Eight Enjoy Cards At Home of Mrs. Key

The home of Mrs. Lillian Key was the scene of two tables of pinochle last Tuesday. Lillian had the high score for the evening and the traveling pinochle prize. In view of the fact that she was hostess, a drawing was held for the two prizes with Judy Buschke and Flo Connor being the lucky ones. Jeanne Berry won second high. Included in the fun were Bonnie Buschke, Sherrie McDaniel, Marlys Phegley, and Sharon Cutsforth. Refreshments were served throughout the evening.

Pinochle Club Meets With Mrs. Evans

The Friday afternoon pinochle club met last week at the home of Mrs. Earl Evans. Mrs. Walter Beckett won high, Mrs. Evans was low, and the pinochle was won by Mrs. Walter Beckett and Mrs. Fred Mankin. Mrs. Charlie Beckett and Mrs. Mankin stimulated some added excitement by melding 1500 trump and a 300 pinochle in the same hand. Also attending were Mrs. Art Watkins, Mrs. Oran Wright, Mrs. Hannah Anderson, and Mrs. Max Harris.

Rebekah Installation Planned for January; New Rules Discussed

A new slate of officers was elected by Sans Souci Rebekah lodge at its last meeting, November 15. Serving will be Mrs. Prudy Casebeer, noble grand; Mrs. Lucille Parish, vice grand; Mrs. Lena Kelly, recording secretary; Miss Esther Bergstrom, financial secretary, and Mrs. Nora Rasmus, treasurer. Formal installation will be held in January with Willows lodge No. 66, IOOF. Mrs. Rachel Harnett announced that plans for the Christmas party would be made at the next meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. Lena Kelly and Mrs. M. N. Kirk.

Several matters of important business were discussed at an earlier meeting on November 1. Legislation was read from the Sovereign Grand Lodge cancelling commissions of all lodge deputies in Oregon. From now on, Rebekah lodges will have only one deputy president to a district. Mrs. Kirk was commissioned by Assembly President Bartra Bagley to serve District 20 until April. At that time, Bunchgrass Rebekah lodge No. 91 will recommend the deputy president for next year's term. Mrs. Kirk reported on attending the convention of District No. 19 in Milton-Freewater, and the manner in which that district was to handle the new ruling. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Opal Cook and Mrs. Ola Ruggles. Assembly President Bartra Bagley visited Sunbeam Lodge No. 180 in Hermiston October 30. Mrs. Archie Munkers, noble grand of Holly lodge in Lexington, presented Mrs. Earl Eskelson with a 40-year veteran jewel. Although residing in Hermiston, Mrs. Eskelson retains her membership in Holly lodge.

Church Youth Form Christian Council; Driscoll President

The Christian Youth Council met for the first time November 11, at the Methodist church under the direction of the advisors, the Rev. Bill Alsop and the Rev. Charles Knox, members of the South Morrow County Ministerial Association. Seven senior high school students from different faiths represented other young people, in their own age group, of the community and surrounding area, to formulate a workable plan for regular recreational, social, and spiritual activities. Tim Driscoll was elected president for the coming year. Robert Emert was elected vice-president and Jean Stockard, secretary. The council will meet the first Monday of every month at 7:00 p.m. The next meeting place is yet to be decided upon and will be announced at a later date. Those attending the first meeting and the churches they represent are as follows: Miss Stockard, Heppner Christian church; Emert, Ione United Church of Christ; Bill Sherman, Methodist church; Don Majeske, Lutheran church; Jeanette Ledbetter, Lexington Christian church; and Driscoll, All Saints' Episcopal church.

Housewarming Party Given for Ledbetters

A group of friends dropped in to surprise Mr. and Mrs. Bergen Ledbetter with a housewarming one evening last week at their new home on the Amanda Duvall ranch in Blackhorse Canyon. Gifts were given the Ledbetters, including a large picture for their dining room. Mr. Ledbetter is foreman for Mrs. Duvall and has been employed on the Duvall ranch for over 21 years.

Present to help welcome them into their new home were Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Hedman, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rosewell, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Cox, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Van Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Ledbetter, Mr. and Mrs. Theron Adlard, Mrs. Amanda Duvall and Hank Pederson. Cake and coffee were served the guests.

Mrs. Gribble Guest At Bridal Shower

Mrs. Douglas Gribble was guest of honor at an informal morning coffee and bridal shower at the P. W. Mahoney home Tuesday. Assisting Mrs. Mahoney were Mrs. Clint McQuarrie and Mrs. Harlan McCurdy, Jr. Mrs. Gribble has been living at the home of her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Gribble, while her husband is serving with the Army Big-Lift in Germany. He is expected to return to his base in Texas in December. Many friends called during the morning, bringing best wishes and lovely gifts for Mrs. Gribble, whose marriage was an event of the late summer.

Bookworms Hosts To Ione Topic Club

Nine ladies of the Ione Topic club were guests of the Bookworms when they met last Tuesday in the Methodist church basement. Mrs. Fanny Griffith, Ione, reviewed the book "To Sir With Love," by E. R. Braithwaite. The tea table was decorated by Mrs. Harold Becket and Mrs. Don Turner, with a lovely fall arrangement carrying out a Thanksgiving motif. Coffee, tea, and cookies were served. Other ladies present representing the Bookworms were Mrs. J. O. Turner, Mrs. Ted Smith, Mrs. Cornett Green, Mrs. Jack Flug, Mrs. Jim Thompson, Mrs. Bob Abrams, and Mrs. Herman Winter. Coming from Ione were Mrs. Griffith, Mrs. Ray Lindstrom, Mrs. Victor Rietmann, Mrs. Mabel Cotter, Mrs. Omar Rietmann, Mrs. John Proudfoot, Mrs. Paul Tews, Mrs. Louis Carlson and Mrs. William E. Rawlins. Yes, the Gazette-Times can print the form you need for business or ranch use. Phone 676-9228.

Mrs. Cole Hostess At Pinochle Party

Mrs. Don Cole was hostess at a pinochle party held at her home last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Jim Sutherland won high, Mrs. Pete Glennie was low and Mrs. John Mollahan won the pinochle. Mrs. Calvin Sherman made a delicious lemon chiffon pie that was served with coffee for refreshments. Mrs. Larry Fetsch, Mrs. Terry Thompson, and Mrs. David Eckman were also present.
