

Speaker Tells Club Of Native Holland At Mothers Meeting

MRS. ELLA DAVIDSON, 91, holds little Randine Moyer, 1 1/2 months, in this picture of five generations. Randine is Mrs. Davidson's great-great-granddaughter. Great granddaughter is Mrs. Bruce Moyer (Diane McCurdy), standing, and grandson is Harlan McCurdy Jr., father of Mrs. Moyer. Daughter is Mrs. Harlan McCurdy Sr., seated by Mrs. Davidson. This is the second time that Mrs. Davidson has attained five generation status, also achieving it through another section of her family. Mrs. Davidson homesteaded near Eightmile and lived in the lone area since 1900. Mrs. McCurdy Sr. grew up in the lone vicinity and came to Heppner in 1934. (G-T Photo)

It was "back to school" for members of the Heppner Mothers' club when Mrs. Bob Abrams entertained the group at her home Monday evening. Meeting in the atmosphere of the school room, Mrs. Anita Stockard presided, as roll call was answered with "show and tell" experiences of the summer given by each one present.

Special guest of the evening was Mrs. Jim O'Donnell who spoke on her native homeland, Holland, comparing school systems of that country with those in America. She had made a trip to Holland this summer to visit her family near Amsterdam, and noted changes that had been made since leaving there after her marriage in 1956.

With a total area less than that of Morrow county, the country has a population of 13 million people living in congested conditions, especially in the large cities of Amsterdam, Rotterdam and The Hague. Culturally, they have many advantages, she remarked, and the Dutch people are by nature "home bodies" desiring little pleasures outside of their home life.

In schools, elementary grades 1 to 6 are compulsory and high school courses very strenuous, but offer a choice in six types of training for general or college-preparatory study. She recalls heavy homework with her 30 hours of heavy school work each week, allowing very little time for recreation.

In appreciation of her work as president last year, Mrs. Ray Smith was presented a gift from the club. Mrs. Stockard extended appreciation to all those who helped in the success of the fair booth and the parade float.

The November meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Robinson with a study on mosaic art planned.

WORTHY ADVISOR ROGENIA WILSON

Rogenia Wilson Installed Sunday As Rainbow Worthy Advisor

Rogenia Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Wilson, was installed as worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls, at the Masonic Hall in Heppner, Sunday afternoon, September 29.

Rogenia chose for her theme "Loyalty," her colors were those of the rainbow and were carried out with a basket of flowers in the hall and candles of the rainbow colors on the tables. A centerpiece of salmon pink gladioli was used and the white sheet cake, made by Mrs. Millard Nolan with a rainbow rising over the cake.

Her father escorted her, and the crown was carried by her brother, Clayton. Her sister, Juanita, placed the crown on her head as the highlight of the ceremonies. During the ceremonies, Rogenia's mother sang "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied at the piano by Janis Baker.

The newly seated worthy advisor introduced her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, brother and sister, Clayton and Juanita, her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Perkins; an aunt, Mrs. Loyd Ordway and daughter, Susan, The Dalles. Also introduced were Mrs. Harold (Ruby) Beckel, grand deputy, Order of Rainbow for Girls; Clarence Baker, worshipful master of Masonic Blue Lodge; Mrs. Lucille Wilson, Mrs. Dick Wilkinson, Mrs. Floyd Worden, and Mrs. Wes Marlatt, all board members; also all who helped with the installation and reception.

Other officers installed were: Brenda Young, worthy associate advisor; Barbara Blake, charity; Pam Cochell, hope; Jean Stewart, faith; Shirley Erwin, recorder; Linda Warren, chaplain; Janis Baker, drill leader; Judy Jones, love; Jeanette Ledbetter, religion; Kathy Melby, nature;

Kitty O'Harra, immortality; Peggy Snyder, fidelity; Mary Pierce, patriotism; Vickie Robinson, service; Jan Hager, confidential observer; Linda Heath, outer observer; Margaret Green, musician, and Carolyn Bookman, choir director.

Installing officers were: Diane Schaffitz, installing worthy advisor; Debbie Young, recorder; Lora Lee Stotts, musician; Susan Starks, chaplain.

After the installation ceremonies, an addendum honoring Rogenia was given by her officers and she was presented a gift. Past worthy advisor Diane Schaffitz was given a gift from the Ruth Assembly and presented to her by Rogenia.

The reception followed in the dining room with Mrs. Glenn Perkins and Mrs. Bill Brinda, Pendleton, pouring at the tea table. Mrs. Bill Heath cut and served the cake. Mrs. Bob Stevens and Mrs. Clarence Baker had charge of the kitchen.

Wedding Date Set By Engaged Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Leonnig, Heppner, announce the engagement and coming marriage of their daughter, Leonore, to Kay I Corbin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Corbin, also of Heppner. A December 28 wedding date is being planned.

Miss Leonnig is employed in the offices of Columbia Basin Electric Co., and Mr. Corbin holds a position with Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co.

FORGETS IMPORTANT DATE

This quick-thinking young wife, who forgot her mother-in-law's birthday till the last moment, didn't send an "I forgot" card or whip up a belated fudge cake. She just called her mother-in-law by long distance (after 6 p.m., when rates were lower), and the whole family said "Happy Birthday!" Why don't you spread some joy among your kinfolk, by long distance, this evening? PACIFIC NORTHWEST BELL
