Christmas Theme Used At Grange Home Ec Meet

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN—The annual Mystery Sister Christmas party was held last week at the grange hall with members of the Home Economics club of Greenfield Grange hosting the Ladies Aid Society of Community church. In charge were Mrs. Bernard Donovan, Mrs. Arthur Allen, Mrs. Leonard Bedord and Mrs. Cecil Hamilton.

Mystery Sisters were revealed with gift exchange and new names were drawn for next year. Mrs. Zearl Gillespie and Mrs. Rollini Bishop were in charge. The clean-up committee was Mrs. Claud Worden and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer.

Franel Walker, Riverside high school student, read the Christmas story, and the Riverside High school band under the leadership of Al Reeves, presented the Christmas story in music, using selections from Handel's "Messiah" and Christmas carols.

Club Has Gift Exchange

Mrs. Ronald Black was hostess for the Boardman Tillicum club at her home last week for the annual Carnation Sister Christmas party of the Boardman Tillicum club. Mrs. Roy Partlow was a guest.

Carnation Sisters were revealed with exchange of gifts, and new names were drawn for next year. Christmas messages were read from Mrs. Dexter Arnold, president of the General Federation of Women's clubs, Mrs. Melford Nelson, state president, and Mrs. Wallace Smith, state junior director.

The rest of the evening was spent playing bingo.

Mrs. Russell Miller was hostess for the Home Extension unit at her home last week with Mrs. Don Downey as co-hostess. Subject was "Wise choice of home furnishings," with Mrs. Dewey West and Mrs. Ronald Black as leaders.

Mrs. H. M. Walker, vice-chairman, was in charge of the meeting. The resignation of Mrs. Earl Briggs, chairman, was accepted, with new one to be elected later.

The training class for "Adventures in salad making," originally scheduled to be held in Irigon, is to be held here in April at the home of Mrs. Walker. Announcement was made that $11.75 was made on the cooked food sale.

The next meeting will be January 21 at the home of Mrs. Arthur Allen, with Mrs. West as co-hostess. Subject will be "A will of your own," with Mrs. W. G. Seehafer and Mrs. Glen Carpenter as leaders.

There were five tables of pinocle in play at the card party at the grange hall Friday night. A. R. Fortner and Bob Thornhill, Mrs. Arthur Allen and Mrs. Leonard Bedord were hostesses.

High scores were won by Mrs. A. R. Fortner and Bob Thornhill, low by Sid Ferguson and Mrs. Peter Matz, and the pinocle prizes went to Mrs. Nathan Thorpe and A. R. Fortner. The next party will be held December 27 at 8 p.m.

Greenfield Grange met at the hall last week with Mrs. Bernard Donovan as hostess, starting with potluck supper at 6:30 p.m.

The charter was draped in memory of our late president John F. Kennedy.

The annual Christmas tree and program will be held at the

Naming Santa

Santa, the giver of many gifts, is a man of many names, too. While he is becoming almost universally known as Santa Claus, Santa or St. Nick, many European children still wait for the arrival of St. Nicholas.

St. Nicholas was the first of Santa's names and came from a real bishop in the fourth century, A.D. He is said to travel not by reindeer but on horseback, and wears bishop's robes.

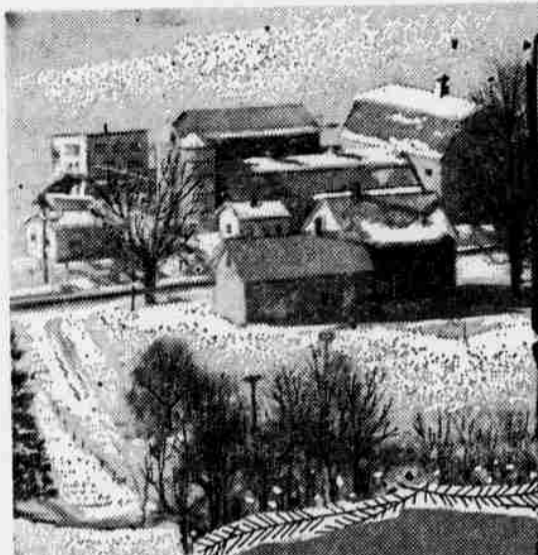

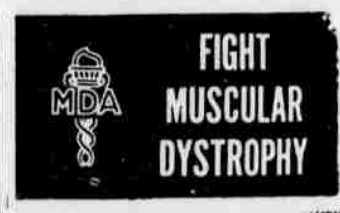

Over the years, Santa has gained still other names. In France he's Pere Noel, in Finland Father Christmas, in Germany Kris Kringle, in Russia Father or Grandfather Frost.

Boardman Community church Sunday evening, December 22, at 7:30. Parents and friends are invited.

School will be dismissed December 20 for the holidays, and will reconvene January 2.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Anderson of Condon were Sunday visitors at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sledge.

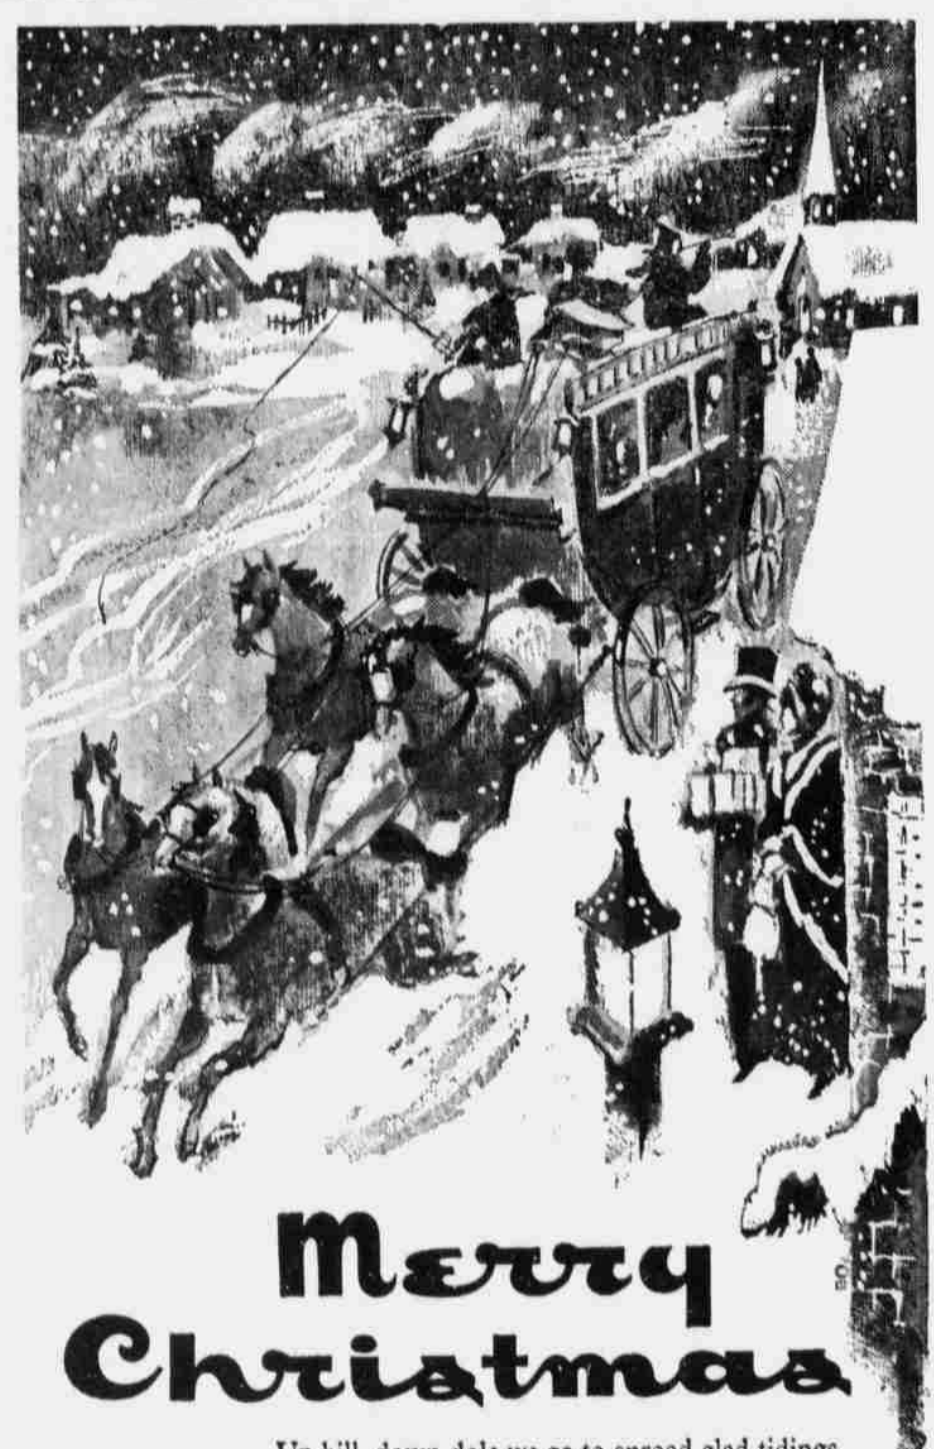

Mrs. Frank Marlow has been confined to her home the past ten days with a severe case of the flu.

May your home be bright with joy all through this most festive of holiday seasons. To all of our friends we wish the merriest Christmas ever.

Greetings of the Christmas Season
