IOOF District Meet Calls Dignitaries Here

Sixty-two Odd Fellows and 47 Rebekahs registered here Saturday when Willows IOOF Lodge, No. 66, was host to the Umattila Morrow County Odd Fellows district convention, the 51st observance of this event.

Lexington Lodge No. 168, presented the flag as the business meeting opened at 2 p.m., followed by roll call of past district presidents and grand lodge officers. Among the visiting dignitaries were D. W. Davis, Milton-Freewater, grand lodge chaplain; Roy Tierney, Pendleton, grand representative; Walter Murphy, Reedsport, past grand master of grand lodge of Oregon; Guy Mayfield, Walla Walla, past grand master of grand lodge of the State of Washington.

Randall Peterson, president, presided at the afternoon meeting. Other district officers were Alva Alberts of Pendleton, vice-president; H. B. Warner of Milton-Freewater, secretary; Andrew Zessin of Milton-Freewater, treasurer. The business meeting included reports of finances and activities of lodges in the district. Included were Hermiston, Lexington, Athena, Echo, Pendleton, Milton-Freewater, Weston and Heppner.

Draping of the charter was conducted by members of the Milton-Freewater Lodge No. 202. Coffee and cookies served by the Sans Souci Rebekahs No. 33, were enjoyed by lodge members at a 3 p.m. coffee break. Wives of those attending were entertained by the Sans Souci lodge at an afternoon card party.

A variety type program provided an evening of entertainment following a steak dinner prepared and served by the local Rebekahs. Mrs. Frank Ayers was chairman of the dinner committee, assisted by Mrs. Larry Cook, Mrs. Jerry Rood and Mrs. Lincoln Nash.

The audience enjoyed a tour of the world via dances representing various countries by Mrs. Yana Moore's dancing class. Germany was the first country visited with dancing by Janie Mattair, assistant teacher. Next, representing Egypt, was Debbie Moore, and finally New York with its "Midnight Follies" by Ruby Fullerton, Sarah Miller, Sheri O'Brien, Jenny Blake and Sally Morgan.

There were several electric guitar instrumental selections by a trio composed of Lyle Hopper, Dave Gilgore and Bob Massey. Jim Gordon and Leonard Toll provided additional musical entertainment with several singing and guitar numbers.

Striking a humorous note, a foursome who call themselves "The Insects," pantomimed a hit record by "The Beatles." The Insects, long hair and all, included Roger Leonnig, John Cox, Tim Smith and Jeff Turner.

Marsha Rand presented a talk on her trip to New York in July of 1963 that was sponsored by the Heppner Odd Fellows and Rebekahs.

Drum, Bugle Corps Get Top Reception At Legion Meeting

The Ranger Drum and Bugle Corps, a recently organized group from Pendleton, performed Monday evening at a well attended meeting and potluck dinner of the American Legion, Post 41, and Auxiliary at the Legion hall, Lee Allen, Legionnaire, who is past vice-commander of district 8 in Oregon, directed the Rangers in an interesting drum demonstration and several drum and bugle solos along with a number of selections by the corps.

The baked ham provided by the post for the potluck dinner was prepared by Mrs. Don Munkers. Mrs. Doyle Key and Mrs. Delmer Buschke arranged the hall to seat the 75 who were present for the dinner. Mrs. C. J. D. Bauman was in charge of decorations and a spring-like atmosphere prevailed with bouquets of daffodils furnished by Mrs. Rilev Munkers.

Drawing the winning door prize numbers were Mrs. Sylvia Wells and D. E. Hudson.

The business meeting of the Auxiliary was devoted mainly to the annual observance of the American Legion birthday to be held at the hall Sunday, March 15, at 7 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

Formulating plans for doing repair work on the Legion hall in the near future was the main issue discussed at the Legion business meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bailey, formerly of Heppner and now of Condon, were guests, along with Mrs. J. R. McDonald of Pendleton, and Bob Lowe.

Degree of Honor Honors Past Member At Memorial Service

Kate J. Young Lodge No. 29, Degree of Honor Protective Association, met in regular session Tuesday evening, February 25, at the Episcopal parish hall with President Lucille Parrish conducting the meeting.

A memorial service was held for the late James Ware, a member of the lodge, who died recently at his home in Corvallis. A copy of the letter of sympathy sent to the family was read to those attending.

The death of another member, Mrs. Helen Brown, on February 21 at her home in Monument was reported and a letter of sympathy was instructed to be sent to her family. A memorial service will be held for her at the next regular meeting March 10. A donation to the cancer fund will be made in her memory.

Sunshine chairman, Mrs. Doris Robinson, reported that Joe Hughes was ill and in the hospital, and that Nathan Hiatt of Park Rose lodge, Portland, was in a hospital following a heart attack. Mr. and Mrs. Hiatt have been frequent visitors in the lodge here.

It was decided to hold a contest, with prizes for perfection and consolation gags for failures given to stimulate interest and enthusiasm in learning ritualistic work. Judges will be Mrs. Earl Soward, ritual counselor, Mrs. Martha King and Mrs. Theta Stratton, past ritual counselors. Mrs. Ron Hagewood is chairman of the committee to award prizes.

Mrs. Bill Farra, secretary, read a letter from the national president regarding the state convention to be held April 20 and 21 at the Benson Hotel in Portland. The drill team will put on a performance at that time.

Royal Pair Reign At Sweetheart Ball

King Ken Wright and Queen Phyllis Nelson reigned over a fantasyland named "Garden of Dreams," the theme of this year's Sweetheart Ball. The annual event, sponsored by the FFA and FHA, was held Saturday evening. Ken is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wright of Heppner and Queen Phyllis is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Nelson, Lexington.

Decorations carrying out the garden theme were in abundance throughout the high school multipurpose room, where the semi-formal ball was held. Credit goes to the wishing well. The artistic talents of Erna Lynn Winchester, who was in charge of decorations, were evident as one viewed such things as the white branched trees adorned with red hearts and a pair of flamingos standing beside a placid pool.

Strawberry punch and cookies were served to the some 45 couples attending. Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brindle, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Batty, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Van Winkle, Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Healy, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Daggett and Mr. and Mrs. Everett Struckmeier.

Four New Members Initiated Monday Into Ruth Assembly

Four new members were initiated into Ruth Assembly No. 50, Order of Rainbow for Girls, Monday evening. Initiates were Jill Padberg, Linda Orwick, Jeanine Hunt and Pam Hughes. Jeanine's mother, Mrs. Dean Hunt, a charter member of the assembly, gave a short greeting to the new members. Mrs. Tom Hughes presented her daughter, Pam, with the Rainbow Girls' pin that was presented to her when she was initiated.

Mrs. Lowell Gribble and Mrs. Charles Stout poured at the reception given the new members following the business meeting. Mrs. Harold Becket, grand deputy to the Order of Rainbow for Girls in Oregon, was present for the occasion.

Brenda Young, worthy advisor, presided at the business meeting where it was decided that March 26 would be the date set for the annual Rainbow Girls' candy sale.

March 10, (Tuesday) is the date set for the Father-Daughter banquet. The original banquet date was changed because of a conflicting occasion falling on the same date. The dinner will be held in the Masonic hall, beginning at 6:30 p.m.

Tell the advertiser you saw it in the Gazette-Times.

Speaker Illustrated Use of Color Choices At Mothers' Meeting

Miss Esther Kirmis, Morrow county extension agent, stimulated members of the Heppner Mothers' club to new and wider use of color in the home in her illustrated talk Monday evening. The group met at the home of Mrs. Charles Knox, with Mrs. Wes Sherman assisting.

Roll call was answered with each member telling her favorite colors. Reports of the dinner served in February were heard and Mrs. Anita Stockard, president, expressed appreciation to those who helped in its success.

The 30-minute color slide program, "Come Catch a Rainbow," was narrated by Miss Kirmis. The slides are designed to show homemakers the many colors currently available for use in home decoration and to illustrate various color schemes and unusual ways to use color. She is also presenting it to extension units over the county this month so there will be an opportunity for many women to enjoy the interesting presentation throughout the month.

Book of Oregon Reviewed by Club

"East of the Cascades," a book by Phil Brogan of Bend, was reviewed by Mrs. Ted Smith last Tuesday when the Bookworms met at the home of Mrs. Lucy Peterson.

The book held a special interest for Mrs. Smith who was personally acquainted with the author when she was a resident of Bend.

Brogan was a member of the Bend Bulletin staff for 43 years and has written many articles on Oregon geology and history, concentrating mainly on Central Oregon. His articles are now appearing almost weekly in The Oregonian.

"East of the Cascades" now in its second printing is for sale locally and also available at the public library.

Others attending the meeting were Mrs. Jim Thomson, Mrs. Bob Abrams, Mrs. Herman Winter, Mrs. Don Turner, Mrs. Agnes Flug, Mrs. Harold Becket, Mrs. Lester Cox and Mrs. J. O. Turner.

Notice of Candidacy

I hereby announce my candidacy to succeed myself for the office of Sheriff of Morrow County subject to the will of the Republican voters of Morrow County at the Primary election, May 15, 1964.
