Rev. Robinson Speaks To Legion Families On American Freedom

In a brief message to families gathered at the meeting and potluck dinner of the American Legion and Auxiliary last Monday evening, the Rev. Kenneth Robinson stated that "America could lose her heritage of freedom if she fails to regain her vision of freedom's source. . . . Almighty God."

Pastor Robinson pointed to a number of examples in the nation that stem from "spiritual indifference;" the one-in-four divorce rate, the juvenile problem which points to a breakdown in authority and the racial crisis which points out individual hatreds and prejudices.

Approximately 55 persons attended the dinner that was followed by separate meetings of both organizations.

Dinner Precedes Elks Ladies Night Play

Ham loaf dinner with all the trimmings was cooked and served by the Soroptimists club last Thursday for the regularly scheduled Elks' Ladies Night.

Twelve tables of cards were enjoyed by bridge and pinochle enthusiasts later in the evening. Winning high in bridge competition was Mrs. Pat O'Brien, with Mrs. Gerald Jonasson second high. Mrs. Ed LaTrace held high pinochle score with Mrs. Calvin Sherman, second. The door prize for pinochle play was won by Mrs. Don Cole and Mrs. Earl Gilliam won the bridge door prize.

Hostesses for the evening included Mrs. Delmer Buschke, Mrs. Kenneth Cutsforth, Mrs. Matt Hughes, Mrs. Ralph Marlatt and Mrs. Terry Thompson.

Alice Huddleston To Wed in Alaska

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Huddleston of Valdez, Alaska, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Alice Rae, to Barry Lee Bergdoll, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bergdoll of Sitka, Alaska.

Miss Huddleston is the granddaughter of Frank Turner, Heppner. She is a junior at the University of Alaska in Fairbanks, majoring in Home Economics. Mr. Bergdoll is a senior at the university, majoring in civil engineering. They plan to be married in June.

Another daughter of the Huddlestons, Sally, is a sophomore, in Valdez High school where she is active in school events, and this year is one of four majorettes in the school.

Mrs. Huddleston has visited her father here on several occasions.

Joan E. Brubacher To Wed in Idaho

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne A. Brubacher announce the coming marriage of their daughter, Joan Elizabeth, to Gary Kenneth Bertsch on Saturday, February 29. Vows will be exchanged at the First Baptist church in Ustick, Idaho, at 8:00 p.m.

Mr. Bertsch is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Bertsch of Meridian, Ida., and is a sophomore at Idaho State University in Pocatello. He is a graduate of Meridian High school.

Miss Brubacher graduated from high school in Wallace, Idaho, where her father was school superintendent before coming to Heppner. She has been attending Idaho State University.

Elks Tournament Goes Into Final Session

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Casebeer moved into the lead in the Elks' pinochle tournament last Wednesday night with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards taking over second place.

Joining forces to have high score for the evening were Oliver Devin and Vern Viall. Mr. and Mrs. Max Buschke were second high of the ten tables in play.

The sixth and final session of this winter's pinochle tournament will begin next Wednesday evening in the Elks' temple at 7:30 p.m.
