

Maranatha Plans Activities

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Maranatha Club met October 10 in the social rooms of the United Church of Christ with Mrs. Arthur Crawford and Mrs. Milton Burgoyne as hostesses. Mrs. Ella Burgoyne led the devotions, using the theme, "A Call to Grow." Mrs. Omar Rietmann was program chairman and presented a paper "Learning and Teaching."

The Sunshine committee reported Mrs. John Botts and the former minister's wife, Mrs. Rod MacKenzie, as ill and cards were sent.

An invitation to attend the recognition service honoring Rev. and Mrs. Charles Knox of the Heppner Christian church as "Rural Minister of the Year" was read.

Clothes boxes have been placed in both local stores and the church by the Maranathas for good, clean, and wearable clothing for missions.

Mrs. Walter Crowell reported on the meeting of the Women's Fellowship at Beaverton at which time, Mrs. E. M. Baker was named state finance chairman of the United Church of Christ.

Guests from out-of-town were Mrs. Glen Wright of Payette, Idaho, Mrs. Sam Ransdell, Portland, and Mrs. Walter Dobyns, Eugene.

The installation of the Reverend Mr. Walter Crowell as minister of the Ione church was announced for Sunday, October 27. Committees were appointed to plan the afternoon coffee hour and evening dinner.

The next meeting will be November 14 with Mrs. Clell Rea and Mrs. Garry Tullis as hostesses.

Mrs. E. M. Baker was in Portland on Tuesday to attend a State Executive Board meeting of the United Church of Christ. She drove down with Mrs. Bruce Mercer of Condon, who is president of the Women's Fellowship of the Mid-Columbia Association.

Families Remember Birthdays

Birthdays held the center of interest in several homes this week-end. Mrs. Kenneth Smouse entertained Saturday afternoon in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ella Burgoyne. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roberts, Mrs. Marion Palmer, and Mrs. Anne Smouse of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Strahm of The Dalles spent the week-end with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crum and family. On Sunday the Crums had a family dinner to celebrate Mr. Strahm's birthday. Other guests were his sons, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Strahm and children of The Dalles, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Strahm and family of Roosevelt, and his grand-daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Peterson, and children and grandchildren, Kathy, Monte and Robert Crum. A special guest was an old time friend, Mrs. D. Tatone, of Arlington.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Crawford drove to Hermiston, where they attended a birthday dinner prepared for Mr. Crawford by his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Crawford and family. They also honored the birthdays of three of Mr. Crawford's sons and three of his grandchildren. Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Crawford and three children of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan and Gary, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Crawford, and Rollo Crawford of Ione also attended their father's birthday dinner.

Baptismal services were held Sunday morning at the Ione United Church of Christ for Margaret Louise, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid.

Visits Valley Relatives

Mrs. Cleo Drake returned on Sunday from a three week visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Turner and family in Eugene. Mr. Drake met her in Portland on Wednesday and they went to Tillamook to visit their son, Ernest Drake and family. While there they had the pleasure of watching a football game between a Tillamook team, coached by Ernest and a Forest Grove team, coached by another ex-Ionian Bill Salter. Ernest brought his parents to The Dalles on Sunday, where they were met by Bob Drake, who brought them on home.

Dr. and Mrs. Helmuth Hermann and Dr. and Mrs. Lou Terkla and David of Lake Oswego spent the week-end as guests of Dr. Hermann's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Hermann. The men enjoyed pheasant hunting.

Stephen Lindstrom, Dick Hynd, Cheryl Lundell, and Shirley Hicks, accompanied by their advisor, Gene Harryman, spent Monday and Tuesday in Pendleton attending the Regional Student Council Workshop for high school students.

Barnett Gets Service Award

Mr. and Mrs. James Barnett were entertained in The Dalles on Friday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Wagner, when they presented Mr. Barnett with his ten-year service award for Standard Oil Co. Mr. Smith is District Manager and Mr. Wagner is Retail Representative for Standard Oil. The Barnetts, D-Ann and Ricky went on into Portland for the week-end. They visited Danny Akers, who was allowed to leave the hospital for two days since his progress is so satisfactory. They also attended the

P.I. show with Mr. and Mrs. Don Linnell and family. Rodney Linnell exhibited a 4-H steer at P.I.

Milton Morgan and Roy W. Lindstrom drove to Walla Walla on Thursday to hear a talk given by Secretary of Agriculture Orville Freeman.

Mrs. Charles Carlson was the hostess for the October meeting of the Topic Club on Friday. Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom gave a report on the United Nations Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Organization. Schedules were made for members to assist the librarian and also for library cleaning days. The Topic Club is planning a movie for November 3 at the schoolhouse to help raise needed funds for the library.

Gary Brenner, a student at the University of Oregon, and his grandmother, Mrs. Vela Eubanks of Portland, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brenner.

Dancing class members held a party at the Legion hall on Saturday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Ted Palmateer, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettijohn, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lindstrom, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyce acting as hosts.

Mrs. Elmer Griffith has returned from a ten day visit in Post Falls, Idaho and Portland with relatives. Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom met her in Umatilla on Sunday evening.

The Ione Altar Society served breakfast on Sunday morning for the men at their monthly meeting held in the basement of St. Patrick's Catholic church in Heppner.

Lloyd Morgan, Jodie Morrison, and daughter, Merrie Jo, flew to Seattle on Saturday to attend the football game between OSU and U of W.

Kenneth Smouse drove to Portland on Sunday and on Monday joined five other men for a flight to Washington, D. C. for an REA meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Ritchie of Seattle spent the week-end at the home of his cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lindstrom. On Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lindstrom were hosts for a dinner at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lindstrom, who were celebrating their thirty second wedding anniversary. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Lindstrom.

Norman Swanson spent the week-end here and went bird hunting with his brother, Gar Swanson. He left for his home in Portland on Monday, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Mary Swanson, who will visit at his home for a few days before leaving for Salem to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elmo McMillan.

Willows Grange will meet Saturday night at the hall with a pancake supper at 6:30 preceding the meeting. Officers will obligate in all four degrees. Rainbow Assembly No. 89 initiated Teresa Stefani into the Order of Rainbow for Girls on Tuesday evening at the Masonic hall. Entertainment was furnished by Betty Hausler and Lee O'Connor.

Mrs. Lester Baker of Walla Walla spent the week-end here with her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. R. Lundell. She accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Willis Dirks, who were guests of Mrs. Kirks' brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker.

Mrs. Harry Yarnell had a coffee party Friday afternoon, honoring Mrs. Walter Dobyns of Eugene.

Mrs. Walter Dobyns of Eugene has been visiting several days here at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jepsen and family. She left this week-end with her son-in-law, Tad Hardesty, who had been hunting in the John Day area. Mrs. Dobyns stopped here on her way home from a visit with Mrs. Grace Ware at Morton, Wn.

Flower Show Reports Reviewed at Meeting

IONE—On October 8 the Ione Garden club met at the home of the president, Mrs. Oscar Lundell with Mrs. Dale Ray as co-hostess. Fourteen members answered roll call naming their favorite shrub. The flowering type appealed to most as yard beautifiers, with a few naming the evergreen type for foliage purposes. Guests present were Mrs. Walter Dobyns of Eugene and Mrs. Arvilla Swanson.

A complete report on the recent flower show was given with suggestions made on how to improve next year's show. Among these were to have a June show with selection of June flowers and another to hold the show the third Sunday in September. Most of the business pertained to betterment of flower shows, improving year books, and making more complete schedules for 1964-65.

The next meeting will be at the country home of Mrs. Ralph Crum with Mrs. Ronald Bishop assisting her.

The public is invited to both shows.

Marcia Rands of Heppner, winner of the U. N. Pilgrimage sponsored by the Odd Fellows and Rebekah Lodge each summer, showed slides and told about her trip by bus to New York and Washington D. C., and other points of interest. She traveled with 38 other young people, who were winners in other districts, and three chaperones. They went by the northern route visiting some historical places in Canada also and returning via the mid-western states.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Martin were in Forest Grove on Thursday to attend a meeting of the Commission on Church and Ministry of the United Church of Christ. From Forest Grove they drove to Corvallis to visit their daughter Jean, who has just been released from five days in the infirmary from complications caused by a cold, and their son Melvin, who has been in a Corvallis hospital and in the infirmary with pneumothorax caused by a football injury. He was released from the infirmary on Saturday but must be under constant observation for a time

Lone 4-H Girls Donate to IFYE

Five Ione high school girls, known as the Needlettes, are doing their bit for better foreign understanding by donating $20 to the IFYE (International Farm Youth Exchange) funds—4-H's way of promoting world peace, announces Esther Kirmis, Morrow County Extension agent.

The five—Arleta McCabe, Shirley Hicks, Elaine Gaarsland, Karen Hams, and Cheryl Lyn Smouse—put up the first community booth they ever tackled at the Morrow County Fair in August and won $20 on it, explains Mrs. L. A. McCabe, their leader. The theme of the booth was "Swinging into Fashion with 4-H."

This was the fourth year in clothing for these girls. This year they were either in the cotton school dress phase or the wool-like material class. Cheryl, Karen and Arleta's garments were sent to the Oregon State Fair, Salem. Arleta also took part in the State Style Revue, says the agent.

Oregon tries to raise $4000 each year to enable them to send four delegates to a foreign country for six months—and receive some foreign visitors in return. Oregon has sent 46 young adults to 31 countries in the 12 years that OSU has sponsored the IFYE program, remarks Miss Kirmis.

Money for the trips comes from four sources—interested individuals (mainly 4-H groups), businesses, the Oregon Bankers Association and the National 4-H Sponsor's Council, she continues.

Dean Wimer, Oregon's IFYE to Northern Ireland, will be in Morrow county in January to report, the agent adds.

WHY*

many Northwesterners go Domeliner "City of Portland" when they travel East.

*Domeliner travel offers something exciting for travelers of all ages. For a housewife, it can be an extra vacation—somebody to wait on her for a change. For active children, there's room on the Domeliner for them to explore, and they are always captivated by the view from the wide windows of the astradomes. Travel by Domeliner is an experience all children treasure. For Dad, the pleasures are both practical and personal. There's the economy of rail travel, and if the whole family's along—Family Fares offer even greater savings. He can travel free of the strain and hazards of highway driving.

His Pullman room offers complete privacy, or if he's traveling by coach, the seat is as comfortable as his easy chair at home. In the Dome Diner, he can order a meal freshly prepared as tasty as Mother's best Sunday dinner—well, almost—anyway.

For a memorable and delightful experience, enjoy Autumn's colors close up... from the Domeliner "City of Portland"... to Denver, Omaha and Chicago.

(Family Fares apply in coaches, too, and all seats are reserved.)
