

Carl Troedson Elected Willows Grange Head

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—Willows Grange members and their families met at the hall for a pancake supper Saturday evening with the Grange meeting following.

Some time was devoted to discussing the work involved in finishing the basement. Prices of various kinds of finish material were quoted. It was decided to delay actual work until late fall farm work was finished.

The following officers were elected by ballot: Master, Carl Troedson; overseer, Marion Palmer; lecturer, Mrs. Harvey Ring; steward, Wallace Matthews; assistant steward, Lee Palmer; chaplain, Mrs. W. C. Crawford; treasurer, Mrs. James Halverson; secretary, Mrs. Lewis Halverson; gate keeper, W. C. Crawford; Ceres, Mrs. Marion Palmer; Pomona, Mrs. Cleo Childers; Flora, Mrs. Arthur Dalzell; lady assistant steward, Mrs. Berl Akers; executive committee, Oscar Lundell, Berl Akers, and Arthur Dalzell.

Berl Akers, who has served as Grange Master for 1962-63 was elected Pomona Master for the 1963-64 term. Berl also was recently appointed Grange Insurance Agent by the State Board. Any Grange member interested in learning more about home, automobile, or crop insurance may contact him.

Installation services for Pomona and the five subordinate granges will be held December 14 at Willows Grange hall in Ione. This will be an all day meeting convening at 10 a.m. with a pot luck dinner at noon. The public is invited to attend the installation services in the afternoon.

Announcements of interest to farmers were the two meetings on Monday and Tuesday, Morrow County Grain Growers in Heppner on Monday, and Wheat League on Tuesday at Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Heimbigner spent Friday in Portland on business. Mrs. Milton Morgan accompanied them home on Friday evening. She and Mr. Morgan had spent two days in Portland and he remained to attend some of the Farm Bureau meetings in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Akers and Danny have returned from Portland where Danny received a medical check-up.

Special Service Planned
A special Thanksgiving service will be held at the United Church of Christ on Thanksgiving morning at 10:00. This will be a short family worship and everyone is urged to attend.

Mrs. Della M. Corson was taken to Pioneer Memorial hospital by ambulance last Wednesday. She has been suffering for some time from a painful back injury caused from a fall.

Bob Drake is on a vacation in California. His place at the garage has been filled by Garry Tullis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Baker drove to Hermiston Sunday to attend the baptism at the Methodist church there of their newest granddaughter, Suzanne Thea, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Baker.

Three Earn 4.0 Grades at Ione; 12 on Honor Roll

Three Ione High school students achieved perfect 4.0 grades during the first nine weeks period and topped the school's honor roll. Gene Harryman, principal, announces. They are Tom Heimbigner, senior; Cheryl Lundell, junior; and Cheryl Smouse, sophomore.

In all, 12 students made the honor roll with grade point average of 3.25 or above and eight others had honorable mention with 3.00 to 3.25.

Seniors topped the classes with six honor students, including Heimbigner, 4.0; Steve Lindstrom, 3.60; Arleta McCabe, 3.60; Merrie Jo Morrison, 3.60; Judy Sherer, 3.60; and Cheryl Corley, 3.50.

Only junior on the roll was Miss Lundell, 4.0.

Two sophomores included Miss Smouse, 4.0, and Karen Hams, 3.80.

Completing the list were three freshmen, Deniece Matthews, 3.83; Berniece Matthews, 3.66; and Karen Nelson, 3.50.

Attaining honorable mention were: Seniors, Delores Emert, 3.0; Lynn Benson, 3.0. Juniors, Sidney Zinter, 3.20; David McBath, 3.0; and Lee O'Connor, 3.0. Sophomore, Mark Halverson, 3.20. Freshmen, Bonnie Hynds, 3.16; and Jerry Stefani, 3.00.

Help to Missions Is Christmas Goal Of Maranatha Club

IONE—Maranatha club of Ione United Church of Christ met at the home of Mrs. Clell Rea with Mrs. Garry Tullis as co-hostess. The meeting was opened with devotions led by Mrs. E. Markham Baker. Her theme was "Take Time to be Holy." Spiritual growth was recommended through study of inspirational and spiritual literature.

Mrs. Walter Crowell expressed sincere thanks to all for the courtesies extended to her and the Rev. Crowell on the day of his installation, for the coffee hour, hospitality, and for the dinner served at the school cafeteria to more than a hundred guests.

More than 400 pounds of clothing were shipped to Vancouver, Wn., to be used for missions. In reference to missions the Maranathas went on record as favoring the idea of giving up the custom of sending Christmas cards to local friends. General feeling was that money saved from postage and the cost of cards would help much in mission work and at the same time, rush hours of the holiday season at the post office would be relieved.

Any money saved from postage and cards may be placed in an envelope with sender's name and placed in collection on Sundays or sent directly to Mrs. Walter Crowell, Ione. They feel that greetings in person, a telephone call, a home visit, or a hand shake at church will express better than any card a Merry Christmas wish, and cheer for a Happy New Year.

A luncheon for the Woman's Fellowship is planned for December 12 at the church social rooms. All women of the community interested in the church are cordially invited to a pot-luck dinner at noon and to bring their pre-school children. A program is planned for the afternoon.

Rainbow Reception Honors Two Grand Assembly Officers

IONE—Ione Assembly No. 89, International Order of Rainbow for Girls, held a public reception on Sunday afternoon at the Masonic hall honoring Merrie Jo Morrison, grand representative of Canada, and Sue Townsend, 1963 grand choir member. Special guests present were Mrs. Harold Becket of Heppner, district deputy of Rainbow; Rogenia Wilson, worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly in Heppner, and Mrs. James Myers, mother advisor of Ruth Assembly. A good crowd attended.

Lee O'Connor, worthy advisor, was in charge of the program which consisted of an addenda honoring the girls by all the officers. They were presented a bouquet of rainbow hued artificial flowers and a gold charm. Cheryl Smouse played "You'll Never Walk Alone" followed by a skit presented by Joyce and Dixie Peck. Terri O'Connor played a piano solo and there were talks by several members of the assembly. Terry accompanied Bonnie Morgan, Teresa Tucker, Teresa Stefani, Bonnie Akers, and Linda Nichols while they sang two numbers.

Mothers of the honored members, Mrs. Jodie Morrison and Mrs. Hershall Townsend, poured from a tea table decorated in rainbow colors. A lovely decorated cake was the center of attention. Punch, tea and coffee were served.

Garden Club Hears Of Special Holiday Decorating Ideas

IONE—The Ione Garden club met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Crum on November 12. Mrs. Crum was assisted by Mrs. Elmer Griffith and Mrs. Oscar Lundell. The roll call was answered by recalling a favorite or best remembered Thanksgiving dinner or gathering.

Mrs. F. T. Martin, bird chair man, made an interesting report on the blue jay.

The theme for the program was "Special Decorations for Holidays," with Mrs. G. Hermann as speaker. Mrs. Hermann spoke briefly on the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays stating that decorations are much the same throughout the United States. Her emphasis was placed on Easter and its significance. For unusual decorations, she showed decorated eggs which she had made. Glass nest eggs were used. Forming a foundation so that the eggs would stand on end, were 3/4 or 1 inch plastic rings glued on the egg, using a transparent glue.

Decorations consisted of tiny flowers, bits of lace, ribbons, tiny buttons, and old jewels. The fancy little eggs could make lovely favors as well as centerpieces for a festive Easter dinner, with larger eggs made very attractively from styrofoam. Mrs. Martin was appointed as correspondent for the Oregon Newsletter published by the National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc.

Mrs. Griffith will take subscriptions for the magazine "Horticulture," a fine garden-type magazine full of information, with many beautiful illustrations and Christmas gift suggestions.

The street tree planning committee reported that little work can be done until more pipeline has been replaced, other than care for the trees which have been planted until they are old enough to care for themselves. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Omar Rietmann for a social affair with the recreation committee in charge of the program "Pause for Living."
