMAGE SALE

SORTING EVERY WEDNESDAY NIGHT UNTIL OCT. 25
OLD BAKERY BUILDING — OR CALL 676-5837 FOR PICKUP

FREE! FOR ALL BOYS 8 THRU 11 YEARS OF AGE!

PUNT, PASS & KICK

FINAL COMPETITION

SATURDAY, OCT. 12, 1 P.M.

Rodeo Grounds, Heppner

WIN! Official NFL team warm-up jackets! Football helmets! Footballs signed by the champion NFL punters, passers and kickers of 1962! You can even win a trip to an NFL game to compete (and take both Mom and Dad)! Top winners will go on a "Tour of Champions" (with both parents) to the White House, to Dearborn, Michigan, and to the 1963 NFL Championship game to compete for the national PP&K championship! It's fun! It's free! It's for grade school boys only. You compete with boys your own age. No body contact. Nothing to buy.

STILL TIME TO REGISTER--

Boys 8 to 11 eligible. Registration closes Friday, October 11, at Jim's Chevron Service, Ione, or Heppner Auto Sales. You must be accompanied by a parent or legal guardian to register.

Join The Fun! Take Part In The PP&K Competition

HEPPNER AUTO SALES

"Fords and Friends Are Our Business"

Heppner

Ph. 676-9152

NOTICE!

Please, no hunting on our property during Doe season.

BECHDOLT BROS.

Anti-Freeze TIME

FARMERS -- HUNTERS -- LABORERS!

PERMANENT ANTI-FREEZE

BY THE GALLON OR CASE
NO LIMIT

See Us For All Your
TRUCK AND TRACTOR TIRE NEEDS

FORD'S TIRE SERVICE

441 N. MAIN

HEPPNER

PH. 676-9481