

Mrs. Ealor Huston Dies in Albany

Mrs. Ealor Huston, 92, who with her husband formerly operated a grocery store here, died in Albany Monday.

Funeral services will be Thursday, February 20, at 2 p.m. at the First Christian church, Albany, with the Rev. Lester Jones and the Rev. Charles Knox officiating. Interment will be in an Albany cemetery.

Mrs. Huston left Heppner about four years ago to live with a nephew, Kenneth Bloom, at Albany. Her husband had preceded her in death.

She is survived by a daughter, living in Salem. Sisters-in-law living here are Mrs. Clive Huston and Mrs. Etta Huston.

A complete obituary will be printed next week.

Saddlery Shop Opens This week

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Gray, formerly of Pendleton, are opening a saddlery shop this week in one of the street floor spaces of the Heppner Hotel at 136 East Willow. The business will be known as "Gray's Saddlery."

Gray is completing his work this week at Hamley and Co. in Pendleton, where he has worked in custom making and repair of saddles and in other leather tooling, for which the company has become famous.

Gray received his training in the leather work at Porter's of Arizona. He has had six years experience in the trade and feels that he can serve people in this area in all their repairing needs, as well as offer custom made saddles and other tooled leather goods.

He invites residents in the area to stop in and become acquainted.

7-B Tournament Due at Hermiston February 27-29

Eight teams of the Umatilla-Morrow B league will participate in a sub-district basketball tournament in the Hermiston High school gym on Thursday through Saturday, February 27 through 29.

In the new procedure this year, all but one of the league's nine teams will participate in the sub-district tournament while the southern sub-district is also holding its tournament. Champion teams of the two sub-district will then compete in a best two of three series for the right to enter the state B tournament.

In the past few years, the state tournament entrant has been determined in a district tournament.

Athena, running undefeated in the league, must be considered the tournament favorite, but it will get strong opposition from Weston, now in second place, and Riverside High school in third.

First round on Thursday, February 27, will find the league's No. 1 team playing the No. 8 team at 2:45, to be followed by No. 4 vs. No. 5 at 4:15. In the evening, No. 3 will play No. 6 at 7 p.m. and No. 2 will face No. 7 at 8:30.

Two afternoon games and two evening games will follow on each of the following two days.

Jones' Cardinals will participate in the tournament, although their placing is not definitely known at this time.

Shermans Attend Press Conference

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Sherman left Wednesday night for Eugene to attend the 45th annual Oregon press conference. Sherman is chairman of the conference this year.

Eric Allen Memorial speaker is Barry Bingham, editor and publisher of the Louisville Courier-Journal. The conference will be held in the student union building at the University of Oregon and at the Eugene Hotel, concluding with luncheon Saturday at noon following Oregon Newspaper Publishers association meetings Saturday morning.

Notice of Candidacy

I hereby announce my candidacy to succeed myself for the office of Sheriff of Morrow County subject to the will of the Republican voters of Morrow County at the Primary election, May 15, 1964.

Surgery Delayed

Mrs. Stanley (Shirley) Cox, who had expected to undergo heart surgery early this year, is scheduled for more checkups in Portland next month, with tests to follow. Because of the added tests, she does not expect to be admitted for surgery until some time next fall. She is at home and able to do light work, but tires easily, she reports.

Mattoons Return To Operate Hotel

Mr. and Mrs. Al Mattoon of Sherwood, who operated Hotel Heppner for a period of three years until December, 1959, resumed operation of the hotel this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Struckmeier and family, who bought the hotel in early 1961, have moved to a ranch on Butter Creek where he has been working for some time.

The Mattoons have been engaged in the real estate business at Sherwood. He plans to continue in this business, since much of his time was spent in traveling to other areas.

The Struckmeiers traded their 212-acre ranch at Scio to Darrell Schei as a part of the transaction for the hotel. He had operated the business here from December, 1959, to early 1961.

Mrs. Struckmeier is commercial teacher at Heppner High school.

Christian Church Project Underway

A complete remodeling and redecorating project at the Heppner Christian church is well underway, the Rev. Charles Knox, pastor, states. The total job will cost approximately $10,000.

New concrete floor has been poured in the basement, and floor tile will be laid over it. New kitchen cabinets are being installed, and new lighting will replace the old, both upstairs and downstairs.

The upstairs will be entirely redecorated, and electric heat will be added in the study, three classrooms and the chapel. A new entrance to the kitchen is being constructed, and new steps to the sanctuary will replace the old ones.

Howard Keithley is contractor on the job and Lot's Electric is doing electrical work, the Rev. Knox said.

It is hoped to have the project virtually completed by mid-March.

Money left to the church in two wills provided a portion of the funds for the project, the minister said.

Committee Formed To Offer Support Here on Colleges

head the county group. Others will be asked to serve, and it is expected that the organization will meet once each month.

One of the first purposes will be to disseminate information on the forthcoming bond proposal in order that the public understand it and the need for it.

Abrams discussed with the State System representatives how Blue Mountain Community College fits into the picture. A director of BMC district board, Abrams pointed out that hope for the future of the college lies in the forthcoming bond issue since this appears to be the one practical hope of providing for new buildings for the college in Pendleton. Present buildings are outgrown, and one portion of the college is held in the upstairs of the junior high school building, downstairs of which is used for the junior high students. Abrams said it is quite possible that the Pendleton city school system will need the upstairs space and ask the college to move. It will have no place to go.

Diel brought out the fact that 74 students of Morrow county were enrolled in colleges and universities of the State System of Higher Education in 1962-63, as follows: Eastern Oregon College, 27; Oregon State University, 23; University of Oregon, 12; Portland State College, 4; Oregon Technical Institute, 4; Oregon College of Education, 3; Southern Oregon College, 1.

Additional students are enrolled in community colleges, as well as in private colleges and universities in the state.

"Both state and county CFOP committees are concerned with interpreting the problems of higher education to the people—especially the need for additional classroom buildings to accommodate the tidal wave of students expected on all campuses in the immediate future." Chairman Sprague said in announcing the statewide committee's plans.

Mrs. Ernest Heliker of Ione plans to embark on a 12 day sight-seeing trip of the Hawaiian Islands on February 28. Her plans are to leave for Seattle, Wn., February 25, where she will join her daughter, Mrs. Harriet Bowman, who will accompany her on to Hawaii.

Scout Banquet Draws Big Crowd

Fifty pounds of barbecued beef, served with mashed potatoes and brown gravy, green beans, salad, homemade biscuits, dessert and all the trimmings provided delicious fare for those attending the Boy Scout banquet held in the high school multipurpose room Saturday evening.

Boy Scout troops 600 and 686 barbecued the beef at the Paul Warren place and with some assistance from Mrs. Warren and Mrs. Joe Hartle, prepared and served the meal themselves.

Scoutmaster Claude Burt of Hermiston spoke of some amusing and interesting experiences which had taken place at scout camps out in the Wallowa Lake country.

Mike and Steve Hedman, who recently completed their tenderfoot requirements, were inducted into the Boy Scouts by Ernest Christopherson, scoutmaster, in a candlelight ceremony. The boys were presented their scout pins by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnie Hedman. Don Wike of Pendleton, who is the Oregon Trail District scout leader, presented a rousing talk on appreciation of our American heritage.

About 90 persons were served at the banquet which in addition to the Boy Scouts, attracted a good representation of local Cub Scouts.

The evening, termed very successful, was concluded with an enjoyable film about the National Boy Scout Jamboree held annually in parts of the United States.
