

Boardman Unit Sets Fall Plans

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—Mrs. Guy Ferguson was hostess for the Home Extension unit Tuesday of last week at her home, the subject being "Fun With Rolls." Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Earl Briggs were leaders. Demonstrations included how to make parker house rolls, crescent, bubble loaf, butterflake and a tea ring with candied fruits.

Mrs. H. M. Walker was appointed program planner for next year.

The unit plans to have a cooked food sale November 26 at the garage hall. Committee in charge is Mrs. Walter Hayes, Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Myron Watts. Mrs. Leo Potts is to make the signs.

The unit plans a tour of the Hill Furniture Factory in Pendleton some time in January.

Any girl interested in staying in the Azalea House at Corvallis during the next college year should contact Mrs. Walter Hayes.

Pupils Surprise Teacher

Pupils of the third and fourth grade of Boardman Grade school held a surprise party at the school last Friday in honor of their teacher, Mrs. LaVern Partlow, on her birthday. She was presented with a gift. A birthday cake made by Mrs. Roy Partlow and cookies made by Mrs. John Summers were served. Mrs. Wayne Kuhn assisted the children with the party.

A coffee hour was held in the basement of Community church Sunday night following services, in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Jim Agee. Mrs. Claud Coats presided her with a birthday cake. Other cakes were made by Mrs. John Summers and Mrs. Bob Miller.

Mrs. Earl Briggs is a patient in the Umatilla hospital, having suffered a heart attack at her home last Friday.

A total of 89 flu shots were given at the clinic held at the school last week. Another clinic will be held in two months.

Farmers are concerned with the way careless hunters are invading their pastures where stock is grazing. A cow owned by Dale Eades in the west end was shot and killed last week. Although some have their farms posted, it does not seem to stop hunters from going in.

Church Sets Work Day

The Ladies Aid Society of Community church met last week at the home of Mrs. John Summers with Mrs. Florence Root as co-hostess. The next meeting will be an all day work session at the church November 6, starting at 10 a.m.

Church members held a clean up day at the church Saturday, working both in the yard and inside.

Members of the Boardman Garden club who attended the fall meeting of the Blue Mountain District of Garden clubs in Pendleton last Friday included Mrs. Zearl Gillespie, Mrs. Glen Carpenter, Mrs. Louise Earwood and Mrs. Florence Root.

Randy Baker, eight year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Baker, was in Pendleton Memorial Community hospital three days last week with brain concussion after being injured in a freak accident while playing baseball at school. He and another boy were both running to get the ball and ran together striking their heads. The other boy was uninjured. Randy was hit in the eye.

Forty persons attended the Fellowship potluck dinner Tuesday night of last week at the Community church. Following the dinner a film was shown, "Crisis in Morality," a documentary film from the Bible Institute of Los Angeles. A solo was presented by Shirley Munger, and Rev. Herman Burg read a poem.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Allen and children Stacie and Stuart of Seattle, Wn. were week-end visitors at the home of Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen. They are moving to Walla Walla, Wn. to make their home, where Allen will be employed.

Rev. and Mrs. Herman R. Burg were in Fox last Thursday to attend an area meeting of the Town and Country Christian Women's Club. Mrs. Burg was guest speaker. Those present were from Mount Vernon, Long Creek and Fox. The Burgs were overnight guests in Long Creek at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Dale Sherman.

Mrs. Joe Tatone was in Salem two days last week to attend a state board meeting of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Newman and daughter Paula of Albany visited last Friday at the home of Newman's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marlow.

Visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Thornhill one day last week were Mrs. Thornhill's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Polley of Boise, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Williams and family moved to Wallawa Saturday, to live, where Williams is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Vic Stockman of Portland were week-end visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Herrine.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer have returned from a three week's trip to Fort Worth, Tex. to visit at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ballweg. They went by way of Ledgerwood, N. Dakota to visit other relatives.

Cafeteria menus for Riverside High school and Boardman Grade school for the week of October 28 to November 1 are as follows: Monday—Hot dogs, buttered corn, potato chips, pickle relish and fruit; Tuesday—spaghetti with meat sauce, French bread or rolls, salad and fruit; Wednesday—hash and spinach, biscuits and ice cream; Thursday—fried chicken and gravy, mashed potatoes, green beans, cookies and apples; Friday—toasted cheese sandwiches, mashed potatoes, celery sticks, buttered carrots and fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Root and children Maurice and Jane ofasco visited Sunday at the home of Root's mother, Mrs. Florence Root.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Higuera and children Susan, Karen and Jeffrey of Kennewick, Wn. were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Higuera's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Ferguson.

Although skies were overcast the temperature was up to 76 here Monday afternoon after a week-end of cool weather. A light shower of rain fell Sunday evening.

Reisches Like Idaho

A letter from Darrel Reisch, principal at Homedale, Idaho, High school, has written to say that he and Mrs. Reisch are enjoying their home and work in the Idaho city very much. "We certainly enjoy getting your paper," he states. "Our family is fine, two boys in school this year, and they both seem to have fine teachers. Ellen is almost lost with all the idle time on her hands. Only two children at home!" Reisch, who last year served as director of special services for Morrow County Schools and was lone High school principal the year before, said that the area between Weiser and Mt. Home, Idaho, now has about 4,000 teachers. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Cantonwine of Heppner went to visit the Reisch family on the week-end of October 5 and 6.

Beginning Sewing Class Enrolls 13

Thirteen women started the first of four meetings in a beginner dressmaking class in Heppner October 16, led by Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, lone member of the lone Extension unit, according to Esther Kirmis, Morrow county extension agent.

The first meeting was devoted to choosing the right pattern size for themselves, selection of fabric, and layout of the pattern, explains Mrs. Bergstrom. A "shirtwaist" type of dress will give them experience in sewing darts, putting in a zipper, collar, setting in sleeves, putting in a hem, and making a belt, she adds.

The sessions are being held in Morrow County Fair annex at 10:00 a.m. each Wednesday of the session.

Enrolled are: Mrs. R. G. Watkins, Mrs. Jerry Doherty, Mrs. William Healy, Mrs. Alice McCabe, Mrs. Joe Wright, Jean Stanley, Mrs. Creston Robinson, Mrs. Marcel Jones, Mrs. Paul Warren, and Sandra Harshman, Heppner; Mrs. Lillian Boyce, Mrs. Jim West and Mrs. Carol Miller, Ione.

MR. AND MRS. LLOYD ROBERT RICE

Kennewick Church Scene of Wedding Of Young Couple

The First Lutheran church of Kennewick, Wn., was the setting for the late summer wedding of Miss Christie Vangen and Lloyd Robert Rice of Ione on Sunday, August 25. The Rev. Norris Halvorsen performed the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Vangen of Pasco, Wn. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Rice, Ione. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of Chantilly lace. A crown of seed pearls held her fingertip veil and she carried a bridal bouquet of white gardenias and pink rosebuds. Her single strand of pearls was a gift of the bridegroom.

Attendants were Miss Pat Roe as maid of honor; Mrs. Sally Spencer, Mrs. Bruce Whitcom and Mrs. Gene Crabtree were bridesmaids. They wore identical sheaths of pink peau de soie, designed with overskirts, and pink veiled headpieces. They each carried a nosegay of pink and white rosebuds.

Best man was Gerald Bunch of Heppner. Ushers were Ronnie Vangen, brother of the bride, Tommy Martin and Kenneth Nelson of Lexington. Soloist was Miss Carol Maxon.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Vangen wore a princess style dress of apricot lace. Mrs. Rice, mother of the groom, chose a sheath of light blue crepe. Their corsages were of pink rosebuds.

Guests were greeted at a reception following in the church social hall. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Ray Voss, Mrs. Robert Henry, Mrs. Gwen Loney, Mrs. John Strom and Mrs. Mike Mitchell.

For their wedding trip to the Oregon coast, the bride's going-away ensemble was a three-piece gray suit with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Pasco High school and of the Leading Beauty school. The groom attended the lone schools, Oregon State University and Columbia Basin college. After the fall quarter at CBC they will move to Corvallis where he will enter Oregon State University.
