(His Photo)

Donna Hayes Weds Stephen L. Leavitt

The marriage of Miss Deanna Lou Hayes and Stephen Linwood Leavitt was solemnized Saturday, January 18, in the St. Mary's Catholic church in Corvallis. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hayes, Corvallis, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warner of Lexington. Parents of the groom are Major and Mrs. Stanley Leavitt.

Father Deinger presided at the double ring ceremony in the church chapel. White stock and white spider chrysanthemums accented with emerald green ribbons provided decorations. Organist was Mrs. Odella J. Wilson.

Escorted by her father, the bride was gowning in a white brocade satin, floor-length gown which featured an empire waistline, scoop neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. Her short veil was held by a simple white bow. She carried a white orchid with cascade of white satin streamers.

Maid of honor was Candace Hayes, sister of the bride, wearing a blue on green brocade street-length dress. Her head-dress was of matching material with short blue veil. She carried a colonial-style bouquet of white carnations and emerald green ribbons.

The bridesmaids, Dorothy Cornwell and Linda Leavitt, sister of the groom, wore dresses similar to the maid of honor's but in solid blue brocade, and carried identical bouquets.

Garry Sandstrom served as best man and ushers were David Rawey and Jerry Fuller.

A reception followed in the rectory hall. Mrs. Thomas Rhoads, aunt of the groom, and Mrs. Homer Hayes, aunt of the bride, both of Portland, poured. Cutting the cake was Mrs. Betty Ford. Mrs. Richard Adams served the cake.

Mrs. Britton Price, sister of the bride, attended the guest book and Mrs. Neil Hayden handled the gifts.

For going away the bride chose a blue wool suit with matching walking coat. Her accessories were black and her sage a white orchid. Their wedding trip was to Neskowin on the coast.

The bride, who had lived in Lexington and attended schools there, was graduated from Corvallis High school in 1962. She attended Oregon State University, where she is now employed as a secretary. Her father, Clarence Hayes, was born and educated in Heppner and her mother, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Warner, was born and raised in Lexington.

Mrs. Warner went to Corvallis to be present for the wedding.

The groom was a graduate of Highland High school in Albuquerque, N. M., in 1960. He is employed by the G & J Tire Service in Corvallis, where they now make their home.

Trampoline Trio Due to Perform

Ione's crack trampoline team will demonstrate routines which they have worked up for the forthcoming Oregon State High school championship gymnastic meet when they appear Saturday night, February 22, between the halves of the Jayvees basketball game with Umapine at Ione.

The team, composed of Tom Heimbigner, Mark Halvorsen and Joe Halvorsen, are preparing for the state meet which will be at MacArthur court, Eugene, on March 7 with the University of Oregon host for the meet.

The boys, busy with other sports and school work, have been having difficulty arranging practices but feel that the routines are at least 20% better than last year when they scored high in the state competition with Tom placing second, Mark in a tie for fourth and Joe in sixth place.

University of Oregon Gymnastics Coach Rich Smith says that the state entry list is expected to be at least three times as big as last year so preliminary contests will be at 1 p.m. with finals to follow at 7 p.m. Only those contestants who place in the top 10 in the preliminaries will be allowed to compete in the finals.

The appearance on February 22 in Ione will be the first time that the boys have demonstrated a competitive routine in this area. It is quite different from exhibition trampolining. Requirements are more exacting and a sustained effort is necessary to complete the required number of stunts in the prescribed manner.

Another trampoline demonstration will be during the Helix game on Saturday, February 15, at Ione. Featured performers will be Frank Halvorsen, who has appeared throughout the Northwest in various exhibitions, and Scot and Todd Sherer, the youngest trampoline performers in the entire country. The boys are cousins of Tom Heimbigner. Also appearing will be Laurie Childers.

Eugene Dockter's grade school tumbling class will be featured in a tumbling demonstration during the half of the "A" game with Umapine.

Ione school coach Dick Strait and Ray Heimbigner are working together with the trampolinists in the hope of coming up with winning routines.

The Umapine game will be Ione's last home game off the 1963-64 season. Those attending will not only see the final contest but will be well entertained by the dedicated young trampoline athletes.

Ponies Split Pair With Condon Here

By KIT ANDERSON

The Heppner Ponies, with each team going its separate way, split two games with the Condon Demons here Saturday. The Ponies' A team upped its winning streak to five games in a row, but the Heppner B team lost its fourth game in five starts as the Demon B team walked away with 37-25 victory.

The Condon B team was out to brand its earlier loss to Heppner as a fluke and in doing so, led all the way. With Heppner losing two of its starting five via the foul route, Condon made an easy show of the game and ending up with a 12 point bulge.

Condon was without its tall center, John Rinehart, who was sick and put up a good fight, but the Heppner A team salvaged a 40-36 victory. The Ponies took a five point lead at the half, 14-9, but the Demons' A team narrowed it to 23-20 at the end of the third quarter. The Heppner boys upped it to 40-34 with eight seconds left and Coach Clint Agee cleared the bench for the first time. Condon got a quick two points but time ran out and Heppner took a 40-36 win. Dave Hall continued to top game scoring.

The Ponies play at Ione Friday at 1:30 p.m.

Visiting since last Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wagenblast is Mrs. Jack Corwin of Tampa, Fla., sister of Mrs. Wagenblast. She came by plane to be near their ill father, Alex McLeod at the Wagenblast home, and to visit other relatives in the area. Spending this week with them is another sister, Mrs. George Kruger of Spokane, Wn.

'Must' Series Faces Heppner In Road Trip

Heppner's basketball Mustangs have their work cut out for them in no uncertain terms this weekend as they hit the road for a crucial two-game series with Burns' Hillanders and Grant Union's Prospectors.

A sweep of the series would assure the Heppnerites at least a tie for the league crown in the western division of the Greater Oregon league. A split or two losses could be detrimental to the Mustangs' title hopes.

Friday night the Mustangs will lock horns with Grant's quint. Earlier in the season, the Mustangs met the Prospectors in Heppner and completely outclassed the Grant county club to gain a 58-37 decision.

Things should be different for this meeting as the Prospectors are tough in their own, small gymnasium. Grant is currently perched in the number four position in the league with a 4-4 record. Heppner is atop the standings with a record of 6-1 following its defeat by Sherman in last Friday's game.

Saturday, the Mustangs will journey to Burns to meet the high-powered Burns crew. The Hillanders have the size and speed and enjoy the home court advantage in this meeting with the Heppner squad. The Hillanders will try to reverse the earlier 68-45 drubbing that the Mustangs handed them on the Heppner floor.

Ron Berg and Corky Palmer head the Burns attack which is built around a sizzling fast break. Berg, at 6-5, is a threat on the inside and on the boards, while Palmer handles the outside shooting chores and the ball handling load.

Heppner will look for another all-around effort from its whole team.

Kenneth K. Blake Dies Tuesday At Walla Walla

Kenneth K. Blake, 64, resident of Morrow county most of his life, died Tuesday afternoon in the Veterans' hospital, Walla Walla, Wn., after a long illness. He had been hospitalized for two weeks after falling at his home here and breaking his hip. A paralytic stroke followed while he was in the hospital.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at All Saints' Episcopal church with Father C. Bruce Spencer officiating. The Heppner Legion post will conduct graveside services at the Heppner Masonic cemetery.

Mr. Blake was born in Ione on August 25, 1899, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard J. Blake. His father had a ranch there and later operated a butcher shop.

For a number of years Kenneth Blake managed the Heppner unit of the Morrow County Grain Growers, holding that position until fire destroyed the local plant in 1949. He then went to Redmond where he managed the Central Oregon Farm Supply for a number of years before returning to retire in Heppner about 10 years ago. He had been in ill health for much of this time.

Mr. Blake was a member of the Heppner post, American Legion, and served in the army during World War I. He formerly was a member of the Masonic and Odd Fellows lodge.

He was married in July, 1918, to Snoda Cook, and she survives. Other survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Bethal (Paul) Heinrichs

Golf Clubhouse Work Proceeds

Few workers turned out to help on the Willow Creek golf clubhouse last week-end, but those who came did a "wonderful job," according to Clint McQuarrie, club president.

About 10 were present to help and considerable was accomplished, but it had been hoped that a larger number would respond.

Work will continue every week-end until the job is done, McQuarrie said, and he urged members to turn out. There are about 60 members in the club.

A porch has been installed on the clubhouse and windows have been put in place. Knotty pine paneling is going up inside at the present time.

of Heppner; and two sons, Darrell J. Blake of Portland and Willard A. Blake of Heppner; eight grandchildren; and two brothers, Mearl Blake and Ted W. Blake, both of Portland.
