Sampson Dies Of Heart Attack In California

Word of the death of William Sampson, former Heppner resident, in Loma Linda, Calif., on Friday, December 27, reached friends here this week.

The following is a letter received by the Gazette-Times, dated December 28, from Mrs. Sampson:

"Dear Sir: "I still feel that Heppner is my home, although we are many miles from there.

"With sad heart, I have to make the announcement to my friends of the death of my husband, William Sampson. After three weeks of illness in the Loma Linda Sanitarium hospital, he died suddenly of a heart attack on December 27.

"The Navy is sending Charles here on emergency leave from overseas at Hongkong, and Spencer is flying in from Terrell, B. C.

"Bill is being buried at the Mt. View Cemetery in San Bernardino. His body was taken to the Hughes Mortuary, Loma Linda."

Mrs. Sampson was employed for several months as nurse in the office of the Heppner Clinic, prior to their leaving Heppner the first of September.

The family's address, for those who wish to contact them, is Box 225, Loma Linda, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lloyd and Tim arrived home Sunday from a trip to Longview, Wn., where they spent Christmas with Mrs. Lloyd's sister, brother-in-law and family, the Lowell Ernests. The return trip included a two-day stay in Portland where they visited Mr. Lloyd's sister, Mrs. Jean Lovd, and were spectators at the Ford West Classic basketball tournament.

Renne Harris and his fiancée, Margaret Foote, departed Monday for Miss Foote's home in Boise, Ida. Mr. Harris will continue on from there to Green Castle, Ind., where he is attending DePauw University. The couple spent several days in Heppner with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Saling, and visiting many other friends and relatives.

Winners Named In Benefit Bowl

JoAnn Dyck and Ron Leonnig teamed to roll their way to victory in the Shirley Cox Benefit Mixed Doubles Tournament at Fiesta Bowl, Leonnig and Mrs. Dyck rolled their prize winning series of 1271 during the first night of competition in the tournament which was held on Sunday, December 22, and Sunday, December 29.

Thirty-two more teams rolled in quest of the prize on the 29th but no team could best Leonnig and Mrs. Dyck. Jim and Earline Miller teamed to roll a 1261 in the contest and finish a close second.

Ellis and Jean McRoberts rolled an 894 to top third in the competition. The Millers and the McRoberts also rolled their series during the first night of the tournament.

Art Dyck, owner of the lanes, termed the tournament a success and pointed out that all the available spaces for those wishing to compete were filled.

Ed Gunderson Jr. topped the men keglers in the competition by firing a scratch 512 series.

Delores Turner, Eugene, blizzared the lanes for a 544, good enough to garner high scratch series among the women aspirants in the tournament.

Leonnig and Mrs. Dyck received trophies for their efforts in the roll while Gunderson and Mrs. Turner were given stuffed animals for their individual performances. All prizes were donated by Fiesta Bowl.

Mrs. Stanley Cox, for whom the benefit was established, Mrs. Cox will enter a Portland cycled her check on Tuesday, hospital on Saturday where she will undergo heart surgery.

Mustangs Clobber Falcons; Drop Finale to Sherman

Heppner High's basketball team won its first match at the Condon Invitational Holiday Tournament by downing Wheeler County High of Fossil Friday night, 62-50, but couldn't put enough points through the hoop Saturday night as Sherman beat the Mustangs 59-51. The defeat gave the Mustangs a second place finish in the affair.

In other Friday action Sherman downed the Condon Blue Devils, 57-45, to reach the final round of competition against the Mustangs.

Saturday night, before the Heppner-Sherman scrap, the Blue Devils came from behind in the final half to defeat the Falcons of Wheeler, 63-51, and walk off with third place in the tournament.

Heppner fought on even terms with Wheeler in the first quarter of their Friday night tilt but was behind, 20-19, at the end of the stanza.

In the second quarter the Mustangs uncorked on the bucket and dumped 16 through the net while holding the Falcons in four and were in command at the half, 35-24.

Throughout the second half of play the Mustangs substituted freely and coasted to their sixth win of the season against no defeats.

Lee Padberg scored 30 points, 21 in the first half, to lead the Mustang attack.

Dave Ostrander led the Falcons in their losing effort with 14 counters.

Scoring: Wheeler (50) Heppner (62) Ostrander 14 F 6 George Wham 12 F 7 Bauman, Marks 2 C 30 Padberg? Cox 4 G 5 Dick Nickelson 4 G 9 Wright Substitutes: Wheeler, Lowell 2, Chase 2, Dahill 2, Reid, S. Heppner, Evans 2, Clark 1, Spencer 2.

Ione Schedules Bucs, Scotties

Ione's high school Cardinals return to the basketball ways this week-end after a two-week layoff. They will tackle the Riverside Pirates in a Friday night contest on the Ione floor and will meet McEwen's tough Scotties in a Saturday tilt, also on the Cardinal court.

The week-end shapes up to be a tough one for the Cards as they will face the Pirates and Scotties, two of the leading contenders for this year's edition of the Umatilla-Morrow league Casaba crown.

In both teams, the Redbirds face experience. Both the Bucs and Scots have many of their last year's starters back while the Cards must rely on a relatively inexperienced club.

Three games are on tap for the Friday night action. At 5:30 p. m. the lone girls' volleyball team will meet the Riverside girls' squad in a regulation game. After the feminine set has had their go at combat, the lone Jayvees will meet the Riverside Jayvees in a preliminary casaba tilt. The varsity contest is scheduled to start at 8:00 p.m.

HOSPITAL

Patients admitted to Pioneer Memorial hospital for medical care during the past week were Lucille Wilson, Heppner; Stanley Dixon, Heppner; Michael Orwick, Lexington; Harry Coghill, Condon, and Reuben Grosshardt, Condon.

Patients dismissed during this same period were James Cowins, Heppner, and Rod Murray, Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. James Devine, Heppner, are parents of a 5 lb., 5 oz. daughter, born Tuesday, December 31. The little girl, not yet named, joins one brother, Coleman Joseph, and one sister, Barbara Beth, at home. Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Warren, Heppner, and Mr. and Mrs. William Baker, Boardman.

Dr. A. D. McMurdo Goes to Rose Bowl

Dr. A. D. McMurdo, accompanied by his son, Scott McMurdo of Corvallis, left Saturday for the Rose Bowl game at Pasadena, Calif. They planned to spend two days in San Francisco visiting his brothers, Dr. Percy McMurdo and Dr. H. B. McMurdo before going on south to the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena.

1st Lieut. James D. Monahan returned Sunday to his station at Sage Air Force Base at Reno, Nev., after spending a Christmas leave at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Monahan, Heppner. He expects to be released from his service assignment there in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Buschke arrived home last Thursday from Connel, Wn., after spending Christmas with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Shipp, and family, Linda and Ricky Shipp, grandchildren of the Buschkes, returned to Heppner with them for a short visit.

Mustangs Schedule Eagles In Opener

Heppner High's Mustangs open their 1964 basketball league schedule Friday night as they travel to The Dalles to meet the Wahitoka High Eagles of the Chenoweth district in The Dalles.

Wahitoka is a new school in the conference and this is their first season in league play. The Eagles are a tall team and should give the Mustangs a run for their money in the tilt.

The Mustangs are still smarting from their Saturday night defeat to Sherman and will be out to prove that the Huskies caught them on a bad night.

Heppner will be hoping to use the game for a tune-up for their January 10 encounter with the same Sherman club that defeated them at the Condon Invitational.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Farra and son, Jim, spent the Christmas holidays visiting in Payette, Ida., at the home of Mr. Farra's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Farra, and at the home of Mrs. Farra's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Anderson.
