Officers Installed For Willows HEC At Dinner Meeting

The Lee Palmer home was the scene of a Christmas party for members of Willows Grange Home Ec club, with Mrs. Marion Palmer as co-hostess.

Following a turkey dinner and a short business meeting, the following officers were installed by Mrs. Vida Helker: Mrs. Bert Akers, chairman; Mrs. Lewis Halvorsen, vice chairman; Mrs. Art Dalzell, secretary; and Mrs. Lee Palmer, treasurer.

Secret Pals were revealed through the exchange of gifts. The club voted to continue the secret pal custom for the coming year.

Members voted to finish the basement in light mahogany, hoping to get the work finished early in the year. The committee met with the Grange executive committee Thursday to measure the basement and estimate the amount of materials needed.

Next meeting will be an all day meeting on Thursday, January 16, at the home of Mrs. James Lindsay, with Mrs. Mabel Cotter assisting.

Willows Grange will meet Sunday, January 19, with a potluck dinner at noon. The Sunday meetings were announced to continue through March. With the beginning of the new year, new officers desire the support of members through attendance and cooperation in maintaining an active organization.

Co-op Auxiliary To Meet Monday

January meeting of the Lexington Co-op Biddies is planned for Monday, January 6, at 1:30 p.m. at the Lexington City hall.

Members and friends are asked to bring articles or ideas received for Christmas which would be of interest to the other women attending. Projects will also be discussed and started for the club exhibits at the annual spring district meeting.

Hostesses for the social hour will be Mrs. Kenneth Palmer and Mrs. Florence McMillan.

Mrs. Gertson Installs The Dalles Officers

Mrs. Clara Gertson, in her capacity as State Director of the Degree of Honor Protective Association, is serving as installing officer at installation ceremonies of Fern Lodge No. 25, The Dalles, tonight (Thursday). Mrs. Gertson will be away from her home here a good part of the month, making visitations to member lodge groups over the state.

She spent the first part of Christmas week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Goheen in Portland, and on Christmas day was with another son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Anhorn and family at Central Point.

Marian Stanley Weds F. Rinehart Saturday At Church Ceremony

LEXINGTON—Miss Marian Stanley and Forrest Robert Rinehart, Jr. were united in marriage at an informal, double ring ceremony Saturday afternoon, December 28, in the First Methodist church, Heppner. Vows were read by the Rev. Melvin Dixon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hendrickson, Tulelake, Calif.

She chose for her wedding a white sheath dress of silk shantung with white accessories, and wore a white orchid corsage.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Rinehart, Sr., of Pendleton.

Attending as matron of honor was Mrs. Joe Yocom, a sister of the bride. She wore a blue suit, accented with a pink carnation corsage.

Serving as best man was Joe Yocom, Lexington.

The young couple left immediately following the ceremony for a short wedding trip through Eastern Oregon, after which they will make their home in Ukiah, where the groom has a cattle ranch.

Miss Stanley is a graduate with the class of 1963 at Tulelake, Calif., and has made her home in Lexington with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Yocom and family. She has been employed for the past few months at the Heppner Clinic.

Attending the services were the bride's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson and daughter; Mr. and Mrs. Rinehart, Sr., parents of the groom, Pendleton, and their three sons and daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Yocom and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Stanley and children of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Adkins arrived home Saturday after spending Christmas with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Crismon and family in Milwaukee. They continued on their trip from there to Tacoma where they visited at the home of Mrs. Adkin's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Canoy.

Friends Compliment Miss Charlene Jones At Bridal Shower

LEXINGTON—The Lexington IOOF hall was the scene on Friday, December 27, of a lovely bridal shower honoring Miss Charlene Jones of Portland. Miss Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones, Lexington, is the bride-elect of Glenn Eatch of that city.

Guests were seated at card tables covered with bridal cloths and matching napkins, centered with Christmas greens tied with orange and brown ribbon. A large sheet cake decorated in the honoree's wedding colors of brown and orange, with a cluster of white sugar bells held in one corner with ribbon, was prepared by Mrs. Bob Cool, aunt of Miss Jones. Serving the cake was Mrs. Clell Rea of Ione.

Punch was served by Mrs. Vern Viall, and coffee by Mrs. Vic Groshens.

Winning door prizes were Mrs. Leonard Munkers and Mrs. Greg Leyva.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Bob Davidson, Mrs. Johnnie Ledbetter and Mrs. Vic Groshens.

Those present were Mrs. Gene Majeske and daughter, Ginger, Mrs. William J. Van Winkle, Mrs. Leonard Munkers, Mrs. Joe Yocom, Mrs. M. V. Nolan, Mrs. Floyd Smith, Mrs. Oris Padberg, Mrs. Edward Hunt, Mrs. Bob Davidson, Mrs. William C. Van Winkle, Mrs. Kenneth Marshall, Mrs. Wilbur Steagall, Mrs. Carl Marquardt, Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt, Mrs. Bob Steagall, Mrs. Al Fetsch and daughter Marlene, Mrs. Johnnie Ledbetter and daughter Jeanette, all of Lexington, Mrs. Howard Crowell of Ione, Mrs. Jerry Dougherty of Heppner, and Mrs. Greg Leyva of Hood River.

Gresham Newlyweds Visit in Heppner

Overnight visitors at the home of Mrs. Mattie Groen Friday were newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Lundblad of Gresham.

Mrs. Lundblad is the former Mrs. Mildred Green, daughter of Mrs. Green. The Lundblads were married at the Gresham Methodist church on Thursday, December 26. They were attended by her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Green of Tacoma, Wn.

Mr. Lundblad is employed with an accounting firm in Portland. They will make their home in Gresham, where Mrs. Lundblad is principal in the Springdale elementary school.

Parker Family Has Reunion on Sunday

The Frank S. Parker home was the scene of a happy family reunion Sunday when their four children were home together for the first time in over five years.

Spending the day with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Parker, were Mrs. Frances Mitchell and John Parker of Portland, Vawter Parker of Hood River and Mrs. Fred Hoskins, Jr., of Heppner.

Another guest for the day was their grandson, Vawter Parker, Jr., of Hood River, who was home for Christmas vacation from Stanford University where he is enrolled as a freshman.

Joint Installation Set For January 11

A joint installation will seat new officers of Sans Souci Rebekah and Odd Fellow lodges on Saturday evening, January 11. Activities of the evening will begin with a dinner served at 6:30 p.m. for all lodge members and their families.

Further plans will be discussed at the regular Rebekah meeting Friday evening, January 3, with all members urged to attend.

Boise Girl Engaged To Renne Harris

The Right Rev. and Mrs. Norman Foote of Boise, Idaho, have announced the betrothal of their daughter, Margaret Elizabeth, to Renne L. Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Saling of Heppner.

The bride-elect graduated with the class of 1963 from Willamette University in Salem. Her fiancé graduated in 1959 from Heppner high school and also is a Willamette University graduate. Currently he is doing post-graduate work at DePauw University in Green Castle, Ind.

No wedding date has been set.

Friends Honor Bride With Recipe Shower

IONE—A lovely bridal shower was given for Miss Karen Lundell on Saturday, December 21 at the home of Mrs. Louis Carlson. Other hostesses were Mrs. Don Peterson, Mrs. Paul Tews, and Mrs. William Rawlins. Each guest brought her favorite recipes on file cards, which were placed in a book and presented to Karen. With the recipe was a gift of one utensil required in making the dish.

A game was played in which each guest pantomimed making the recipe she brought, while the others tried to guess what she was making. Mrs. Herbert Peterson won high prize and Mrs. Carl Bergstrom, low prize.

The gift table was decorated with a large ring centered with dolls representing Karen and her fiancé, Francis Stack, seated in a swing. Refreshments were served at individual tables covered with red cloths centered with a doll couple on a white base around which were written in glitter, "Karen and Francis, December 28, 1963."

Guests present were Mrs. Herbert Peterson, Mrs. Robert Peterson, Mrs. Jesse Warfield, Mrs. Roger Palmer, Mrs. Arthur A. Stefani, Mrs. Charles Carlson, Mrs. Raymond Lundell, Mrs. Henry Baker, Mrs. Carl Bergstrom, the honoree, and the Misses Cheryl Lundell, Sandra and
