Marriage Date Set For Lundell-Stack Wedding in Portland

The marriage of Miss Karen Rae Lundell to Francis Paul Stack will be an event of Saturday, December 28, at St. James Lutheran church, 1315 S. W. Park Ave. in Portland. Vows will be exchanged at 2:00 p.m.

The family takes this means of extending a cordial invitation to all friends and relatives in the area to attend the ceremony and reception which will follow in the church social rooms.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond W. Lundell, Ione. Parents of Mr. Stack are Mr. and Mrs. Bertrand Stack of Big Sandy, Mont. Both young people are students at Pacific Lutheran college in Tacoma, Wn., where they are enrolled in pre-medical courses. They will return to college after the wedding to complete their senior year.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamlin returned Tuesday from a week's visit in Gresham at the home of Mr. Hamlin's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Van Donnick and with many former friends there. The Hamlins expect to leave next week on a trip to California and Arizona to spend several weeks with friends and relatives.

Pinocle, Bridge Parties Enjoyed In Week's Play

Mrs. Clint Agee entertained two card clubs with four tables of bridge in her home Monday evening. Winning high for one card club was Mrs. Marshall Lovgren, and Mrs. Gordon Pratt was high for the other. Second high for the entire group was Mrs. Wayne Prock, Mrs. Arnie Hedman was low, and Mrs. Don McClure won the traveling prize.

Others attending were Mrs. Jim Gordon, Mrs. Fred Gimbel, Mrs. Gerald Jonasson, Mrs. David McLeod, Mrs. Pat O'Brien, Mrs. Ribley Munkers, Mrs. Jerry Schubert and Mrs. Terry Thompson.

Coffee and cookies were enjoyed throughout the evening.

Mrs. Elmer Berry was hostess at a pinocle party held in her home last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Morgan Connor won high, Mrs. Stacey Lovgren was second, and Mrs. Don Munkers was low. The door prize was won by Mrs. Bob Buschke.

Others enjoying the evening of cards and refreshments of coffee and pineapple upsidedown cake were Mrs. Clyde Ailstott, Mrs. Kenneth Cutsforth, and Mrs. Ivan McDaniel.

All eight club members were present for two tables of pinocle Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Hannah Anderson. Winning high was Mrs. Charlie Beckett and Mrs. Max Harris had low score. Mrs. Art Watkins and Mrs. Charlie Beckett joined forces to win the pinocle prize.

Members completing the group were Mrs. Fred Mankin, Mrs.

Masons Slate Film For Tuesday Meeting

All Masons in the Heppner area are urged to attend the showing of the Carl H. Claudy film next Tuesday evening, December 17, according to Clarence Baker, master of Heppner Lodge No. 69.

The film covers a lecture by Claudy, one of the best authorities on Masonic science. It will be viewed at 9:00 p.m. after the regular communication at the Masonic Lodge hall.

Catholic Party Set

The Catholic parish hall will be the scene of a parish Christmas party Sunday, December 15, at 12:30 in the afternoon beginning with a potluck dinner. Santa will be there and the festivities will also include movies for both the adults and the children.

Orion Wright, Mrs. Earl Evans and Mrs. Walter Beckett.

Convening at the Masonic hall, after first attending the Episcopal Christmas bazaar and luncheon, members of the Order of Eastern Star Social club enjoyed their regularly scheduled afternoon of cards Saturday, with three tables of bridge and several of pinocle. Winning high score in bridge was Mrs. Mervin Leonard and in pinocle, Mrs. Edna Turner.

HEPPNER GAZETTE-TIMES, Thursday, December 12, 1963

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. (Mike) Whitesmith and family braved the snow to move to Hood River this week. They completed arrangements for the moving Tuesday and headed for their new home with the truckload of belongings to follow. Mr. and Mrs. Bob Henry are planning to move into the home here this week. Mike, who was transferred to the J. C. Penney store in Hood River as manager, states that he likes it very much there and already has met several former Heppnerites in the store. Henry's family comes from Oregon City where he was formerly with the J. C. Penney store before being promoted to the managership here. Address of the Whitesmiths in Hood River is 401 June Street.
