

Ione News

Dr. and Mrs. John Bartell of Portland were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gottfried Hermann. Also visiting at the Hermann home were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Crawford and family of La Grande.

Daughter Born to Larsons

Relatives here have received word of the birth of a baby daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Larson of Portland. The baby has been named Nancy Lauren and joins another girl in the family. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jensen of Ione.

Mr. and Mrs. L. N. Herrick spent the week-end in Portland visiting his mother, who has been very ill. Their son, Chuck, spent the time as guest of his friend, Jim Swanson.

Monday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Holtz were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Wolkemauer and family of Grandview, Wn.

State Delegates to Speak

The Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring a potluck dinner at 6:45 on Tuesday, December 3, at the hall. Guests invited are the Legion and their families and the Lions club members and their families. Special guests will be Deloris Emert and Arleta McCabe, who attended Girls' State last June and Stephen Lindstrom, who went to Boys' State. The young people will make their reports at this time. Auxiliary members are also reminded to bring their gifts for men or women at the state hospital in Pendleton to the dinner, so they can be ready in time for Christmas delivery.

Mrs. E. C. Heilker returned last Monday from an extended visit in Seattle at the home of her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Bolman. Mrs. Bolman accompanied her home and will remain until after the Thanksgiving holiday.

Mrs. Frances Mitchell of Portland spent the week-end with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Griffith and family and also visited relatives in Heppner.

Sunday dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McCabe and Arleta were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eubanks and Leonard of Arlington, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie McCabe and family of Heppner, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ingalls of Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lundell and Cheryl, and Mrs. Lonnie McCabe, Doris and Christine of Ione.

Town Joins in Mourning

Memorial services for the late President John F. Kennedy were held at the Ione United Church of Christ on Sunday evening and the church was open for meditation and prayer all day Monday. Schools, stores and other places of business were all closed on Monday as this town joined the nation in a day of national mourning.

Robert Drake returned Sunday evening from a two week's vacation. He drove to San Francisco via Reno and Lake Tahoe. From there he flew to Los Angeles and to Las Vegas and back to San Francisco, where he picked up his car and drove home, stopping in Eugene to visit his sister, Mrs. Ray Turner and family, and in Portland at the home of his cousin, Bill Lundell and family. While in Los Angeles, he was a guest of John Peterson. He also enjoyed seeing the Oregon State-USC game and the University of Washington-California game.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Englemann enjoyed spending several days in Portland attending the Co-op convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, worthy patron and worthy matron of Locust Chapter, OES, Mrs. Roy W. Lindstrom, member of the credential's committee of Eastern Star Grand Chapter, and Mrs. James Lindsay drove to Heppner Monday night to attend Friendship Night at Ruth Chapter No. 32.

Kinzua News

By VIRGINIA KELSO

KINZUA—Mr. and Mrs. Clay Phillips were business visitors to Heppner Thursday.

Joe Bowman celebrated his 14th birthday Monday evening with a wiener roast at his home. Those helping Joe celebrate were the members of his eighth grade class.

Mr. and Mrs. George Smith went to Arlington Tuesday to meet their son Bill who had recently been discharged from a tour of duty with the U. S. Army. Bill has spent the past three years in Germany.

The Doubledeck pinocle club met Wednesday evening at Jefferson Hall with Mrs. Marilyn Bailey as hostess to the group. High score for the evening was held by Margie Ball, low by May Bell, and the floating prizes by Margaret McConnell and Virginia Kelso. At a late hour angel cake, strawberries and cream were served to the prize winners and Vi Slinkard, Bonnie Campbell, Evelyn Smith, Virginia Sitton, Vonnie Browning, Kathryn Flack and Marge Boring.

Mr. and Mrs. Milo Prindle went to Portland Sunday where Mr. Prindle entered Good Samaritan hospital to spend several days in traction.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Bell and family went to Portland early Saturday to spend the week-end. Also going to Portland early Saturday for shopping were Mr. and Mrs. Verlin Conner and family.

Mrs. Don Slinkard and Mrs. Howard Rice and children were in The Dalles Saturday for business and shopping.

Spending the week-end in Portland were Mr. and Mrs. Alan Gullin. They had planned to attend the Oregon-Oregon State game at Eugene on Saturday but this has been postponed for a week.

The auxiliary card club had its regular session Friday evening with Mrs. Arlene Schroeder as hostess to the group. High for bridge was won by Dru Huck with pinocle prizes going to Evelyn Smith for high and floating to Pat Hyatt for low. Others enjoying this evening were Lily May Nistad, Virginia Kelso, Virginia Sitton, Margaret McConnell, Marge Boring, LaVelle Jellick, Marie Wall, and Meridel Wham.

Mrs. Harvey Spivey took Roy Blevins to Heppner Tuesday for medical attention.

Mrs. Marie Rhoton and Mrs. Marie Hullett were business visitors to Pilot Rock on Wednesday.

Mrs. Ralph James and Mrs. Earl Norris were in Heppner and Condon Friday for business, shopping and medical care for Mrs. James.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Sharp went to Athena Friday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Homer Grogan.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF TRAVEL ORGANIZATIONS 1963 top award for intra-state advertising was presented to Oregon State Highway Department last week in San Francisco. Charles Thorn (left), vice president of Popular Science magazine and chairman of the NATO awards committee, presents award to Jack L. Sugg, vice president of Cole and Weber, Inc., the Portland advertising agency which creates the Highway Department's advertising.

Court Reigns Over Carnival At Riverside

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—Toni Olin, Riverside High school sophomore, was crowned queen of the school carnival Friday night. She was presented with a bouquet, Susan McCoy, senior, was named first princess, and received a corsage. Other princesses were Linda Senn, freshman, and Shirley Jackson, junior. Allyn Hobbs, student body president, crowned the queen. Her escort was Richard Summers, other escorts were Tom Parsons, senior; John Lathrop, junior; Chester Phillips, freshman.

A good crowd attended the carnival. Door prizes were won by Mrs. Andrew Skiles, Irrigon, who won the electric toaster; and John Summers, Boardman, the coffee maker. There were also seventeen other drawings for prizes.

Greenfield grange held a Booster Night pinocle party Thursday night at the grange hall. Mrs. Glen Carpenter and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer were hostesses. Prizes were won by Mrs. Peter Matz and Otto Munger, high; Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Thorpe, low; and Mrs. Thorpe and Munger, the pinocle prizes.

Honor Roll Announced

The honor roll for the first nine weeks at Riverside High school is as follows: A-roll—4.0 to 3.8: seniors Sharon Donovan 4.0, Elnora Eppenbach 3.8, Susan McCoy 3.6; juniors Terry McCoy 3.8, Roy Obermeier 3.8, Lyle Hobbs 3.8; sophomores Charles Jackson 3.8, B-roll—3.5 to 3.0: seniors Kathleen McGinnes 3.2, Jean Gille 3.2, Allyn Hobbs 3.1, Leonard Bedord 3.0, Pat Miller 3.0, Vivian Templeton 3.0, Sheryl Witherspoon 3.0; juniors Edmona Jones 3.5, John Lathrop 3.5, Devana West 3.3, Anna Mae McQuaw 3.2, Jenniece McElroy 3.2, Dick Skoubo 3.0, Barbara McCorkle 3.1; sophomores Mike Smith 3.4, Penny Fossey 3.2, Glenn Schmeder 3.0, Richard Summers 3.0; freshmen Francell Walker 3.4, Pat Davis 3.2, Debbie Dillon 3.2, Shirley Dixon 3.2, Mike Partlow 3.2.

Unit Has Management Study

The Boardman Home Extension Unit met at the home of Mrs. H. M. Walker Tuesday of last week at 10:30 a.m. Mrs. Bernard Donovan was co-hostess. In keeping with the forthcoming holiday season, leaders Mrs. Russell Miller and Mrs. John Summers pointed out that some people get more out of life even with limited money and time. In this project, "The Twelve Days of Christmas," best use of skills and knowledge as well as money and time were considered.

Members learned the same five steps to problem solving commonly used by business management experts. These were applied to their own household projects and holiday "crash" programs.

Christmas gifts for the state hospital at Pendleton are to be turned in at the grange hall by November 26.

Mrs. Stan Hinkle gave a report on the Mosaic workshop held recently.

Next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Russell Miller December 10, with Mrs. Don Downey as co-hostess. Subject will be "Wise Choice of Home Furnishings" with Mrs. Ronald Black and Mrs. Dewey West as leaders.

Mrs. Walter Hayes was hostess for the Boardman Garden club Monday of last week at her home with Mrs. Rollin Bishop as co-hostess. Roll call was answered by telling what each was planning for Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Arthur Allen spoke on the care of roses for the winter. Mrs. Hayes read a poem, "The Difference."

Gifts for the state hospital in Pendleton are to be in by December 10.

The next meeting will be the annual Christmas party December 16, the place to be announced later.

Mrs. Louise Earwood has been in Estacada the past week visiting at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Calif.

Mrs. Earl Briggs returned home Thursday from the Umatilla hospital, where she was a patient for five weeks. Her condition is much improved. On her return she had as visitors her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kidder of Peace River, Alta., Can. Janice Thorpe of Hermiston is spending the week-end at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hamilton.

Cafeteria menus for Riverside High school and Boardman Grade school for the week of December 2-6 are as follows: Monday—meat loaf, mashed potatoes with butter, spinach and fruit; Tuesday—toasted cheese sandwiches, buttered corn, vegetable sticks, tomatoes and cake; Wednesday—hamburgers, potato chips, pickles, buttered carrots and Jell-O fruit salad; Thursday—scalloped potatoes with ham, green beans, bread and butter sandwiches, celery sticks and pudding; Friday—egg salad sandwiches, baked potatoes, asparagus and fruit. Bread, butter and milk are served with all meals.

KEEP FREEDOM RINGING

BUY U.S. SAVINGS BONDS

SIRES - ANDERSON

BULL SALE

Dec. 4 WEDNESDAY 1:00 p. m.

At Highway 30 Hereford Ranch

Uniform offering of Big, Rugged Beefy Bulls of dependable quality, pasture raised.

Ernest Sires | Frank Anderson
Echo, Oregon | Heppner, Oregon

Irrigon Churches Hold Memorial

By LAVELLE PARTLOW

IRRIGON—A service in memory to the late President Kennedy was held at the Irrigon Baptist church Monday at 12:00 noon. Special music was rendered by Misses Elora and Janice Marlow, who sang a duet, and a trio by Mrs. Kenneth Eppenbaugh, Mrs. George Hash and daughter Georgene. Rev. George Hash, pastor of the church, gave the sermon.

Members of the Assembly of God church met for prayer at the church Monday at 10:00 a.m. and again at 1:00 p.m. Rev. John Kenney, pastor, presided over the morning service, and Harvey Warner presided over the afternoon service, as Rev. Kenney had to leave town to attend a Presbyterian meeting in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCoy and Debbie and Mrs. Ruth McCoy drove to Walla Walla Saturday and visited Mrs. Doshia Brownell, sister of Mrs. Ruth McCoy, who recently broke her hip in a fall, and was confined at St. Mary's hospital. They also visited Gary Graybeal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Graybeal, who was in the hospital convalescing from an appendectomy.

Ormand Lesley is still a patient at Good Shepherd hospital but is making satisfactory progress.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Partlow and Sheryl and Mrs. Myrtle Markham drove to Portland Saturday and visited Mr. and Mrs. Jay Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Russell McCoy and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Rosencrans and Dianna. They returned to Irrigon Saturday night.

Attend Leaders Meeting

Mrs. Warren McCoy and Mrs. Dean Acock attended a Project Leaders Home Extension meeting in Lexington on Thursday with the subject for the day, "Knowing your Furniture." Following the workday, the ladies drove to Heppner and visited a furniture store. "Knowing your Furniture" will be the topic for the Ladies Home Extension meeting which will be held December 12, 10:30 a.m., in the old Irrigon school.

Miss Toni Olin was crowned queen of the Riverside High school carnival Saturday evening, with Miss Susan McCoy runner-up. The other princesses were Misses Shirley Jackson and Linda Senn.

David R. Weaver of Ashland spent the Thanksgiving week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Weaver. Also with the Weavers for the week-end were Mr. and Mrs. L. K. Ferguson of Silverton. Mrs. Ferguson is the Weavers' daughter.

The Ladies' Auxiliary No. 379 of the Columbia River Barracks World War I Veterans met in the basement of the old Irrigon school Tuesday, for a work day. The ladies tied four afghans and cut and sewed blocks for additional afghans. The completed afghans are sent to some of the Veteran's hospitals and are used for wheel chair patients. Those attending the work day meeting were: Mrs. Ernest Stephens, Mrs. Rees Morgan, Mrs. G. C. Weaver and Mrs. Fred Hoadley of Irrigon, and Mrs. Mel Acton and Mrs. Ernest Glette from Hermiston. The Ladies Auxiliary would welcome any donation of used wool pieces and cotton materials for tearing rug rags.

Mrs. Roy Davis brought her daughter, Patsy, home from St. Mary's hospital in Walla Walla Wednesday afternoon. Patsy will be convalescing at her home for an indefinite period of time.

Mrs. Blanche Battrick of La Grande has been visiting her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gugle, and helping to care for Mrs. Gugle, who has been convalescing from pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Gugle took Mrs. Battrick to her home in La Grande over the week-end.

Misses Barbara Davis and Sandra Creamer, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Davis and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Creamer, have been selected as yell leaders at Blue Mountain College, along with Miss Barbara Peret of Umatilla. The two Barbaras tied for yell queen.

Mrs. Marguerite Houghton spent Friday through Monday visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Houghton and family of Portland. While she was in Portland, the group attended a swim meet at Parkrose on Saturday in which Mrs. Houghton's grandson, Don Houghton, competed and qualified for the State meet.

Roger Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Houston Jackson, who sustained serious injury when struck in the right eye by a car radio aerial, was discharged from the Pendleton Community Memorial hospital Wednesday. Mrs. Roger is permitted to return to school, but must avoid participating in any sports activities. Mrs. Bill Graybeal left for Salem by bus Monday to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Allen and family. After spending Monday and Tuesday in Salem, Mrs. Graybeal and the Allens drove to Camas to attend the funeral of Mrs. Graybeal's aunt, Mrs. Mabel Hoyt. From Camas, Allens drove Mrs. Graybeal back to Irrigon, and remained in Irrigon for the Thanksgiving week-end.

PTA Hears School Panel

An interesting and informative panel discussion was held at A. C. Houghton PTA Monday evening, November 18. Mrs. Warren McCoy, PTA president, presided over the meeting and business session, and introduced the panel which was comprised of the following A. C. Houghton teachers: Mick Tolar, principal; Mrs. Ellen Caudle, 3rd grade teacher; Mrs. Helen Stitzel, 4th grade teacher, and Mrs. Robert Smith, 7th grade teacher. Mrs. Delbert Partlow served as moderator. The teachers answered questions concerning various school activities, including the value of sports, programs, and homework. Following this panel, Mrs. Al Reeves moderated for a panel concerning kindergarten problems, with Mrs. Morland, Kindergarten teacher, and Mrs. Leon Bentley, 1st grade teacher, answering the questions.

The Umatilla Electric Co-op Ass'n, has completed installation of 10 street lights through the City of Irrigon, as per agreement between the Co-op and the city. The lights burn automatically from dusk until dawn, and provide an ample amount of light through the area in which they are placed.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Stewart, Sharon and Tommy drove to La Grande Sunday evening, to spend Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Reeder and Mrs. Doris Courtney and children.

We Are The Authorized Dealer For The GOOLEY HARROW We also have two good used GOOLEYS for sale

NOW is the time to overhaul your tractor and equipment for the coming season. BE READY.

See Us For An Estimate

All Work Guaranteed

PADBERG MACHINERY CO.

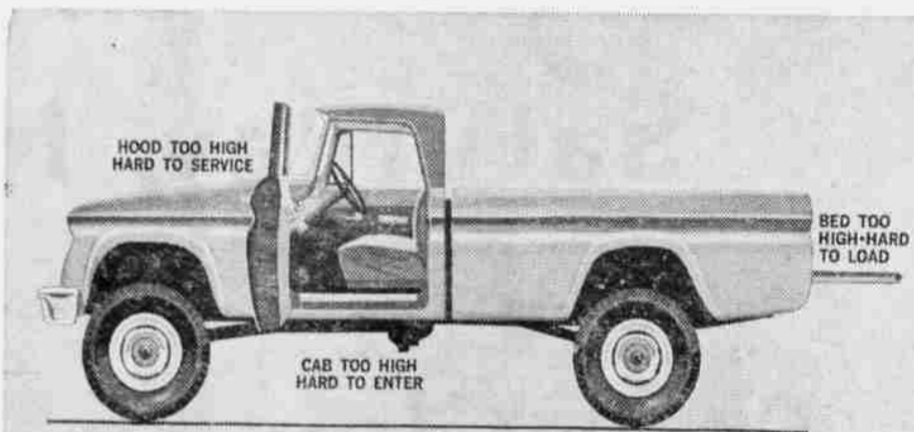

Ph. 989-8145

Lexington, Ore.

ALLIS-CHALMERS

MASSEY FERGUSON

Before you buy 4-wheel drive ...

Other 4-wheel drive pickup trucks compare!

New 'Jeep' Gladiator 4-wheel drive pickup

KAISER Jeep CORPORATION Toledo 1, Ohio
WORLD'S LARGEST MANUFACTURER OF 4-WHEEL DRIVE VEHICLES

Farley Motor Co.
HEPPNER, OREGON

See 'Jeep' vehicles in action in "THE GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH" (Tues., 9 p.m. Ch. 25)

Yes, Amazing!

MOORE REGISTERS REGISTER FORMS AND ACCESSORIES

- PORTABLE
- DELUXE
- UTILITY
- BILLER
- POCKET REGISTER
- CASH DRAWER COMBINATIONS

MOORE REGISTERS AND FORMS FOR EVERY FORM OF BUSINESS

GAZETTE - TIMES

BATTERY TROUBLE? SEE FORD TIRE SERVICE FOR ALL YOUR Farm and Commercial BATTERY NEEDS

We Have The All New HEAVY DUTY ARMOR PLATE Truck and Tractor Commercial Battery GROUP 1-H.D.A.P. (145 amp) AS LOW AS $16.75 CORE EXCHANGE Most All Sizes In Stock FORD'S TIRE SERVICE

N. Main PH. 676-9481 Heppner

Sires - Anderson BULL SALE Dec. 4 WEDNESDAY 1:00 p. m. At Highway 30 Hereford Ranch 60 Bulls Uniform offering of Big, Rugged Beefy Bulls of dependable quality, pasture raised.

Ernest Sires | Frank Anderson
Echo, Oregon | Heppner, Oregon