

County School Principals Meet; Brubacher Talks

Morrow county school administrators held their monthly meeting Thursday afternoon, October 10, in Riverside High school, Boardman. Attending were Ron Daniels, Riverside High school principal; Leonard Herrick, Ione elementary school principal; Michael Tolar, Irrigon elementary school principal; Gordon Pratt, Heppner High school principal; Hillard Brown, Heppner elementary school principal; Gene Harryman, Ione High school principal; and Wayne Brubacher, Morrow county school district superintendent.

Business session was held in the Riverside High school building from 3 until 5 p.m. After the session, Principal Daniels was host for a dinner for his colleagues at the Hitchin' Post Restaurant in Boardman.

Supt. Brubacher was a guest at the October meeting of the Riverside High school Mothers club prior to the administrators' meeting. He spoke briefly in regard to preparing now for the ever rising costs of sending students to college, and the need for better educated students at the end of their high school careers—since the entrance requirements academically are also rising steadily.

Brubacher complimented the patrons of Morrow county on their interest in having good schools.

"It is a sacrifice to obtain excellent opportunities for your children, and although it is difficult to see immediate good results, the struggle in the long run will bear fruit."

The superintendent emphasized the importance of parents helping their charges develop good study and work habits at an early age.

"It is too late to study only during one's senior year in high school and expect to be equipped with a background of knowledge and sound study habits to meet the stiff competition of other eager and ambitious college students."

Principals Attend Elementary Meeting

Hillard Brown, Heppner Elementary school principal, and Leonard Herrick, Ione elementary school principal, attended the annual fall conference of the Oregon Elementary School Principals association in Eugene Monday and Tuesday.

Among addresses given were those by Dr. William Lucio, professor of education, University of California; A. B. Cummings, principal, Estabrook School, Lexington, Mass.; Dr. H. Harrison Clarke, professor of physical education, University of Oregon; Isadore Pivnick, director, school-community improvement program, San Francisco; Dr. Arthur S. Flemming, president, University of Oregon.

Business sessions and a panel discussion on "Leadership of the Elementary Principal in Effecting Change" were also on the program.

Among resolutions passed was one urging the State Department of Education to sponsor a sales tax initiative for the State of Oregon with a property tax offset feature. It was recommended that details of the sales tax and its allocation and property tax offset features be determined "by the best thinking of selected educational, business, and professional leaders of the state."

Founder's Program Observes Soroptimist 42nd Federated Year

A program in keeping with commemoration of Founder's Day of the Soroptimist American Federation was presented by Mrs. William J. Thomas at the luncheon meeting of the Heppner club last Thursday noon.

Mrs. Thomas, a charter member of the local club, reviewed the history of the founding of the organization, now world-wide in scope, and in its 42nd year.

"The association was born on the west coast," recalled the speaker, "when the first club was organized in Alameda, Calif., on September 21, 1921, with Stuart Morrow as the organizer. We are the youngest of the larger service clubs, but with greater membership than any other. Expanding to the east and then to Europe, a club was organized in London in 1924 and one was soon formed in Paris through the leadership of Madam Suzanne Noel. It became an international organization in Washington, D. C., in 1928."

Each club is urged to keep in touch with a sister club in Europe. Mrs. Thomas remarked, and support of the Foundation Endowment fund is primary in this year's program. Youth scholarships for advanced education and research hold priority in local, national and international programs.

During the business session final plans were made for the card party held at the Episcopal parish hall Monday evening.

Mrs. Jim Thomson announced the invitation to visit of Supt. and Mrs. Wayne Brubacher at the meeting today (Thursday). Two senior girls are invited each month to be luncheon guests of the club.

Grain Growers Name Nominees

Three men have been nominated by a committee as candidates for reelection to the board of directors of Morrow County Grain Growers, Al Lamb, manager, announces.

They are Walter Jacobs of Ione, E. H. (Tad) Miller Jr. of Lexington and Elmer Palmer of Heppner. Terms of office would be three years each. If they are elected, this will be the second term for each of the three.

Charles Doherty, Al Fetsch, Archie Bechdolt, Gene Majeski, Stanley Kemp, Robert Jones, Raymond Lundell, Leo Ashbeck and Larry Lindsay have been nominated for one year terms as associate directors. Associate directors are usually re-elected once, then new candidates are named to build up a large number of experienced men as candidates for full directors as openings arise later, Lamb said. The advice of former directors and associates has also proved valuable to the local association in past years, he pointed out.

Mrs. Myrtle Duran Dies in Clarkston

Mrs. Reason (Myrtle) Duran, cousin of Mrs. R. G. McMurtry, died in Clarkston, Wn., October 8 and funeral services were Friday, October 11, with burial at Medical Lake, Wn.

Mrs. Duran formerly lived near Heppner in Blackhorse canyon in earlier years. She had been residing during her elderly years in a nursing home in Clarkston and had been in poor health.

Students Attend Workshop Meet For HS Officers

Five Heppner High student body officers attended a student council workshop at Pendleton high school, Monday and Tuesday, October 14 and 15. The meet was for the high school officers and Region I schools. There are 38 schools in the region and 29 of them were represented. Region I encompasses Morrow, Umatilla, Union, Baker, Walla-walla and Grant counties.

Students attended various meetings at the conference where they discussed problems which confront student organizations and high school officers. Such things as building better student-community relations and how to make students feel at home in high school were discussed. The bulk of the day Monday was spent in these meetings. Monday night the students were treated to a banquet and dance at the high school cafeteria.

Tuesday, student leaders heard Wallace McCrae, president of Blue Mountain College, speak on "Destination Graduation?" After McCrae's talk, the students adjourned to various group meetings to make summaries of the preceding day's events. Following these meetings, a business meeting was held and a summary of the conference was presented. The conference was then adjourned.

Those students from Heppner who attended the meet were: Bill Sherman, student body president; Steve Peck, vice president; Gail Hoskins, secretary; Jennifer Brindle, treasurer; and Stuart Dick, sergeant-at-arms.

The workshop was sponsored by the secondary school principal's association of Oregon. Gordon Pratt, Heppner High principal, is one of the directors for Region I and accompanied the students to the conference. There are eight of these regions in the state.

A spring meeting of the same type is tentatively scheduled for May 4 in Baker.

Three Burglars Get Sentences Of 2 Years Each

Three California men, convicted in two trials in Morrow county circuit court this week of burglarizing a watermelon stand near Boardman, were sentenced to two years each in the state penitentiary by Judge William Wells who presided at the trial.

Andy Mack of Firebaugh, Calif., was found guilty Monday by a jury which deliberated about 30 minutes. Robert Abrams was his defense counsel and District Attorney Herman Winter prosecuted the case.

Two others, Paskel Junior Mason, Firebaugh, Calif., and Glen Lavell Eastridge, Compton, Calif., were found guilty Wednesday after the jury had deliberated about 35 minutes. John Kottkamp of Pendleton was their defense counsel and District Attorney Winter was prosecutor. These two cases were tried concurrently.

Charge against each of the defendants was burglary not in a dwelling resulting from the entry of Locust Grove Melon stand, Boardman, on the night of August 1. Mary A. Nelson filed complaint and the three were arrested by state police.

They were indicted by the Morrow county grand jury and were held in jail since their arrest in lieu of posting bail. The trials were set after they entered pleas of innocent.

Mason and Eastridge based their defense on a story that they had picked up a hitch hiker who had burglarized the stand.

It was necessary for Sheriff C. J. D. Bauman to call 10 persons from the street for jury duty Wednesday after the regular panel was exhausted. Several were challenged by Attorney Kottkamp because they had served on the jury Monday. Of the 10 called, however, only one served.

Sheriff Bauman was scheduled to take the prisoners to the penitentiary in Salem Thursday.

IRRIGON NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Trimble and Patti and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haskins, all of Hereford, were overnight guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCoy Tuesday evening, Wednesday, the group went shopping in Pasco.

Ben McCoy left Sunday morning for Tooele Army Depot near Salt Lake City, Utah, where he will spend a week inspecting different phases of work there. Mrs. Bessie Dunn of Pasco spent a week here with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Christiansen and family, after spending six months in Kingston, Jamaica with her son, Kelsey Dunn.

E. A. Stephens and sons, Clark Stephens of Umatilla and Joe Stephens of Portland, spent three days hunting near Walla-walla. They reported seeing several deer, but didn't get close enough for a shot.

Every forest fire costs you money. Your tax dollars are used to pay for the men and equipment needed to fight forest fires. This is only the beginning of the cost to you through use of your tax dollars. Loss of timber, jobs, watersheds and recreational lands continue to take your tax dollars for years to come.

Hermiston Bills Art Teachers' Regional Workshop

The Oregon Art Education association has scheduled a regional art workshop for elementary and secondary teachers at the Hermiston Junior High school on Saturday, October 19, from 8:30 a.m. to 3:35 p.m.

Saturday morning from 8:30 to 9:30 will be devoted to the viewing of exhibits, registration, and a coffee hour. Registration charge is one dollar. A no-host luncheon will be served at the West Park school at noon for a nominal charge.

The workshop will include paper sculpture, puppet making, crafts, bulletin boards, and working with clay.

Art instructors will present the demonstrations. Each teacher will have an opportunity to participate in two sessions. Participants in the paper sculpture session are encouraged to bring a sturdy sharp-pointed scissors.

Mrs. Betty Champton of Hermiston, vice-president of the Oregon Art association, announces that Dr. Margaret R. McDevitt will present paper sculpture which will include ideas for Christmas. She is supervisor of art in Salem schools and formerly lived in Morrow and Umatilla counties.

Mrs. Ann Berry from Milwaukie schools will demonstrate
