

Ione News

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tews of Seattle arrived on Saturday for a visit with their son, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tews and family. On Tuesday Mrs. Tews left with Mrs. Anne Smouse of Heppner, Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Sr., of Lake Grove, and Mrs. Maude Pointer of Ione, no a Grange conducted tour to Florida through the southern states. They will be gone about a month.

Milton Morgan, first vice-president of the Oregon Wheat League left on Tuesday for Spokane, where he will attend a tri-state meeting of Western Wheat Associates.

Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Martin, Mrs. Alfred Nelson, Jr., and Rev. and Mrs. Walter Crowell spent Wednesday and Thursday in Milton-Freewater attending the Mid-Columbia Association meeting of the United Church of Christ held at Ingle Chapel. Outstanding speakers heard were Dr. Silas Bittner, president of the Board of Pensions and Relief from Philadelphia; Rev. William Slayter, executive secretary of the General Church Lay Life and Work, of Chicago; Miss Ruth Bailey, Director of Christian Education in Oregon, and Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Buttrey, Superintendent of the Oregon Conference, of Portland. Mr. Martin presided over the business meeting as moderator of the Mid-Columbia Association. He was succeeded by Rev. James Halfaker of Milton-Freewater, who will serve for the coming year.

Mrs. Walter Jacobs and Merrielle went to Portland Sunday for medical appointments on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Lindstrom spent the first part of the week in Portland, where Mrs. Lindstrom received dental attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Howton and Jackie and Joyce of Hermiston were visiting their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Rea on Saturday. Joyce stayed over until Sunday evening.

Jerry Stefani is recovering from an attack of virus pneumonia and an accidental cut on the cornea of his eye.

E. G. Akers came home from Portland on Wednesday where he had been for sometime with Mrs. Akers and Danny, while Danny was undergoing surgery.

Plan Halloween Sale
Eastern Star Social club is having a traveling food sale on Wednesday, October 30, featuring goodies for Halloween. Members are requested by the club president, Mrs. James Barnett, to bring at least two items each to the Roy W. Lindstrom home Wednesday morning between 9:30 and 10:00.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tews and family have returned from a 3½-week trip which took them to Kindred, N. D., where they visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Transrud. After leaving N. D. they drove to Pine River, Minn., where they visited Mrs. Tews' brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Don Robinson. They went via the Lolo Pass to Missoula, Mont. and through the northern states coming home by about the same route.

Mrs. Charles McElligott of Portland spent on Wednesday to Saturday visiting her sons, Don and Dick and their families. Ron Crabtree, who had major surgery on Wednesday, came home from the hospital on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Crabtree and son are staying with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree until he leaves for Portland to study at Northwest School of Commerce. He had to delay his entrance for fall term until November 11.

Return From Eastern Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Holtz and Carl W. Troedson arrived home on Friday after completing a most enjoyable 31 day tour east by bus sponsored by the Grange Tours. They were met in Richland, Wn. by the Holtz' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Holtz and son. Leaving on September 18 they made the trip east going through the wheat country of Canada and staying two days each in Winnipeg, Montreal, and the quaint old French-speaking town of Quebec. It was in this area they encountered their only rain of the trip.

They stayed on the Atlantic coast at Bar Harbor, Maine and then proceeded on to Boston, where they saw all the old historic sights. After three days spent visiting the traditional sights at New York City, they went on to Washington, D. C. The group toured the city for three days and included was a trip to the United States Senate, where they were just beginning the debate on the proposed sale of wheat to Russia. Sen. Wayne Morse was one of those taking the floor. While they were there Mr. Vernon was also visited.

The trip home was made through the mid-western states, Ohio, Wisconsin, where they took a two hour ride down the Mississippi River and on home through South Dakota and Montana to Richland. They were through half the states of the Union. The beautiful fall weather and the splendid colors of the landscape were greatly enjoyed by the group.

Auxiliary Names Year's Leaders

By MARTHA MATTESON

MONUMENT—The American Legion Post and Auxiliary held their regular meetings last Thursday evening in their hall. Officers and chairmen for the auxiliary for the coming year were elected.

Officers are: Betty Richards, president; Martha Matteson, vice-president; Roberta Croker, secretary and treasurer; Gloria Smith, historian; Irene Forrest, chaplain; Yvonne Stubblefield, sergeant-at-arms; Martha Matteson, corresponding secretary; Helen Holmes, civil defense; Yvonne Stubblefield, community service and girls' state; Martha Matteson, membership; Gloria Smith, poppy chairman; Roberta Croker, pan-American rehabilitation; June Hutchison, constitution and by-laws; Martha Matteson, publicity.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cavender of Portland are visiting their son, Jack Cavender and family.

Hank Bottemiller and Vic Vehrung were week-end hunting guests at the Henry Cupper ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Aubrey of Klamath Falls visited last week at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan and family. Mrs. Anna Cowden of Portland is here visiting her grandchildren and their mother, Frances Noland.

Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Jones drove to John Day Tuesday on business.

Roy Vowlter of Boise, Idaho, spent a few days here with his wife, Norma, and her mother, Mrs. Helen Brown.

Mrs. Stella McCarty and son Donald drove to Canyon City last Monday with Mrs. Elmer Matteson on business.

Allen and H. Ralphs spent the week-end visiting and hunting at the Henry Cupper ranch.

Pvt. Henry Cupper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cupper, Sr., is now stationed at Fort Walters, Texas, after completing 14 weeks of special training in the U. S. Signal Corps at Fort Monmouth, N. J.

Mrs. Helen Holmes left last Thursday morning for Sacramento, Calif., to visit her son and family and friends.

Lula Suttle and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howell drove to John Day Friday on business.

Norma Vowlter, Helen Brown, Doris Capon and Delsia Sweek drove to Bend Thursday on business.

D. L. Matteson spent three days here with his folks and did some hunting before returning to his work in Washington.

Mrs. Fred Shank, Mrs. Ruben Patzer, Mrs. Roy Vowlter, Mrs. Helen Brown, Mrs. Fred McWilliams, Mrs. Bud Engle, Mrs. Rosta Hinton, Mrs. George Stritt, Mrs. George Capon, Mrs. Delsia Sweek, Mrs. Ivy Barnard and Mrs. Elmer Matteson gathered together last Wednesday afternoon at the Stritt home. As a surprise to Mrs. Helen Brown, she was presented a nice check for the years of faithful work she has given as secretary and treasurer of the M.M.M. club. Pie and coffee were served by Mrs. Shank and Mrs. Stritt.

Mrs. Boyd Hinton returned home October 14 from Heppner Pioneer Memorial hospital where she had undergone surgery October 7.

Mrs. M. Fayre Sweek of Ridgefield, Wn., came last Thursday evening to visit her son, Jack and family, also her mother-in-law, Mrs. Lonnie Claude at Prairie City.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKinnon and two girls of Heppner spent the week-end here visiting her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Hinton, and did some hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Howell and two sons of Spray visited his folks, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Howell on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Erhardt spent the week-end here, seeing their new grandson who was born to Mr. and Mrs. Tom Erhardt October 13. They also did some hunting before returning to their home in Portland.

Mrs. Ann Fehmerling left Saturday for her home to Seaview, Wn., near Long Beach, Wn. She is moving into her new home recently completed.

Mr. and Mrs. Bud Springer were week-end visitors in Monmouth for Dad's Week-end on the Oregon College of Education campus and visit their children, Dick and Ginger.

Church to Install Minister on Sunday

IONE—The United Church of Christ in Ione will hold special services on Sunday evening, October 27, for the installation of their new minister, Rev. Walter Crowell. A coffee hour will be held for visitors from 4:00 to 4:45 and from 4:30 to 5:00 there will be a pastoral committee meeting with the pastor.

The ecclesiastical council will hear the reading of the pastor's paper from five to six o'clock, which will be open to the public. A turkey dinner will be served at 6:15 at the Masonic hall for all members and visitors and the installation service will be held at 8:00 p.m., when the choir will furnish special music. All church people are cordially invited to attend these services.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blake and daughter, Barbara, and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Gardner were in Monmouth over the week-end for Dad's Week-end at Oregon College of Education. They visited the Blakes' daughter, Beverly, and the Gardner's son, LeRoy.

Holly Lodge Has Novel Holiday Program

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON—Holly Rebekah Lodge met last Thursday evening for their regular meeting with Noble Grand Dimple Munkers in the chair. The transfer of Alice Soward was read, and nomination of officers was held. Following lodge a Halloween party was held with each member modeling a mask that they had made. Winning prizes were Bertha Hunt for the funniest mask, with the exciting title "A Mars Pig," and the most original was by Mrs. Larry Fetsch, with a "Frankenstein." Refreshments were served in the dining room by the refreshments committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Jones and son Kenneth were Portland visitors over the week-end with their daughter, Charlene Jones. Mr. and Mrs. Newt O'Hara departed on Monday for Tucson, Ariz., where they have purchased a home and will spend the winter months.

Church Group Plans Banquet
Women's Fellowship group of the Lexington Christian church met at the home of Mrs. Alonzo Henderson on Tuesday afternoon. Plans for a "Father-Son" banquet were discussed with a committee of Mrs. Henderson, Mrs. Joe Yocom, Mrs. Florence McMillan and Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt was appointed to plan this. The November meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Bertha Hunt, and the December meeting at the C. C. Jones home at which time there will be a Christmas party and the drawing of names for Secret Sisters. Those present were Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt, Mrs. Carl Marquardt, Mrs. Trannie Parker, Mrs. Earl Warner, Mrs. C. C. Jones and Mrs. Florence McMillan with the hostess, Mrs. Henderson.

Mrs. A. F. Majeske and Mrs. Florence McMillan were week-end visitors in Pendleton where they attended the Ladies Auxiliary of the Patriarchs Militant.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Colley spent the week-end at the Olive Reade ranch at Spray. Pendleton callers on Monday were Mrs. Bertha Hunt, Mrs. Morris McCarl, Mrs. Edward Hunt, Mrs. Charles Colley, Mrs. Florence McMillan and Mrs. A. F. Majeske.

The Pinochle 4 met at the home of Ruby Colley on Friday for their regular party. Winning for this meeting were Mrs. Charles Colley, and Bertha Hunt.

Mrs. W. I. Miller of La Grande and son Earl were callers at the C. C. Jones home on Sunday night. Miller remained until Tuesday, and on Monday they all motored to Yakima, Wn. to visit Mrs. Miller and Mr. Jones's sister, Mrs. Bonita Stitts, and Mrs. Ed Brunelle.

Tuesday evening Edward Hunt was delightfully surprised when several friends dropped in to help him celebrate his birthday. Visiting and pinochle were enjoyed by the following guests: Mrs. A. F. Majeske, Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. Bertha Hunt, Mrs. Morris McCarl, Mrs. Charles Colley, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, and Ellwood Hunt.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Henderson received word Tuesday that their son, Laddie Gene, has arrived at Ford Ord, Calif., to begin basic training with the army. He left here October 15. Laddie is a Lexington High school graduate and has been a pilot for the Lexington airport for the past two years.

Receives Rebekah Degree
On Saturday evening, October 19, Mrs. Alonzo (LaVerne) Henderson received the Degree of Chivalry at the IOOF hall in Pendleton. This is the highest honor given to a member of the Rebekah Lodge. Those present from Lexington to attend this impressive ceremony were Mr. Henderson and daughter Betty, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hunt, Mrs. Bertha Hunt, Mrs. Charles Padberg, Mrs. Wayne Papineau, Mrs. Oris Padberg, Mrs. Joe Yocom and Mrs. A. F. Majeske and Mrs. Florence McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Barratt were in Corvallis Saturday and Sunday for Homecoming and were guests of the Jim Barratts.

MORROW COUNTY

Livestock Growers

And CowBelles Invite You To Their 15th ANNUAL MEETING

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 1, FAIRGROUNDS

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 2, ELKS TEMPLE

LOOK at This Program

- Hay Quality Session
LED BY NORMAN GOETZE, OSU SPECIALIST, FRIDAY, 1:30 P. M.
- Outstanding Talks on Saturday
- Superb Film, "Sights and Sounds of Oregon"

and

- Presentation, Stockman of the Year
AT THE SATURDAY EVENING BANQUET

PROGRAM--ANNUAL STOCK GROWERS MEETING

FRIDAY, NOV. 1 — FAIRGROUNDS 10:30 A. M.—Labor Saving Equipment—Display and Discussion. 12:00 to 1:00—CowBelles Luncheon for Livestock Growers, Fair Annex. Nominal charge. Help the CowBelles' treasury! DURING MORNING—COFFEE AND DOUGHNUTS. COURTESY OF BANK OF EASTERN OREGON. Afternoon Session, Fair Annex Building 1:30 P. M.—HAY QUALITY, Time of Cutting, Crimping, Crushing, and other Processing Procedures. Norman Goetze, Farm Crops Specialist, OSU. 3:30 P. M.—Committee Meetings. All committees meet. Livestock Growers urged to attend meeting of their choice. SATURDAY, NOV. 2 — ELKS LODGE 10:00 A. M.—Call to Order. President's Report, Floyd Jones; Secretary's Report, N. C. Anderson; Treasurer's Report, Gerald Swaggart.	10:20—Committee Reports, Membership and Finance, Raymond French; Auditor's Report, Howard Bryant; Beef Promotion, Don Greenup; Public Lands and Forestry, Ron Currin; Pasture and Range Improvement, Frank Anderson. 11:20—"What I Learned at Youth Range Camp," Ken Wright, 1963 Camp Delegate sponsored by Ass'n. 11:30—"Morrow County's Herd Law," Dist. Attorney, Herman Winter. 12:00—LUNCH 1:15—Introduction of Guests. 1:30—Wintering Trials and Livestock Research at Hermiston Station, Ron Baker, chairman, Beef Advisory Committee. 2:00—Committee Reports—Game, Theft and Brand, Ralph Beamer; Disease Control, Harold Wright; Insects, Predators and Rodents, Bob Van Schoelck; Production and Marketing, Bob Peterson.	2:30—Report of Nominating Committee, Election of Directors to fill vacancies of expired terms of Floyd Jones, O. W. Cutsforth, Don Greenup. 2:45—Branching Knapweed, A Range Problem, N. C. Anderson, County Agent. 3:10—Committee Reports, Taxation and Legislation, O. W. Cutsforth. 3:30—Resolutions, Adjournment. DOOR PRIZES ALL DAY 5:30—Social Get-together, First National Bank of Oregon, Heppner Branch. 6:30—BANQUET, Heppner High School Multipurpose Room. ENTERTAINMENT Dr. Don Hunter, University of Oregon—"Sights and Sounds of Oregon." Presentation—"Livestock Man of the Year."
--	---	--

We Will Deliver Your Processed Meat

Free Of Charge To Heppner, Lexington, Ione.

WHOLESALE MEATS
CUSTOM SLAUGHTERING SCHEDULE:

Hogs Tuesday
Cattle Wed., Thurs.
Sheep Any Day

Follett Meat Co.
Hermiston, Oregon
Ph. JO 7-6651
On Hermiston-McNary Highway

YOU WON'T WANT TO MISS--

- CowBelles' Luncheon For Growers
NOON FRIDAY
- Coffee and Doughnuts
BY BANK OF EASTERN OREGON
- Social Hour Saturday, 5:30
FIRST NATIONAL BANK AS HOST
- Annual Banquet, 6:30 Saturday
TICKETS $2.50 ON SALE AT EITHER HEPNER BANK