

Pancake Feed Precedes Grange Meeting

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE — About 40 Willows Grange members enjoyed a pancake supper, ham and eggs and coffee Saturday evening, October 19, followed by the regular Grange meeting. Pete Cannon and Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Kincaid were received into the Grange as new members.

The Agricultural Committee announced a meeting in La Grande on October 21, and the Home Economics club announced the change of their meeting date to October 24 at the home of Mrs. Arthur Dalzell with Mrs. Berl Akers as co-hostess. A potluck dinner will be held at noon.

A committee was appointed to investigate prices and materials for roofing the Grange hall. Plans are being made to finish the basement entrance.

Three members of the grange are in the Pioneer Memorial hospital in Heppner: Mrs. Lana Padberg, Mrs. Jessie Griffin and Alex Huber. Next regular meeting will be November 16.

Amica club met at the home of Mrs. Arnie Hedman in Heppner last Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ray Boyce assisting her. The members played bingo and prizes were won by Mrs. Joe Hausler and Mrs. Lee Palmer. The door prize was won by Mrs. Robert Jepsen.

Mrs. O. L. Lundell, president of the local Garden club, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, and Mrs. F. T. Martin, attended a luncheon meeting of the Blue Mountain District Garden club officers and members at Gunther's Cafe in Pendleton on Friday. Mrs. Martin is an assistant director of the organization.

A large crowd attended a most successful Beta Omega Sorority barn dance at Morgan Saturday night. The Quackenbush orchestra from Heppner played and co-chairmen, Mrs. Ted Palmateer and Mrs. Joe Hausler assisted by Mrs. Arthur Crawford and Mrs. Tad Miller served refreshments at intermission.

Boy Wins PI Honors

Mr. and Mrs. Don Linnell and family attended PI last week in Portland. Their son Rodney was voted outstanding 4-H exhibitor at the show and also won reserve grand champion with his polled Hereford steer. They returned on Wednesday.

Henry Lyons of Salem spent the week-end here hunting with the Leo Crabtree family.

Friendship club met at the home of Mrs. George E. Miller near Cecil last Thursday. Plans were made for the Halloween party to be given for children of families on lower Willow Creek. This year it will be held at the George Griffith home at Morgan on Thursday evening, October 31, and will take the place of the traditional house to house "trick or treat" held in other communities.

Joe Halvorsen is suffering from a pulled muscle in the pelvic region caused from an injury sustained in the Helix-Ione football clash on Friday afternoon.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom and family were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Zielinski of Salem and Mrs. Zielinski's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Foster Odom of Arlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morgan and Bonnie and Virgil spent the week-end in Corvallis attending Homecoming festivities with their daughter, Geraldine, at Oregon State University.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Bertsch of Eugene were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor and family Saturday and Sunday. Mr. Bertsch is a brother of Mrs. Edna Yarnall, Mrs. O'Connor's mother, who is staying at the O'Connor home this winter.

Mrs. Milton Morgan, chairman of Domestic Wheat Utilization of the Oregon Wheat League, was in Pendleton last Wednesday to meet with the county chairman for a fall workshop. She also showed the slides she had taken at National Wheat League in Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Benson and family have moved from the Barnett house to the Franklin Ely house on Second Street.

Lodge Sets Benefit Events

Rebekah Lodge met in their hall on Thursday evening and made plans for a traveling food sale on Friday morning, October 25. Articles for sale are to be brought to the hall between 9:30 and 10:00 that morning. They will also have some costume jewelry for sale. On November 13 the Rebekahs are having a public card party at the hall.

Mrs. Cleo Drake, hospital chairman for the Gifts for Veterans programs of the Legion Auxiliary would like to remind members and friends she is accepting gifts for the hospital, clothing for men and old nylons for craft work at the hospitals. Things may be left at her house or brought to the next Auxiliary meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. George Griffith drove to Portland on Sunday and returned on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Noel Dobyns of Florence flew to Ione and spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jepsen and family.

Mark Halvorsen, Dick Hynd, Stephen Lindstrom, Bonnie Hynd, Sue Townsend, Delores Emert, Cheryl Corley, Lee O'Connor and their music director, Carol Miller, went by bus to La Grande on Saturday with other students from Riverside and Heppner High schools. They attended a Director and Sight Reading Clinic as members of the band or chorus.

Mrs. William Moller and small daughters of Gresham spent from Wednesday to Sunday visiting at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Elmer Griffith, and at the Roy W. Lindstrom home. She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. J. W. Howk, who just recently moved from Troutdale to an apartment in southeast Portland.
