TRAILS

By BIRDINE TULLIS

The excellent snow conditions of last week-end brought a large number of skiers, both expert and beginners, to Arbuckle. The road condition was good, but once again a warning to carry chains at all times when coming up the mountain! The area is being operated on a host family plan this year. Host families for Saturday were Barb and Orville Cutsforth, Don and Martha Peterson, Arnold Melby family and Ken Peck family were on duty Sunday. Barb's hospitality included supplying a huge delicious pot of chili—more than enough to feed all the hungry skiers. The usual procedure is to carry your sack lunch. Coffee is always available in the hut. Last week new directors elected in the ski club were mentioned. The complete list of directors should include Arnold Melby, our very able and active president; Alice Vance, secretary; Garry Tullis, vice president, and Don Peterson, past president. Chuck McLean is the Forest Service representative for the area. These and the other directors and ski club members bear the responsibility and conduct the business necessary in maintaining the area for the enjoyment of anyone interested in skiing.

At this time family memberships are available to the public. For a $35.00 paid yearly dues, all members of a family can ski the remainder of this season without paying daily tow fees. Membership with the same privilege is available to a single person for $20.00. The daily tow fee is $1.50 per person. Any one interested in this plan should contact Arnold or Alice. The club is always happy to welcome new members.

Sunday, January 19, the area will have as guest Marvin Newby, Section Chief of the National Ski Patrol. He will be here to check out our ski patrol and visit with any one interested in Ski Patrol work. All members of Arbuckle Ski Patrol should try to be present for this visit. Ski patrol work requires an advance ced first aid card, some actual work under snow conditions, and ability to ski. A good ski patrol is vital to the safety of all at the area.

Apparently Arbuckle received a mention in a popular magazine recently. Tom and Nancy Pryer and family of Kennewick, Wn., arrived at the area last Saturday, saying they had read of Arbuckle in Sunset magazine. The many surprised club members were happy to welcome them to the area, and they seemed to enjoy their visit.

Seen on the hill: Bob Baker of Ione with the first broken ski for this season—The young skiers building a ski jump to test their abilities—Ski lessons in progress. Kids, did you observe Gerald Peterson's beautiful parallel skiing?—Keep in mind as you snow plow down the hill, that parallel is what you hope to achieve some day. New on the hill—Jim Myers and boys, Earl Ayers and family, Wilbur Worden, David Baker and family from Ione, John and Jimmy McElligott, Mrs. Stockard and family, Nate and Danny McBride, Margaret McCarter, Louis Carlson family, Frank Halvorsen, Pam Johnston and many others.

Tips for happier skiing—stay in control—do not over estimate your ability—keep your eyes open for the unexpected—fill your sitzmarks—be courteous—on the slope and in the lift line—watch out for our many little skiers—get the ski patrol if some one seems to be in serious trouble—dress warmly but do not overdress—mittens with warm liners are especially necessary for riding the rope in comfort—two pair of socks are usually more comfortable than one—when you start skiing badly, stop for a rest—skiing requires great energy—carry candy bars or other quick energy foods for snacks. Follow the crowd—join the fun and we'll SEE YOU ON THE HILL!

Pony Teams Split With Card Quints

By KIT ANDERSON

Heppner's junior high ponies split two basketball games with the Ione Cardinals Friday. The lone "B" team took the Heppner "B" lads, 53 to 35, but the Pony "A" string won over the Ione "A" five, 36-25.

In the "B" game, the Ione team was outscored in only the third quarter and led midway, 24-12. In the second half the Heppner boys tried to come back, but the Cards caught fire with a 29-point second half. The loss left the Ponies' "B" team with an 0-2 record.

The Heppner "A" team, which narrowly beat the Ione boys, 43-42, a month ago, came out fighting to achieve the 36-25 victory. They opened up with a fast break and led at the rest time, 28-11. The Cardinals were not finished, though, and brought the final score down to 11 points. The Ponies' "A" team record now stands at 2-1 with both wins over Ione and a loss to Irrigon. In jamboree play the Ponies have a 1-2 record.

Next game for the Heppner junior high fives will be at Condon on Saturday, January 18.

Sewing Nine Meets

Sewing Nine 4-H club met January 11 at the Lexington school house. In the absence of Mrs. Davidson, Mrs. Baker was our leader. She told us to always come to the meeting prepared and what we are to bring. She gave a talk on grooming. We are always to be kind to others. She assigned us all reports to be given at our next meeting.

Jayvees Subdue Young Huskies; Lose to Condon

By GREG PIERCE

Heppner's jayvees took their first league game of two starts Friday night by downing the Sherman Huskies' jayvees, 46-30.

Scott Barratt, tall timber of the Heppner quint, led the Mustangs in points with nine. John Wagenblast dumped in eight.

The Mustangs never had much bother from the Huskies as they rolled to an easy 22-12 intermission score. The visitors were outshot in every quarter by the hometown boys.

High scorer for Sherman was Carlson and Ray Eakin with 10 and 7 respectively.

When the small Mustang jayvees traveled to Condon they found the going rougher than Friday night's contest and dropped it in overtime, 57-52. The Mustangs looked as though they were going to take this game, leading at halftime, 32-24.

After intermission, however, the Condon Blue Devils came on fast and were down only one point at the end of the third stanza, 38-37.

In the fourth period the teams played equal ball and were tied 48-48 at the end of the regular game. In overtime, Condon outshot the Mustangs and made nine points to Heppner's four, thereby taking the win.

John Wagenblast was high-point man for the Mustangs with 11.

Card Parties Hold Winter Spotlight In Social Activity

Five tables of bridge and four tables of pinochle were in play last Thursday evening at a regularly scheduled Elk's Ladies Night.

Mrs. Elaine George had high score in bridge and Mrs. Harold Cohn was second. Mrs. Bob Brindle won the door prize. In pinochle, Mrs. Virginia Turner had the top score, Mrs. Ed LaTrace was second and the door prize went to Mrs. Kenneth Turner.

A delicious assortment of quick breads, including orange, date nut, banana nut and others, were served with coffee by the co-hostesses, Mrs. Marion Green, Mrs. James Phegley, Mrs. Orville Cutsforth, Jr., Mrs. Jimmy Prock, Mrs. Ron Hagewood and Mrs. Ernest McCabe.

Six couples enjoyed a potluck dinner and an afternoon of duplicate bridge Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Driscoll.

LaVerne Van Marter had the highest score of the group which included Mrs. Van Marter, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Jonasson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Collins and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Blake.

Mrs. Charlie Beckett had high score last week when the Friday afternoon pinochle club gathered at the home of Mrs. Max Harris.

Mrs. Toussent Dubuque, filling in for Mrs. Earl Evans, was low for the afternoon and Mrs. Art Watkins, along with Mrs. Fred Mankin, won the pinochle.

Completing the two tables in play were Mrs. Orian Wright, Mrs. Hannah Anderson and Mrs. Walter Beckett.

Mrs. Bob Buschke entertained with two tables of pinochle in her home last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Don Munkers won high; Mrs. Jerry Buschke was second high; Mrs. Delmer Buschke was low; and Mrs. Morgan Connor won the door prize. Others present were Mrs. Stacey Lovgren, Mrs. Elmer Berry and Mrs. Doyle Key.

Tournament pinochle got underway Wednesday evening at the Elks' temple after plans were made last Wednesday at an "organizing night." Ten tables of pinochle are planned for each of the six weeks of tournament play with the second go-around beginning Wednesday, January 22, at 7:30 p.m.

Following the drawing up of tournament plans last week eight tables of pinochle were enjoyed as Mrs. Stacey Lovgren and Mrs. Bob Buschke teamed to win high score in the non-counting play.

Mrs. Gerald Jonasson entertained the Bridge Biddies last Tuesday evening with two tables of cards.

Winning high was Mrs. Don McClure and second high went to Mrs. Bert Huff. Mrs. Ernie McCabe won the traveling prize. Mrs. Jonasson served a delicious frozen strawberry dessert to
