

Hardman Folk Observe Holiday

By CHARLOTTE WALKER

HARDMAN, RHEA CREEK — Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davis and children of Genesee, Idaho, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil McDaniel and family overnight Wednesday. Mr. Davis is a brother to Mrs. McDaniel. Thursday morning they all drove to Lone Rock to spend the day at the homes of relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davis returned to Idaho Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright went to Portland over the weekend, where they visited her brother, Hugh Jackson and family.

Recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Howell of Monument, Mrs. Ollie Howell and boys, and Mrs. Georgia Fletcher and girls of Spray.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hams drove to Lone Thursday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Hams and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Steiger and family of Portland spent the holidays visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Ball, and at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hall. Archie Ball, Jr., was also home on Thanksgiving vacation from Pendleton where he attends Blue Mountain College.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Stevens and JoJean drove to Pendleton Thursday morning to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brenda.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel went to Heppner Thursday afternoon and visited several relatives and friends. They had supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cary Hastings.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Woolly and boys of Portland visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Huston Lesley for a few days. They returned to their home Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright and Mrs. Evelyn Farrens went to Arlington to spend Thanksgiving to the Don Anderson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Clark entertained her folks, Father and Mrs. Bruce Spencer of Heppner for Thanksgiving dinner.

Tommy Mahan, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Sam McDaniel is here for a few days. He is stationed at San Diego, Calif., and as soon as his leave is over he returns to his ship and will go overseas. His home is in La Grande and he is the son of Mrs. Maxine Mahan.

Mr. and Mrs. Barton Clark left about two weeks ago for Hawaii on a sight seeing vacation tour. They are expected home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stream of Portland were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Van Blokland Thursday. Also home from school at La Grande was Gary Van Blokland.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Robinson went to Walla Walla recently to attend the funeral services for Benny Stanton. He left several relatives in this area.

Miss Loretta Kay Cecil of Walla Walla visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Cecil over the holidays. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin.

Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel and Cassie went to Condon on Saturday.

Dinner guests Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Estle Walker were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Walker, Mrs. Betty Gentry, Bob and Delores of Pendleton and Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Chapel and Cassie.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevens went to Heppner to the home of John and Alta Stevens for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Palmer served dinner Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Marion Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Palmer and children.

Brette and Patty Howell visited Bonnie Kessell Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Robinson motored to Heppner to have Thanksgiving dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Batty and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wright had as dinner guests Thanksgiving Day, Mrs. Mary Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright and Kenny and Lou Bisbee.

Livestock Club Meets At Doherty Home

December meeting of the Blackhorse Livestock club was called to order by President Maureen Doherty at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Doherty. Flag pledges were led by Michelle Miller and Nancy Campbell. Secretary Jim Bloodsworth read the minutes and they were approved. Under new business, advancement programs were handed out and discussed. Four-H club goals were read and marked. The meeting was adjourned and slides were shown on the parts of swine, beef, sheep and dairy. At the January meeting a test will be given over this material. Our recreational game was called Buzz.

The next meeting will be on January 5, at the Bloodsworth home.

Guests were Davie Campbell and Kyle Robinson.

Nancy Doherty, reporter

Nels Anderson Back

County Agent Nels Anderson returned to his office Monday after being confined at home for a week with a tonsil infection. However, he was still feeling weak from the illness. He had planned to attend the Oregon Wheat League annual meeting in Portland this week but has decided that he must miss the meeting.

Examiner Coming

A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Heppner Tuesday, December 10, at the courthouse between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m., according to an announcement received from the Department of Motor Vehicles of Oregon. Persons wishing original licenses or permits to drive are asked to file applications well ahead of the scheduled closing hour in order to assure time for completion of the required license test.

Work on Projects

Darlene Warren was hostess to the Ruralettes 4-H club on November 13. Some of the girls had finished their head scarves and were very pretty. Mrs. Roland Bergstrom, our leader, explained in detail how to measure and mark the material for our aprons. Cheri Carlson gave a very interesting demonstration on cleaning and polishing white shoes. Visitors present were Mrs. Louis Carlson, Mrs. Sid Zinter and Mrs. Art Warren.

Julie Zinter, reporter

Department Holds Speech Clinic

The Morrow county health department and the Morrow county school district cooperated in conducting a diagnostic speech clinic held for students of Morrow county schools on November 23 at Heppner Elementary school and Lone Elementary school.

Ernest H. Cristler, Jr., director of special education in the Umatilla county schools, directed the clinic. He was assisted by Jack Kesling, speech therapist, and Duane Plyter. Saturday's clinic was held to study children with speech defects, to explain to the teacher and parents of such children what can be done to help the child overcome such defects, and to work out a program for each child.

There were 14 pupils who were referred by their teachers. The parents and respective teachers attended the clinic with the

See Demonstration On Animal Clipping

Members of the Hoof and Horn 4-H Livestock club watched and later took part in a demonstration on how to clip and show a dairy animal. The demonstration was given by Gwen and Alfred Drake at the meeting November 24 at the home of Doug Drake. Advancement programs were also given. Just before refreshments, a few games were played.

The next meeting is December 15 at the home of Don Greenup at 1:30 p.m. Members are to bring from 8 to 10 feet of quarter-inch rope. They are also to bring pencil and paper for the advancement tests.

Larry Pettyjohn, reporter

Homemakers Love ED!

ELECTRIC DISHWASHING Keeps Wives Happy—Get ED for Your Home!

Today's Electric Dishwashers free you from the drudgery of dishwashing. Built-ins or portables, ED takes over dishwashing and drying completely and saves, saves, SAVES every step of the way:

SAVES TIME—Up to 10 hours weekly for things you like to do.

SAVES WORK—No pre-rinsing. Does dishes, glassware, silver, pots and pans.

SAVES HEALTH—Uses water far hotter than hands can stand . . . cleans hygienically.

SAVES HANDS—No rough, red dishpan hands; no ruined manicures.

SAVES BREAKAGE—Fine china and crystal are safe. No slipping out of soapy hands or banging against faucet.

SAVES HOT WATER—Most dishwashers are large enough to do the average family's dishes on a once-a-day basis.

ASK YOUR APPLIANCE DEALER TO INTRODUCE YOU TO ED

It's love at first sight when you see the makes and models, styles and colors of today's Electric Dishwashers! There's one to meet your needs and budget. Buy it now and discover why electric living is really living.

Your wife loves you,
but she loves
ED, too!

Another BIG electric service value from
PACIFIC POWER & LIGHT