Dr. Clifford Weare Presents Program At Youth Meeting

Dr. Clifford Weare of Burns, former missionary to the Congo, highlighted a well attended community-wide Youth Week program at the Methodist church Sunday night.

Dr. Weare of Burns was accompanied by his two high school age children, Bill and Sally. They presented color slides, movies and oral descriptions of mission work in the Congo.

Dr. Weare returned to this country early last summer with his family after spending ten years as a medical missionary in Africa. They now make their home in Burns where he has entered private medical practice.

The Rev. Melvin Dixon, pastor of the Methodist church, led singing and the Rev. Charles Knox, shared in presiding at the meeting.

Marti Dixon played the piano and Bill Sherman played the organ for accompanying the group singing.

Refreshments of cookies and punch were served, furnished by the various denominations sharing in the council.

About 45 persons were in attendance.

Rainbow Lays Plans For Annual Banquet

Brenda Young presided at her second meeting as worthy advisor of Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls, Monday evening.

Plans were made for the Rainbow Girls' annual Father-Daughter banquet to be February 13, in the Masonic hall, at 6:30 p.m. The worthy advisor's father, Harley Young, will be toastmaster at the potluck dinner. It was decided that a meat dish will be provided and the fare completing the meal will be furnished by each of the members attending.

Initiation of new members will take place Monday, March 2.

The new business of the meeting also included the ordering of the candy for the annual Easter candy sale.

Kim Valentine and Jenny Blake paid a visit to the Assembly's Rainbow Grandmother, Mrs. Ella Davidson, who is a patient in Pioneer Memorial hospital. Two girls call on Mrs. Davidson each week.

Guests present for the meeting were Mrs. Marjorie Worden, Mrs. Lucille Wilson, Mrs. Wes Marlatt and Kathy Rea.

Civic League Sets Spring Sale Dates

Civic League has set its spring rummage sale dates for April 10 and 11.

Mrs. Jim Richardson or Mrs. Morgan Connor may be contacted for further rummage sale Civic League information.

Lois Wickersham Weds in East

Mrs. Amanda Duvall announces the recent marriage of her granddaughter, Miss Lois Wickersham, to Douglas A. Martin of Columbus, Ohio.

Vows were exchanged at the Arlington First Community church in Columbus, Ohio, on Friday, January 31.

Miss Wickersham has been living in Columbus the past year while employed in the Missiles Marketing Dept. of North American Aviation. Mr. Martin is an employee of the Ohio State Public Utilities.

Mrs. Anderson Hostess For Club

Mrs. Hannah Anderson entertained in her home last week when members of the Friday afternoon pinocle club gathered there for an afternoon of cards.

High score went to Mrs. Art Watkins and Mrs. Earl Evans was low. Mrs. Fred Mankin and Mrs. Charlie Beckett won the pinocle.

Completing the two tables in play were Mrs. Orian Wright, Mrs. Walter Beckett and Mrs. Max Harris.

MISS SANDRA RICHARDS

Wedding Date Told For Sandra Richards

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Richards are announcing the coming marriage of their daughter, Sandra, to Fredrick Ray Barker, Jr., on Tuesday, March 24, in the Latter-day Saint Temple, Idaho Falls, Idaho.

The groom-to-be is the son of Frederick Ray Barker, Sr., of Mesa, Wn.

A wedding reception is planned for the couple on Saturday evening, March 28, at the First Christian church, Heppner, with all friends extended an invitation to attend.

Miss Richards is presently employed by the Department of Welfare in Portland. Mr. Barker is attending Columbia Basin Junior college in Pasco, Wn., and before his enrollment there this year completed a two-year mission for the Latter-day Saints church in Canada.

LaTraces Hold Lead In Elks' Tourney

Melding 1500 trump was a factor that helped boost Mr. and Mrs. Ed LaTrace to the top of the scoring column in last Wednesday's segment of Elks' tournament pinocle. Mr. and Mrs. Matt Hughes were second high for the evening.

Taking over first place in general tournament tabulations of three out of six sessions were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards. Still holding down second place were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Casebeer.

The fifth go-around will get underway at the Elks' temple, Wednesday, at 7:30 p.m.

Couple Announces March Wedding Date

The date of Saturday, March 14, has been announced for the marriage of Miss Shirley Van Winkle and Christopher (Kit) George. Vows will be exchanged in the First Christian church, Heppner.

Parents of the bride-elect are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Winkle, and Mr. George is the son of Mrs. Elaine George, all of Heppner. Both are graduates of Heppner High school.

Couple Exchanges Marriage Vows

By MARTHA MATTESON

MONUMENT — Miss Cheryl Cross became the bride of Jim Slinkard on Saturday, February 1, in Canyon City. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Gene Vaughan of Monument and Gene Cross of Long Creek. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Arne Slinkard of Kinzua.

The bride wore a winter white suit. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Slinkard of Kinzua. Following their marriage they took a wedding trip to Klamath Falls. They will make their home in Fossil, as he is employed at the Kinzua mill.

Wayne Zornes of Chelan, Wn., is here visiting his sister and family, the Gene Vaughans.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gertson, Ruthanne and Donald Capon, were guests Tuesday evening, January 28, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Stricker of Spray, in honor of Mrs. Gertson's birthday.

A potluck dinner and farewell party were given Monday evening at the Legion-Grange hall for Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martin, who have been here with the state forestry service for many years. They are being transferred to Prineville. There were 56 present for the party and the couple was given a nice bedspread and cash present.

The Henry Martins were guests Saturday evening at the H. Cork home, on Sunday evening at the H. Copper home and on Tuesday evening at the W. Leathers home. They will stay at the Croker home until they move to Prineville.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Holmes, Lottie Foss and C. Holmes spent several days in Boise, Ida., last week, returning on Saturday.

Laura Lee Shank was home from John Day Sunday and Monday, before returning to her work there.
