

Legion, Auxiliary Host to Delegates, District Officers

Heppner's American Legion post and Auxiliary, meeting jointly Monday night at potluck supper, had one of the largest attendances in recent years with 65 members and guests present.

Among guests were Mrs. Lois Rogers of La Grande, district president of the auxiliary; Mrs. Rachel Moore of Athena, district vice-president; Roy M. Moore, also of Athena, past district commander; Mrs. John Eubanks, president of the Ione auxiliary, and several of her officers; Bill Sherman and Steve Peck, Heppner High school seniors who were delegates of the Heppner post at Boys' State in Corvallis during the summer; and the boys' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Peck.

Mrs. Frank Hamlin, Heppner auxiliary president, was in charge of the meeting, assisted by Don Munkers, post commander. Mrs. Hamlin extended greetings to all and Munkers introduced guests and new members.

Mrs. Rogers spoke briefly of district affairs and commended the Legion here in being first in the district on a membership drive. Bill Blake, adjutant of the Heppner post, told of 11 new members in the post.

Blake also introduced the Boys' State delegates. Steve told of the trip to the conference and of the daily routine and highlights. Bill showed pictures and souvenirs of the conference and told of various experiences, as well as answering questions from the audience.

Junior Legion girls assisted at the dinner by pouring coffee and helping serve. Several women of the auxiliary baked turkeys that had been furnished by the post to top the delicious potluck supper.

Rainbow to Initiate

The Order of Rainbow Girls, Ruth Assembly, No. 50 met Monday night under the direction of Rogenia Wilson, Worthy Advisor. Plans were made for initiation November 18, and also plans for a skating party to be held November 26.

MR. AND MRS. MICHAEL Y. ROGERS

Anderson-Rogers Wedding Performed In Portland Church on October 12

The marriage of Miss Carole Anne Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Anderson, Heppner, and Michael Y. Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tyler Rogers of Pleasant Grove, Utah, was solemnized on Saturday, October 12, at 2 p.m. Vows were exchanged in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in Portland, with Bishop Karl D. McAllister performing the ceremony.

Setting for the pretty fall wedding carried out the color theme of gold, orange and moss green, with standards of chrysanthemums and gladioli in orange, gold and rust colors decorating the altar.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a full length white satin gown, accented by a bow in the back and lace bodice and sleeves. A pearl tiara headdress held her short veil. She carried a bridal cascade of white carnations and ivy, and wore a pearl necklace given to her by her grandmother.

Matron of honor was Celia Bolden Marpe of Glasgow, Mont., a former high school classmate. Bridesmaids were Gayle Bagcant, Lamont, Wn., and Vicki Jo Cronin, Portland, both former college roommates of the bride. The attendants wore moss green polished cotton dresses with matching slippers. Their headpieces were of orange flowers and ivy, they carried gold fans and wore gold pins, gifts of the bride.

Flower girl was Beth Anne

Owen, cousin of the bride from Seattle, Wn. She carried a gold basket of autumn leaves and wore a dress of white polished cotton with moss green sash and matching ribbon in her hair. Ricki Anderson, brother of the bride, served as ring bearer.

Kay Rogers, brother of the groom, attended as best man. Honorary ushers were David and Doug Anderson, twin brothers of the bride, who ushered in the mothers of the bride and groom. Other ushers were Jerry Anderson, brother of the bride, Heppner, and Don Halgon of Burlington, Wn.

Soloist before the ceremony was Vic Kreimeyer, formerly of Heppner and now of Portland, who sang "One Hand, One Heart," and "I Love You Truly."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Anderson chose a beige and green dress with gold and green accessories. Mrs. Rogers, mother of the groom, wore a blue dress with bone colored accessories. Both wore yellow rosebud corsages.

The couple was greeted at a wedding reception in the church lounge. Centering the lace-covered bridal table was a three-tiered wedding cake, decorated in gold and orange and topped with miniature bride and groom. Carrying out the chosen color scheme were green candles, yellow mints and gold punch.

Cutting and serving the cake were Mrs. William Owen, aunt of the bride of Seattle, and Mrs. Bob Jones, Heppner.

Pouring was Shauna Rogers, sister of the groom. Sandra Richards, Heppner, and Barbara Lendrum, Portland, attended the gift table. Mrs. Gary Linton, sister of the bride of Monmouth, passed the guest book.

Passing wheat sachets from a gold basket was Bobette Jones, and groom's cakes also in gold basket, was Kit Anderson, brother of the bride.

For going away the new Mrs. Rogers chose an ensemble of blue and grey checked suit with matching blue mohair coat, black accessories, and wore a white rosebud corsage. They left for a wedding trip along the Oregon coast.

The newlyweds now reside at 211 N. E. 19th St., Portland. After her graduation from Heppner High school, the bride attended two years of college and is now employed as a dental assistant in Portland. The groom, a graduate from Union High school in Pleasant Grove, Utah, is now stationed in the U. S. Coast Guard in Portland.

Guests attended from Pendleton, Hillsboro, The Dalles, Pleasant Grove, Utah, Heppner, Seattle, Wn., Monmouth, Portland and Gresham. Besides parents and relatives going from Heppner were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Jones and daughter Bobette, and Mr. and Mrs. William Doherty and Billy.

Pinocle Enjoyed

Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Art Watkins two tables of pinocle were enjoyed by Mrs. Fred Mankin, Mrs. Charlie Beckett, Mrs. Orin Wright, Mrs. Hannah Anderson, Mrs. Earl Evans, Mrs. Walter Beckett, Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Ola Ruggles who filled in for Mrs. Max Harris. Winning high was Mrs. Mankin, and Mrs. Watkins was low.

Mrs. Wayne Harsin To Write Society

Mrs. Wayne (Loy) Harsin joined the Gazette-Times staff this week and will handle society writing on a part time basis. She succeeds Mrs. Howard (Jo) Pettyjohn who resigned when she and her husband bought Barratt Sales Co.

Mrs. Harsin has lived in Heppner for 10 years and is well acquainted here. Both she and her husband were born and reared in Baker. They have three children, Cindy, 11; Dallas, 10; and Kerry, 4.

The new society editor will do most of her writing at home as Mrs. Pettyjohn did in the past. Those with news of clubs, parties, church organizations, engagements, and personal and local items are asked to call her at 676-5885 on Mondays or Tuesday mornings. Deadline for society items is Tuesday, although in important cases they may be taken at the Gazette-Times office at a later time.

Secretaries or publicity chairmen of local organizations are asked to contact Mrs. Harsin so that arrangements may be made for regularly handling their publicity.

Mothers Club Hears Of Library Needs; Sees River Slides

Mrs. Kenneth Robinson was hostess to members and guests of the Heppner Mothers' club at her home on Monday evening. Assisting her was Mrs. Elmer Schmidt.

The group was informed of statistics and recent records, as well as history, of services of the Heppner Public Library by Mrs. Blanche Brown, librarian. She stressed particular need for more good books appropriated for use by small children and that gifts of books in good condition by families whose children have outgrown them are always welcomed. Donations of either books or money for purchase of new books is always accepted, she said.

A second part of the program was presented by Mrs. C. M. Wagner when she showed and discussed colored slides distributed by the Northwest Mineralogical Society library. The slides showed Indian artifacts and hieroglyphics found on cliffs and large rocks along the Columbia River. It followed closely records told in the book of Oregon history, Stone Age on the Columbia River, by Strong. Many of the Indian art works were covered by water with the building of The Dalles dam and rechanneling of much of the river.

Discussion was held on plans

Marlene Fetsch and friends, Mary Ann Thompson of Moro and Linda Hawkins of St. Helens, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Fetsch. The girls are attending Northwestern School of Commerce in Portland.

for the December Christmas meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Schmidt.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses at the close of the meeting.

Jackie Allstott Wins in Pinochle

Mary Lovgren entertained last Tuesday night with two tables of pinochle. Jackie Allstott won high for the evening with Jeanne Berry winning second high. The door prize went to Flo Connor and low was won by Judy Buschke.

Others attending were Marly's Phegley, Bonnie Buschke, and Lillian Key. Mary served a strawberry gelatin chiffon dessert.
