Pretty Church Candlelight Ceremony Unites Charlene Jones, Glenn Eatch

In a setting of orange glad-doli in white baskets flanked by tall lighted tapers, Miss Charlene Jones became the bride of Glenn R. Eatch of Portland on Saturday, January 18, at 2:00 p.m. in the Lexington Christian church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C.
Jones of Lexington, and parents of the groom are Jack Eatch and Mrs. Charles Blackburn, both of Portland.

The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. L. G. Wetzell of Portland, a long time friend of the bride, and assisted by the Rev. Earl Soward, pastor of the Lexington church.

Escorted to the altar on the arm of her father, the bride was lovely in a floor length gown of pure white bridal satin, fashioned in straight lines, scoop neckline and three quarter length sleeves. A chapel length train extended in back from the waistline. Her shoulder length illusion veil was held in place by a tiara crown of white seed pearls. Jewelry chosen for the occasion consisted of a small diamond in a star-shaped necklace made in the same style as her engagement ring. She carried a bridal cascade of off-white rosebuds centered with a white orchid and placed on top her Rainbow Bible. As something old, she wore a ring which belonged to her great grandmother, the late Mrs. Joe Clark.
Mrs. Vic Groshens, a lifetime friend of the bride, served as her matron of honor. She was gowned in a tangerine colored satin street length dress, cut in simple lines, and wore matching hat and shoes. She carried a nosegay of brown chrysanthemums caught with brown satin ribbon.

Bridesmaids were Miss Marilyn Morgan of Portland and Miss Darlene Frazier of Long Beach, Wn. Junior bridesmaid was Miss Valda Irvin, Rufus, cousin of the bride.

All wore brown satin dresses made in identical style as that of the matron of honor, carried nosegays of tangerine colored chrysanthemums caught with matching ribbons, and wore matching hats and shoes.

Flower girl was Ruthie Skyles, niece of the groom from Portland. Her dress was of matching tangerine satin, she wore a small hat of brown net and carried a basket of orange blossom petals.
All girls wore matching garters made for them by Mrs. O. W.
Cutsforth.

Ring bearer was Scot Groshens, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Vic Groshens of Lexington.

Candles were lighted by Miss Vicky Irvin of Rufus, niece of the bride. Her dress was of beige colored satin, styled the same as the bridesmaids. She carried a lighted taper, entwined with chrysanthemums and greenery ending in a wrist corsage.

Mrs. Carl M. Marquardt played the wedding and incidental music. She also accompanied Mrs. John Wehling of Seattle, Wn., who sang, "Because" and, as the couple knelt at the altar, "The Wedding Prayer." As the ushers were escorting the guests from the church, Mrs. Wehling sang the number, "Give Us This Day."

Serving as best man was Chet McFallow of Portland. Ushers were Keith Peck of Portland and Greg Leyva of Hood River, Kenneth Jones, Lexington, brother of the bride, was junior usher.
All wore matching white dinner jackets with chrysanthemum boutonnieres.

For her daughter's marriage, Mrs. Jones chose a green street length dress with brown accessories and a brown orchid corsage.
Mrs. Blackburn, mother of the groom, wore a dress of powder blue with darker blue accessories and a pink orchid corsage, and his step-mother, Mrs. Jack Eatch, chose a beige costume with brown accessories and white orchid corsage.

The young couple greeted their many friends and relatives in the Lexington IOOF hall where a reception under the direction of Mrs. Alonzo Henderson, Mrs. A. F. Majeske and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth was held in their honor. Mrs. George Irvin of Rufus, aunt of the bride, served as hostess during reception hours.

A four-tiered wedding cake centered the bride's table. Made in pure white, it was adorned with bells and doves, topped with two large white and silver bells, around which was a heart of white orange blossoms and seed pearls. On each side of the cake were white lighted tapers in silver holders. Pouring from silver coffee and tea service were Mrs. W. I. Miller, aunt of the bride from La Grande, and her grandmother, Mrs. Florence Mc-Millan of Lexington. After the bride and groom cut and shared the first piece of cake, Mrs. Birdie Cavin, aunt of the bride from Portland, continued the serving.

The punch table was decorated with white milk glass service, lighted tapers and a centerpiece of orange chrysanthemums and sprays of golden wheat. Pouring punch were Mrs. Bob Cool of Pendleton, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Glenn Byler of Portland.

On the groom's table were placed chocolate cakes with small white candy bells, served by Mrs. Josh Marconi of Portland. The refreshment table was covered with a lace cloth. Refreshments were served from silver and crystal dishes, presided over by Mrs. William J. Van Winkle and Mrs. Bob Davidson.

Small groom's cakes, tied in orange and brown ribbon, were passed by Valda Irvin, while rice bags, also tied in orange and brown ribbons, were passed by Vicky Irvin, both nieces of the bride.

Gifts were cared for by Mrs.
Lyndy Setchfield, sister of the groom, Mrs. Chet McFallow and Mrs. Max Breeding, all of Portland. Passing the guest book was Mrs. Greg Leyva of Hood River.

For her going away the bride chose a brown suit with lighter brown accessories and wore the white orchid from her bridal bou-quet. After a short trip to Las Vegas, Nev., and way points, the young couple is at home in Portland where she will continue her work with Pacific Northwest Bell and where Mr. Eatch is affiliated with his father in Pioneer Construction Co.

The bride is a graduate with the class of 1960 from Ione High school, after transferring from Lexington High school. She attended Western University of Business in Portland. The groom is a graduate of Jefferson High school in Portland with the class of 1959.

A reception was given for the newlyweds by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eatch in Portland last Sunday after their return from their wedding trip.

State Officers Assist In Degree of Honor Installation Service

Kate J. Young Lodge No. 29, Degree of Honor Protective Association, held its annual installation of officers last Wednesday evening, January 22, at the parish hall of the Episcopal church.

Mrs. Clara B. Gertson, State Director and National Inner Watch, was the installing officer, assisted by State Secretary Mrs.
Bill Farra, and other lodge members.

Officers installed were Mrs.
Lucille Parrish, president; Mrs.
Rachel Harnett, past president; Mrs. Mary Bryant, first vice-president; Mrs. Ray McDowell, second vice president; Mrs. Far-ra, recording secretary; Mrs. Pete McMurtry, treasurer; Mrs. Lincoln Nash, usher; Mrs. Don Townsend, assistant usher; Miss Doris Robinson, inner watch; Mrs. Alice McCabe, outer watch; Mrs. Dean Connor, pianist; Mrs.
Alice Luttrell, color bearer, and Mrs. Theta Stratton, Mrs. Mc-Murtry and Mrs. William Cunningham, escort staff. Three officers, Mrs. Ed Gonty, left assistant; Mrs. Prudy Casebeer, right assistant, and Mrs. Earl Soward, ritual counselor and advisor, were unable to attend and were installed by proxy.

Several committees were appointed, with Miss Robinson named Sunshine chairman. Mrs.
Townsend, news reporter for the Carnation club and Mrs. Parrish, reporter for the lodge.

Mrs. Harnett was presented with the past president's pin and thanked the officers and members for their cooperation and complimented on her year's service to the lodge. She, in turn, presented gifts to her officers.

State Director Clara Gertson and State Secretary Ida Farra gave interesting addresses relative to lodge work. A short acceptance speech was given by incoming president, Mrs. Parrish, and was then presented a lovely white carnation corsage by her son, Alvin Ayers, senior in Heppner High school.

A gift of appreciation was given Mrs. Gertson from the local lodge.

Mrs. Bryant was recognized for having had perfect attendance the past year, with Mrs. Nash a close second, having missed only one session.

Refreshment hostess was Mrs.
John Bergstrom.

The next meeting was announced for Tuesday, February 11.

Answers Your Insurance Questions

QUESTION: We plan to build an addition to our home. Is it necessary to notify our fire insurance company of the changes we're going to make?

ANSWER: Since the changes will increase the value of your home, the insurance company should be told. You should also increase the amount of your insurance to take care of the increased value.
