STILL ON the hunting bit. You can't tell that our family are hunters? Anyhow, Saturday I jumped (?) out of bed in the wee hours to fix breakfast and a lunch all in one easy operation, while getting the family dressed and to the table to go hunting. About 10 a.m. I asked if the lunch had been put in the pickup (by this time we were 30 miles from home!) No, it was not, so we survived on candy bars, peanuts and barbecue potato chips. The moral of this story is to take another look in the house before leaving! Maybe everyone was too sleepy to see?

INVITE A friend and join the fun Monday night at the Soroptimist Card party. It is being held at the Episcopal parish hall and will be a dessert card party with both bridge and pinochle offered. There will also be a drawing for a super-duper food basket. This will be the first of several public card parties held during the year and sponsored by various clubs and church groups as money-making projects. So, while enjoying an evening out you are helping an organization in their work. Oh, yes, the time is 8 p.m.

SPEAKING OF cards, there were several clubs in session this past week. First off, the Friday afternoon club met at the home of Carrie Beckett with three of the regulars absent. Filling in were Janina Johnson, Mae Gilliam, and Esther Bergstrom. Regulars present were Beulah Man-kin, Gladys Beckett, Hannah Anderson, and Doris Watkins. Gladys had high score, Hanna and Esther, the pinochle, and Beulah took low. Good cards were flying around as Janina and Gladys paired up to meld a 1500 trump!

FIVE TABLES of bridge and five of pinochle were in play Thursday night for the October Ladies Night at the Elks. A delicious roast beef dinner preceded the entertainment with about 70 attending. The men held their regular business meeting. Pat Brindle won high in bridge; Jeannette Huddleston, second high; and Pauline Winters, won the door prize. Jackie Glennie had high score in pinochle; Ola Ruggles, second; and Marge Eckman won the door prize. In giving me the notes on this, Jane Platt said she didn't know what the high score was in pinochle, but if it was anything like her hands all night, it wasn't too high! After playing five progressions she ended up just even on the score sheet with a big zero! Dolores Thorpe was chairman of the hostesses working with Rita Worden, Karen Cutsforth, Marjorie Worden, Virginia Rosewall, and Wavel Wilkinson. The next Ladies Night will be November 17.

SAY, ARE you cleaning house? If so, save all of your unused items for the semi-annual Civic League Rummage Sale in the old bakery building, October 25-26. Give a call to Patti Prock or Jeanne Berry for pickup of the things or you may leave them at Jack's Chevron station. Remember the proceeds are used to support the kindergarten classes here.

JERRY JONASSON and Bill Collins won the monthly Duplicate Bridge Unit party held in the Elks rooms Sunday afternoon. Harlan McCurdy and Laverne Van Marter were second; Elsie Cole and Isabelle Davis, Condon, third; and Harriet Hall and Doreen Jacobs were fourth. The next unit play will be November 3 at 2 p.m.

MARLYS PHEGLEY entertained three tables of pinochle at her home Tuesday night with Flo Connor getting those lucky cards again and winning high. Loy Harsin was second and Bonnie Buschke won the door prize. Others playing were Jeanne Berry, Lillian Key, Mary Lovgren, Judy Buschke, Marge Eckman, Joyce Phegley, Jackie Allstott, and Sharon Cutsforth.

HOW IS this for a pinochle hand and dealt to your opponent! The Art Dalzells were Sunday visitors of the George Yorks in Condon and all enjoyed a game of pinochle. Mrs. Dalzell and Mr. York were teamed up against their spouses when Mrs. Dalzell dealt her husband 1500 trump! Most unusual, and then to give it to your opponent! Mr. Dalzell had all of the hearts except one nine and also held the ace of clubs. Wow, what a hand and once in a lifetime, maybe. Next time, make sure it goes to your partner, huh?

JUDY BUSCHKE was the honored guest on her birthday at a coffee given for her Monday night at the Doyle Key home. Cake and coffee, gifts, and lots of good wishes were the menu. Judy's parents, Joe and Maryette Wright were present. Others included Kenneth and Sharon Cutsforth and family; Jean Staley, Mrs. Floyd Hutchins, Linda Dunlap, Dale Grey, Larry and Bobbe Angell.

ANGEL PIE was served Tuesday night by LaFyrne Pratt following the Bridge Biddies play. Janina Johnson won high; Karen Thompson, second; and Mary McLeod won the traveling prize. Also in on the play were Mary McClure, Jan Agee, Donna Gordon, and Marian Jonasson.

I HAVE a recipe this week that is perfect for your family, just delicious, and right for this time of the year!
PUMPKIN PIE
6 cases pumpkin
1 case canned milk
30 gal water
100 lb. sugar
30 doz. eggs
22 lb. corn starch
15 lbs. powdered milk
12 oz. nutmeg
12 oz. ginger
1 1/2 lb. cinnamon
14 oz. salt
Woa, before you go too far, as you might have guessed, it is to serve a large sized family. Betty Pettyjohn (Mrs. Ellis) gave it to me and she got it from the U. S. S. North Carolina, a battleship which they toured while on a trip last month visiting their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Neil Kellogg.

Bookworm Club Hears Review at Flug Home

Bookworms Book club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Agnes Flug, with 10 members present. A review of the book "Wyoming Summer" by Mary O'Harra was given by Mrs. Virginia Turner. Two new members, Mrs. Herman Winters and Mrs. Don Turner, were welcomed. The following officers were recently elected: Mrs. Bob Abrams, president; Mrs. Flug, vice-president; Mrs. Virginia Turner, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Herman Green, assistant secretary-treasurer. Other members present were Mrs. Ted Smith, Mrs. William Thomas, Mrs. Lucy Peterson and Mrs. Jim Thomson.

stationed with the Marines in North Carolina.

WAVEL WILKINSON and Marjorie Worden entertained the OES Social club at the Masonic hall Saturday afternoon for their first fall get together. Lois Hunt had high score in bridge, Mrs. Elsa Mott, a guest and at present living with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Starks, won high in pinochle. Virginia Rosewall won the Jack high prize, and Edna Turner had the door prize. Their next session will be in December.

Lexington Links Club Schedules Dinner

Date for the annual Turkey Dinner, sponsored each fall by the Lexington Three Links club, has been announced for Saturday, October 26, by Mrs. Cecil Jones, chairman. Serving will be from 5:30 to 8:00 p.m. in the Lexington IOOF hall, Handmade bazaard items will be on sale and cards will be in play for those wishing to participate. Funds raised from the dinner will be used for redecorating walls of the hall dining rooms and in promoting plans for the city park. Assisting Mrs. Jones are Mrs. Bertha Hunt, Mrs. Joe Yocom, Mrs. Al Fetsch, Mrs. Archie Munkers and Mrs. Oris Padberg.

Wednesday Meeting Planned by CowBelles

Mrs. A. C. Lindsay will be hostess to the October meeting of the Morrow County CowBelles next Wednesday, October 16, at her ranch home in North Lexington. A potluck luncheon will open the meeting at noon, with all members urged to be present. During the business session, election of officers and discussion of plans for serving the annual Morrow County Livestock dinner will be held.

These kids need a YES vote
On Measure 1 October 15th.

TO THE ONE IN COLLEGE . . .
A no vote means: Higher tuition, borrowing more money, possibly not finishing school.

TO THE ONE IN 'HIGH SCHOOL . . .
A no vote means: A closed College door. Schools will cut their enrollments and increase students costs.

TO THEIR PARENTS . . .
A no vote means: Higher property taxes. Financial chaos in the State. More costly elections.
