

County Court Proceedings

County Court met in regular session on January 5, 1964. The minutes of the December term were read and approved.

It was moved, seconded, and carried that owners of dogs held in the Dog Pound will be assessed $1.00 per day, and must buy a dog license if dog is unlicensed, all of which must be paid before dog is reclaimed.

The following appointments were made: Harriet Evans, Hosp. Bd.; B. J. Doherty, Fair Bd.; Jasper Myers, Budget Comm.

The Heppner Gazette-Times was declared the Official Newspaper of the County.

The following bids were accepted: Shell Oil, gasoline; Standard Oil, Diesel Oil.

The Court agreed to pay $542.00, of which $300.00 was budgeted, the remainder to come out of the Emergency Fund, for a joint watermaster with Umatilla County.

A dance hall license was issued for the Lone Legion Post.

It was ordered that after March 1, dog license fees would be doubled.

Couple Resides In Prineville After Marriage

By MARTHA MATTESON

MONUMENT — Miss Arvilla Hunt became the bride of Duane Arnold Grassel on Saturday, February 8, at 2:00 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ansil Martin in Prineville.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Reeta Hinton of Monument. Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grassel of Spokane, Wn.

The Rev. Hazzard of the Prineville Community church performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by Ansil Martin, the bride wore a ballerina length dress of pink lace, with white accessories and a carnation corsage. Her maid of honor was Linda LaChapelle, wearing pale blue with white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Marshall Framong of Prineville served as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Martin home for 25 guests. Mrs. Henry Martin helped with the serving of the wedding cake, baked and decorated by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Martin of Prineville. They took a wedding trip to Spokane to visit his folks and now make their home in Prineville where he is employed at Wagner's Supermarket.

The bride attended Monument Grade and High schools.

Those going from Monument for the wedding were Mrs. Sam Scott and son Robert, Mrs. Reeta Hinton and children Gene, Etta, Diane and Alvin Hunt, and Miss Peggy Miller.

MMM club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Wava Jackson with Mrs. Reuben Baker as co-hostess. There was a good turnout with six visitors present. Members are making robes or coverettes for the elderly folk at the home in Prairie City.

Stanley Musgrave left Saturday morning for Bonanza to see his wife who is staying with their daughter and family while Mrs. Stewart is ill in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Rust, son and daughter, arrived Thursday from Tillamook to start work for the State Forestry Dept. Rust will take over the work of Henry Martin who had been here the past 10 years and seven months. Martins were transferred to Prineville and moved last Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Lora Ann Vaughan, Peggy Miller and Etta Hunt will be hostesses for a bridal shower Saturday, February 15, for Mrs. Cheryl Cross Slinkard. It will be at 1:00 p. m. in the school house.

Mrs. Judy Martin and two sons of Prineville spent Wednesday night visiting her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Johnson.

Contracts Let, Cemetery Move Gets Underway

By MARY LEE MARLOW

BOARDMAN — Work started last week on the moving of the Boardman Riverview cemetery to its new location which will be near the new city of Boardman. Hughes Construction Company of Pasco, Wn., got the bid for the work with a bid of $38,400. Contracts sublet by them went to Ralph Skoubo, Boardman, to move the shrubbery; Luther Correll, Umatilla, roads and parking area; Cyclone Fence Company, Portland, the fence; and Bill Ille, Hermiston, drilling the well. Ille has already started on the well water for the new cemetery will be pumped by electricity instead of gasoline, as the present one is serviced.

Zearl Gillespie, contracting agent, and chairman of the Cemetery Maintenance Board, stated he expects the moving of the graves will start about March 1, and hopes it will be finished by Memorial Day. Although the contractor has 180 days to complete the job, there will be 134 bodies to move. The cemetery was started in 1921 when Ezra Hopkins, 8 years of age, was buried.

Rebuilding Assistance Is Investigated

A motion was passed by the Boardman City Council last week for Mayor Dewey West to contact the necessary people in Arlington in regard to compiling a workable program such as was used by the city of Arlington as accepted by the Federal Housing Authority in getting the financial assistance for people in rebuilding of residential area and multiple units in the new city of Boardman.

In other action Mayor West turned over to the City Planning Commission the naming of the streets in the new town.

A motion was passed to purchase liability insurance for the city as recommended at the January meeting by city attorney M. D. Van Valkenburgh of The Dalles.

The City Planning Commission held a special meeting last week to discuss the subdivision and zoning ordinances for the city of Boardman, which will be a guide in the development of the new town and surrounding area. Further action was to be taken at another meeting called for February 11 at 7 p.m.

Six tables of pinochle were in play at the party at the grange hall last Friday night. Hostesses were Mrs. Bernard Donovan and Mrs. Walter Hayes.

High scores were won by Mrs. Peter Matz and Mrs. W. G. Seehafer, low went to Earl Briggs and Mrs. A. R. Fortner. The pinochle prizes were won by Harold Baker and Mrs. Leonard Bedord.

The next party at the hall will be February 21 at 8 p.m.

The Ladies Aid Society of Community church met last week at the home of Mrs. Seth Russell. Mrs. Florence Root conducted the missionary lesson, taking as her topic, "The Call of the Gospel Prophet."

The society voted to hold meetings on the first Wednesday of each month in the future, instead of two a month.

Members of the Irrigon Baptist church joined with the Boardman Community church in a Singing Sunday night. Special music included a saxophone solo, "In The Sweet By and By" by Luann Burg, accompanied on the piano by Carolyn Burg.

Saturday visitors at the home of Mrs. Florence Root were her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Mafford of Burns, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Al Mamber. Mrs. Root entertained with a dinner in honor of Mafford's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Russell went to The Dalles Sunday to visit overnight at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Russell.

Mrs. Russell Miller was in Corbett over the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Baker to attend the dinner in honor of the 91st birthday of Mrs. Effie Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Houston and children Leo and Arlene of La Grande were week-end visitors at the home of Mrs. Houston's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Potts.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Calif and children Danny, Cindy, Brian, Suzanne and Linda of Troutlake, Wn. visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marlow Friday.

The second mosaic workshop was held last Thursday and Friday at the home of Mrs. Clau Worden. Mrs. Arthur Allen and Mrs. Stan Hinkle were leaders. Twelve ladies finished the project, and two more observed.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Allen went to Granger, Wn. Sunday to visit overnight at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Allen.

Menus for Riverside High school and Boardman Grade school for the week of February 17-21 are as follows: Monday—scaloped potatoes with ham, vegetable sticks, tomatoes and cherry cobbler; Tuesday—chili beans with crackers, vegetable sticks and fruit; Wednesday—creamed chicken over toast, green beans, vegetable sticks, pino-

OUTPUT of hydroelectricity at massive High Mountain Sheep dam and powerhouse to be built on Snake River between Oregon and Idaho will be shared by Pacific Power & Light Company, one of four companies jointly sponsoring the $257-million multipurpose development.
