IONE NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Hams and son of La Grande spent the weekend here visiting relatives.

The Rebekahs held a Christmas party on Sunday evening at the hall beginning with a potluck supper at five o'clock. Donations were accepted for the fund for the Christmas party at the Odd Fellows home. A program consisting of a reading by Tanya Tucker, piano solos by Linda Rowell, and Berniece and Deniece Matthews, and a solo "O Holy Night" by Teresa Tucker accompanied by her grandmother, Mrs. Cleo Drake was enjoyed by about 50 persons.

Mrs. E. W. Christopherson, Sr., of Donald is visiting at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Christopherson and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Jr., and daughter, Kimber and Mrs. Paul Pettyjohn, Sr., went to Portland on Tuesday and returned Wednesday. They took Kimber down to Shrine hospital for examinations.

The Ione Dancing club held its Christmas dance at the Legion Hall on Saturday night. A large crowd attended. The large crowd attended. The rooms were decorated in the Christmas theme and refreshments were served by the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. James Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Boyce, Gerry Davidson, Mr. and Mrs. David Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Ekstrom, Jr., and Miss Judy Morgan.

The Gervais High school team played in Ione on Friday night and in Heppner on Saturday night. Hosting the boys in their homes were the following members of the team Leon and Leland Magill, Stephen Lindstrom, Robert Emert, Dick Hynd, Tom Heimburger, and Mark and Joe Halvorsen.

Kathy Rea of Portland spent the week-end at home. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clell Rea, took her back on Monday.

Ione Garden Club Observes Christmas

IONE—The Ione Garden club met December 12 at the Omar Rietmann home with Mrs. Rietmann and Mrs. Carl Bergstrom as co-hostesses.

Roll call brought back many happy memories as members responded by naming their favorite childhood games.

Guests were divided into groups, the Marys and the Marthas. Competitive games produced much fun with the Marthas as winners.

The story of the origin of the 12th Night Christmas feature was read by Mrs. E. C. Heliker, who, with Mrs. William Spohn, was responsible for a lovely Christmas program.

Various birds seen recently about our community were a magister eagle, hawks, a pair of bluejays and a couple of magpies.

Several arrangements were around the room with Mrs. Rietmann's rated the most colorful. Delicious refreshments carried out the beautiful red and white Christmas colors.

Furniture Study Occupies Ione Unit

Points to look for in upholstered furniture, as well as case goods, were discussed by Leila Palmer and Ruth McCabe at the Ione Extension unit meeting at the home of Leila Palmer on December 5, 1963.

The project leaders presented the film, "Furniture Styles and Selection" as a basis of their study. Points on buying and care of both case goods and upholstered furniture were pointed out. Each member received a colorful booklet, "How to Select Furniture," for individual study.

The next meeting will be in January when the women will study "A Will of Your Own."

Church Ladies Honor Fathers, Sons at Dinner

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON—The Women's Fellowship group of the Lexington Christian church sponsored a "Father-Son" banquet in the church parlors on Sunday evening at 6:30 p.m. The committee in charge of preparing food and decorating were Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, chairman, with Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt, Mrs. Joe Yocom and Mrs. Homer Hughes.

Tables were cleverly decorated in the Christmas theme. Holly trees centered the tables and programs adorned with red candles and greenery were at each place.

Master of ceremonies was the Rev. Earl Soward, with doxology and opening prayer by Homer Hughes; welcome by Kenneth Jones, response by Carl Marquardt, group singing, and a fine message was given by the Rev. Walter Crowell of Ione. Benediction was by Bill B. Marquardt followed by a fine film, "Time and Space," filmed at the Moody Bible Institute.

The dinner was served by Mrs. Carl Marquardt and Mrs. C. C. Jones to the following fathers and sons: Homer Hughes and sons, Matt, Robert and Randy; Johnnie Ledbetter, representing Billy Klinger, Leonard Munkers and son, Craig; George Steagall and sons, Tommy and George; Earl Soward and son, Wayne; Dean Hunt and son, Gary; Bill B. Marquardt and son, Bruce; Harry Green, representing Ricky Marquardt, Carl Marquardt and son, Jim; Charlie Davidson of Ione and son, Charles and representing Dale Cooper, and Cecil Jones and son, Kenny.

Groshes Welcome New Son

Messengers Have Daughter

News has been received in Lexington of the birth of a daughter on Sunday, December 8, to Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Jr., of Hermiston. Maternal grandmother is Mrs. Zinter of Ione and paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr., of Mitchell, former Lexington residents.

Mrs. Bertha Hunt left Hinkle by train on Friday night for Garden Grove, Calif., where she will spend the Christmas holidays with her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hunt and son.

Mrs. Max Breeding and Mrs. Pentacost of Portland were Lexington visitors last Wednesday.

Accident Claims Mrs. Klinger

Friends in Lexington were deeply saddened on Saturday to hear of the death of Mrs. Nora (Rudolph) Klinger of Hermiston in a car accident near Stanfield. She was riding in an auto driven by her sister, Mrs. Julian Rauch, also of Hermiston. Mr. and Mrs. Klinger lived for many years on a farm north of Lexington, which is being farmed at the present by their son Kenneth (Pete).

She is survived by her husband of Hermiston, one son, Kenneth of Lexington, and six grandsons. She was preceded in death several years ago by a daughter, Doris Klinger Crozier. Mrs. Crozier's son, Steven has made his home with his grandparents since the untimely death of his mother and father.

Services were held on Tuesday from the Peace Lutheran church of Hermiston with interment in Hermiston cemetery.

Word has been received in Lexington of the death of Carl Whilack at Brookings on Monday morning. He was the son-in-law of Mrs. Emma Breshers and a cousin of Lola Breeding and Wilbur and George Steagall. He was a former resident of Lexington.
