Firemen Called to McBath Home; Lone Folks Mark Thanksgiving

By KATHERINE LINDSTROM

IONE—The Lone Volunteer Fire Department was called out about noon Monday to the home of Mr. and Mrs. David McBath, where a smoldering fire in the flue was sending smoke through the house and attic.

Mr. and Mrs. McBath had been away from home since Thursday, but a fire had been started Monday morning by her mother, Mrs. Bill Nichols, to warm the house. She had checked the fire at mid-morning and it was out. No major damage, other than smoke and water, was done. The McBaths spent the holiday week-end at Grass Valley.

Eldon Madden left on Wednesday for Walla Walla, where he is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Sam Leosis.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Crum and family on Thanksgiving Day were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Strahm, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Strahm and family and Mr. Crum's mother, Mrs. Grace Crum and Miss Charlotte Crum of The Dalles. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Crum and family of Washougal, Wn., Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Acton of Hermiston, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Hinker and family of Woodburn, Jack Crum of Portland State, Bob Crum of Pendleton, Mr. and Mrs. Roger Peterson and family, and Mike Coultus of Ione.

Week-end guests arriving on Friday at the Crum home were roommates of Jack's, Larry Kegley and Warner Allen of Portland State College.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Connor and daughters spent Saturday and Sunday at Pendleton. On Sunday Mrs. O'Connor attended a regional meeting of the National Association of Postmasters. Key speaker was Joe Kerr, regional officer.

Mr. and Mrs. Vester Hams entertained the following guests on Thanksgiving Day: Mrs. Ham's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bothwell; her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Marlatt and girls of Heppner; her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wade Bothwell of Lexington, and their son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hams and son of La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Akers of Corvallis, where he attends Oregon State, and Bill Akers, a student at Lewis and Clark College, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Akers. Guests of the Akers on Friday were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Peck of Pendleton.

...another important reason to bank at First National!

Webster's Dictionary says that convenience is "freedom from difficulty, discomfort or trouble." Mr. Webster was not one of our depositors, but he could well have had First National service in mind when he wrote his definition.

Everything about First National banking has been planned with your convenience in mind. Nearly 100 branches throughout Oregon, most of them right where people live, work or shop, make it easy for you to get cash, make deposits, or arrange a loan.

Free parking at most locations, drive-in banking, complete banking service—all these and easier-to-read checking account statements, too—have been designed to make it easier for you to enjoy the satisfaction and satisfaction of First National service.
