Elks Officers Wives Entertain Saturday For Social Afternoon

While husbands attended the annual meeting of the Elks Lodge No. 358 Saturday, approximately 80 women convened at the Catholic Parish hall for an afternoon of bridge, pinochle and general socializing.

Mrs. Lee Stewart, The Dalles, was the high scorer of the 13 tables of bridge in play, Mrs. Sylvia Wells was second high and Mrs. Elaine George was third.

Nine tables of pinochle play saw Mrs. Gerald Rea first in the scoring tally with Mrs. Stacey Lovgren, second, and Miss Esther Bergstrom, third.

Door prize winners were Mrs. Wilbur Worden, Mrs. Gene Ferguson, Mrs. Charlie Beckett, Mrs. Prudy Casebeer, Mrs. Ilene Wyman and Mrs. Delmer Buschke.

Hostesses for the afternoon were Elks' officers wives Mrs. Pat O'Brien, Mrs. Wallace Wolff, Mrs. Jerry Daggett, Mrs. Bob Brindle, Mrs. Clint Agee, Mrs. Darrell Padberg, Mrs. Claude Graham, Mrs. Glen Ward, Mrs. Marshall Lovgren, Mrs. Kenneth Turner, Mrs. Bob Platt, Mrs. LeRoy Gardner, Mrs. LaVerne Van Marter and Mrs. Bill Collins.

WCSA Speaker To Talk on India

Mrs. Marion Weatherford of Arlington will be guest speaker at the regular meeting of the Methodist Woman's Society of Christian Service Wednesday evening, March 4. The group will meet in the church parlors starting at 8:00 p.m.

Mrs. Weatherford will show slides and discuss the travels which she and her husband took in Northern India last year. The program is in keeping with the mission emphasis on countries of the Southern Asia area during the 1963-64 year.

Anyone interested in increasing knowledge and concepts of the under-developed areas is invited to attend the meeting.

Mrs. Bill Farra and Mrs. Archie Padberg are co-hostesses for the evening.

Couples Tie for Top Spot in Tournament

Final tabulations revealed a tie for first place between Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Casebeer and Mr. and Mrs. Ed LaTrace as the Elks' annual pinochle tournament drew to a close last Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Matt Hughes finished in third place.

Other prize winners in the scoring column included Miss Esther Bergstrom teaming with Mrs. Bob Dobbs, fourth; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Richards, fifth, and Mrs. Prudy Casebeer and Frank Turner, last.

Morrow Homesteader Sees Century Mark; Observes 100th Year

Congratulations were extended an Oregon centennial n, George W. Thompson, homesteader in the Heppner area in the early 1900's, on his 100th birthday, February 14, at his home at 106 N. E. 1st Avenue, Milton-Freewater.

Spending the day with him were his daughter, Mrs. Lena Queen of Pendleton; his grandson and family of Eugene; granddaughter and family of Pendleton; daughter, Mrs. Delbert Jackson and family from Weiser, Idaho, relatives and friends in Milton-Freewater.

Among his many good wishes was a letter of congratulations from Pres. Lyndon B. Johnson. Mr. Thompson attended the Memorial Day picnic in Heppner three years ago. He has been active and in good health up until undergoing surgery last spring.

Born February 14, 1864 at Boliver, Mo., he came to Drain, Ore., in 1890, returned to Missouri in 1895 and was married. He and his wife moved to Heppner where they homesteaded and lived on a wheat ranch. In 1914 they sold the ranch and moved to Weiser, Idaho, living on a farm until 1926, when they moved back to Heppner. They moved to Milton-Freewater in 1944.

His wife, three sons and one daughter are buried at the Heppner cemetery. Four living children are Mrs. Queen, Pendleton; Mrs. Delbert Jackson, Weiser; Mrs. Jackson, Stockton, Calif., and George Thompson, Phoenix, Ariz.

Rebekahs Announce UN Speaking Contest; To Assist Convention

Coming events of Sans Souci Rebekah lodge were discussed at the last regular session, with Noble Grand Prudy Casebeer presiding.

March 8 was announced as the date for the annual United Nations Pilgrimage for Youth speaking contest in Pendleton. Representatives from ten high schools in Morrow and Umatilla counties are signed up to compete in the contest. Mrs. M. N. Kirk, chairman, reported that Anita Groves would be the contestant from Heppner High school.

Plans were made for assisting Willows IOOF as hosts of the Odd Fellows' District Convention to be held here Saturday, February 29. A large registration of out-of-town lodge guests is expected to attend, with dinner served by Sans Souci members at 6:30 p.m. under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frank Ayers. Ladies will be entertained with a card party in the TV room.

Members having birthdays in January, February and March will be honored at the March 6 meeting. A visitor of the evening was Mrs. Earl Eskelson of Lexington Holly lodge.

Mrs. Alice Luttrell was installed as outside guardian, after illness had prevented her from attending the January installation. Mrs. Eugenia Huston, musician, was reported ill and Mrs. Ayers and Mrs. Lucille Parrish reported visiting patients in the hospital.

Mrs. Robert Riddle was chairman of the refreshment committee which served during the social hour.

Rhea Creek Extension Club to Serve Dinner

Mrs. Ben Anderson, chairman, presided at a business meeting of the Rhea Creek Home Extension club last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Elmer Palmer. Menu and plans for serving the 4-H leaders dinner to be held March 14 were the main items of business.

During the next regular grange meeting on March 13, members having birthdays during the first three months of the year will be honored. It will be at the home of Mrs. Ray Drake.

Thursday (today) will be a cleanup day at the grange hall. Rest rooms have just been installed in the grange hall by the members and Avery Taylor, carpenter, and his helper.

Attending the meeting and the potluck dinner prior to the meeting were Mrs. John Graves, Mrs. Dean Graves, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Harold Wright, Mrs. William Bergstrom, Mrs. Mary Wright, Mrs. Evelyn Farness, Miss Marilyn Bergstrom, Mrs. Orian Wright, Mrs. Leonard Rill, Mrs. Ray Drake, Mrs. Walter Wright, Mrs. Ray Wright and the hostess, Mrs. Palmer.

Biddies to Meet

Lexington Co-op Biddies will meet Tuesday, March 3, at 10 a.m. at the country home of Mrs. Ewing Hynd of Cecil. Potluck lunch will be served.

Houseguests at the home of Mrs. Ora Evans on Sunday were close friends, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Halstead and son, Jann, of The Dalles. Other dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ned Sweek and family and Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Sherman and family.

Episcopal Dinner Follows Confirmation

The Rt. Rev. and Mrs. Lane W. Barton of Bend, were special guests at a potluck dinner held Sunday in the All Saints' Episcopal church parish hall. The Rt. Rev. Barton is Bishop of the missionary district of Eastern Oregon.

Twenty persons were presented to Bishop Barton for confirmation prior to the dinner that was well attended by approximately 140 persons.

Ladies of the church were in charge of the dinner arrangements.

Birthdays Observed At Club Meeting

Carnation club of Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge met at the home of Mrs. Prudy Casebeer for its February meeting. Four members, who had birthdays in January, February and March, drew packages from the birthday box. Those honored were Mrs. Alice Luttrell, Mrs. John Bergstrom, Mrs. Casebeer and Mrs. Don Townsend.

Table games were played following the meeting. Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Townsend.

Odd Fellows to Meet Saturday for Annual District Convention

Willows IOOF Lodge, Heppner, will be host to the 51st annual Umatilla-Morrow County Odd Fellows District Convention at the lodge hall on Saturday, February 29.

Randall Peterson will preside at the district meeting, with James Personette, vice-president elect; H. L. Warner, secretary, and Andrew Zessin, treasurer, completing the slate of district officers.

The afternoon meeting will start at 1:30 p.m. with lodges from Lexington, Hermiton, Athena, Echo, Pendleton, Milton-Freewater and Weston participating in the program. Wives of those attending will be guests of Sans Souci Rebekahs at an afternoon card party.

The evening program will include a 6:30 banquet, prepared and served by Sans Souci lodge, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Frank Ayers.

The evening program, beginning at 7:30, will provide a variety of entertainment.

Several state grand lodge officers are expected to be present.

Ex-Resident Hurt

Charles Latourell, justice of the peace at Cascade Locks and former Heppner resident, was injured in an auto accident between Hood River and Cascade Locks about a week ago, according to Mrs. Armin Wihlon of Lexington. The report this week is that he is recovering satisfactorily from neck injuries sustained. Mrs. Wihlon said that brakes on Latourell's car froze, causing him to stop instantly, and the car behind crashed into his auto. Latourell is 84. He was taken to the Hood River hospital for treatment. He was a resident for many years and returns rather frequently to participate in trapshoots with friends.

Mrs. Raymond French flew to Stratford, Conn., February 10 for two weeks to visit her mother, Mrs. Nettie Denton, who is 91. Mrs. French returned home this week and reports that Mrs. Denton is improving from her illness. Mrs. Denton usually makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. French but she is in Connecticut for the winter and is visiting with an-
