

Morgans Back from National Meeting

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Mr. and Mrs. Milton Morgan returned late Monday from a trip to Chicago and other midwest points. Leaving by plane last Saturday, they spent two days sight-seeing in Chicago and then left for Peoria, Ill., where they attended the second National Conference on Wheat Utilization Research held at the Hotel Pere Marquette on October 28, 29, and 30. Among sponsors of the meet were National Association of Wheat Growers and Western Wheat Associates and other participating agencies of USDA.

Outstanding speakers in the fields of agricultural economists, research chemical engineering and development, chemical and nuclear engineering (regarding the control of insect infestation in wheat), and cereal products laboratories were heard. They covered subjects on the industrial uses and milling research of wheat food uses, chemistry of wheat, and viewed the problem of foreign trade in wheat. The Morgans were very interested in a tour they made of the Northern Utilization Research and Development Division, which is one of four laboratories designed to expand, improve and develop the utilization of American farm crops through science and technology under the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This plant studied the cereal grains, the oilseeds, and new crops. Among things they saw was a very tough paper made with a ten per cent addition to the formula.

Ralph McEwen of Pendleton, director of the Oregon Wheat Commission, and Floyd Root of Moro, past National Wheat League president, were the only other Oregonians present at the conference.

After leaving Peoria, the Morgans went to Kansas City, where Mrs. Morgan saw the former home of her father, W. C. Crawford, and visited relatives. They also went to Clinton, Kansas, where relatives of Mrs. Morgan held a family reunion in her honor.

Lundell, Mrs. W. C. Crawford, Mrs. Cecil Thorne, Mrs. E. M. Baker, Mrs. Lee Palmer, Mrs. Elmer Palmer, Mrs. Clell Rea, Mrs. Garry Tullis, Mrs. G. Hermann, Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Mrs. Harold Sherer, and Mrs. Ray's daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bill Bra-shers of Lyle, Wn.

The Topic club held a successful movie night at the school cafeteria on Sunday evening. All proceeds of the affair will go to the Ione Public Library, which the club sponsors. They were assisted in serving homemade desserts after the show by Mrs. Norman Nelson, Mrs. Charles Carlson, Mrs. Verner Troedson, Mrs. Elmer Griffith, and Mrs. Paul Tews. The club wishes to thank all those who donated their help and to those attending for their fine support of the project.

Freak Accident Hurts Lady
Mrs. Lewis Ball received severe injuries from a freak accident last Monday evening. She was getting out of her car, leaving the motor running, to go back into the house for a moment, when she stumbled some way, (evidently catching hold of the gear shift as she fell), and set the car in motion. The tire ran over one leg and partially over the other, leaving some very bad abrasions and bruises. She also required five stitches on one leg, probably cut by the edge of the door as she fell.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Baker and Mrs. E. R. Lundell drove to Kennewick, Wn., Monday to attend the funeral of a cousin, Newton Markham, aged 73. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Markham, old time farmer in Clarks Canyon, where he spent his childhood. Death occurred at Kennewick on November 1 and memorial services and burial were in that city on November 4.

Room mothers and assistants helped give Halloween parties in each of the grade school rooms last Thursday. That evening there were the usual number of little goblins and witches about town for the traditional "trick or treat." No serious damage was done or pranks played on citizens this year.

Daughter Born to Kalisters
Friends here have received word from Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kalister at 1243 McKinley, Rock Springs, Wyoming, of the birth of their third child, a girl, weighing 8 pounds 6 ounces. She was born November 1 and joins a brother, Scott, and a sister, Sharon. Mrs. Kalister is the former Dorothy Dobyns, daughter of Noel Dobyns.

Jim and Merrilee Jacobs and Pat and Maureen McElligott were hosts for a Halloween barn dance on Saturday evening at the Jacobs home. Guests were the eighth and ninth graders. Janet Palmateer and Leon Magill won prizes as the outstanding "twisters."
