

Special Services Install New Minister at Ione

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Installation services for the Rev. Walter B. Crowell as minister of the United Church of Christ were held at the Ione church on Sunday afternoon and evening, October 27. Guests gathered at 4:00 p.m. for a coffee hour, which was hosted by Mrs. O. L. Lundell, Mrs. Ella Burgoyne, Mrs. W. C. Crawford, Mrs. Dale Ray, and Mrs. O. E. Lindstrom. Mrs. Walter Roberts had charge of the guest book. Visitors registered from The Dalles, Condon, Milton-Freewater, Enterprise, as well as Ione. The minister met with the pastoral committee followed by the Ecclesiastical Council, when Robert Jepsen, moderator of the Ione church, presented Rev. Crowell to the council for the reading of the pastor's paper.

Special sermon for the installation services was delivered by Dr. A. J. Buttrey, superintendent and minister of the Oregon Conference of the United Church of Christ. Rev. Edward J. Morrison, of the Ingle Chapel Congregational church at Milton-Freewater gave the invocation and led in the Lord's Prayer and choral response. Rev. James E. Jones, minister of the Community Congregational church at Enterprise read the scripture lesson, with Rev. James Halfaker of the Federated Church at Milton-Freewater reading the moderator's statement and the charge to the minister.

Rev. Fred R. Morrow from the First Congregational United church at The Dalles gave the charge to the congregation and Robert Jepsen led the response of the members followed by the prayer of installation by Rev. William H. Tempest, minister of the Zion United Church of Christ of Gresham and Moderator of the Oregon Conference of the United Church of Christ. The minister from the United Church of Christ at Condon, Rev. Randolph E. Middleton, gave the declaration of installation and led in the Right Hand of Fellowship with the final benediction by the Rev. Crowell.

The choir under the direction of Carol Miller sang two numbers, "Lord Jesus, Think on Me" turned to their base on Sunday. Bob Griffith of Milwaukie was a guest of his cousin, George Griffith and family, on Monday. He was on his way home from an elk hunt in the Ukiah area.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Akers brought Danny home from Portland last Monday. He was recently released from Doernbecher hospital following major surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn spent several days at Portland and on the Oregon coast this week. They returned on Wednesday.

Lynn Benson Chosen Homecoming Queen
A Homecoming dance became something of a victory dance Friday evening following the exciting football game between the Pirates of Riverside and the Ione Cardinals, when the Cards came out on top by a score of 20-7. The win places Ione as champions of the Umatilla-Morrow 8-man league and a contender for district championship. The dance planned by the student council was a very successful affair, with a large attendance. Committees in charge were: decorations, Connie Christopherson, Susan Lindstrom, Delores Emert, and Joe Halvorsen; refreshments, Cheryl Lundell; music, Judy Sherer and Merrie Jo Morrison.

MICHELLE KAY MORRISON, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jodie Morrison of Ione, received another title of royalty when she was chosen by the athletic department of Oregon State University to represent the school in the Campus Queen contest sponsored by Sport magazine. She was selected as one of the four finalists by the magazine, and her picture and writeup appear in the November issue of Sport, now on the newsstands. The Campus Queen winner will be chosen later in the year by the magazine. Michelle, a sophomore majoring in elementary education at Oregon State and a graduate of Ione High school, was also Miss Sport at the university during her freshman year. She was chosen as Morrow county's entry in the Miss Universe contest two years ago.

Club Elects Officers

The Lively Five 4-H club elected officers for the year at its last meeting. They are as follows: Jill Padberg, president; Leora Van Winkle, vice-president; Jeannette Ledbetter, secretary; Christine Munkers, news reporter, and Joyce Peck, activities. We set our goals for the year. We set our meetings on the first and third Saturdays of each month.

LEXINGTON, OREGON

Dear Members:

The annual meeting of this association will be held in Heppner, Oregon on Monday, November 18, beginning at 6 p. m. in the Fair Pavilion. The meeting will immediately follow a dinner at which the champion 4-H Steer will be served by the ladies of the Rhea Creek Grange. Dinner will be served promptly at 6 p. m.

Valuable door prizes will be given, some at 6 p. m. and others later. A whole 4-H steer will be divided into 10 door prizes as well as two hogs and other valuables. Come and get in on the prizes.

Three directors are to be elected, filling the places now occupied by Elmer Palmer, Walter Jacobs and E. H. Miller, Jr. Seven associate directors are also to be elected. Company policy will be discussed and such other business as may rightly come before such a meeting will be taken care of.

Come and bring your neighbors.

Sincerely,
Paul Jones, President
