Cleanup Included In Lodge Activities

By DELPHA JONES

LEXINGTON—A Clean-Up day at the Lexington IOOF hall was held Sunday afternoon preceded by a potluck dinner. Cupboards were cleaned and dinner was prepared by the Rebekahs while the Odd Fellows cleaned the grounds beside the building, preparing it for the planned park. Later in the day they cleaned the front room of the building to prepare it for a meeting hall at a later date.

Those present were Mrs. Bertha Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Padberg, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Majeske, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones and Mrs. Florence McMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Henderson and children of La Grande were Sunday visitors at the Alonzo Henderson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ken Palmer were Portland visitors this week, taking their daughter, Mrs. Ron Crabtree, and small son, Scott, to their home there. Scott has been visiting with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Crabtree and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Palmer, and great grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Marshall, for a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kilkenny have returned home after a two weeks visit in Mexico City, Mexico. They left from Portland two weeks ago by jet, returning home on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Cutsforth attended the State Democratic Convention in Corvallis last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Munkers and niece, Theresa Munkers, were overnight visitors in Burns on Saturday.

The following ladies attended the card party and banquet at the Odd Fellow district convention Saturday afternoon, Bertha Hunt, Mrs. A. F. Majeske, Mrs. C. C. Jones, Mrs. Florence McMillan and Mrs. Oris Padberg and Mrs. Ed Hunt. Odd Fellows from Lexington present for the banquet were Oris Padberg, Cecil Jones, A. F. Majeske and Ed Hunt.

Mrs. Dean Hunt entertained on Thursday with a Heart Fund coffee hour. Those present were Mrs. Mervin Leonard, Mrs. Eldon Padberg, Mrs. Lester Cox, Mrs. Art Watkins, Mrs. Johnnie Ledbetter and the hostess, Mrs. Hunt.

lodge met at the home of Mrs. Alonzo Henderson with a luncheon meeting last Wednesday afternoon. Plans for the April 8 meeting were discussed. At this time Lexington is planning to entertain Heppner PNG club of San Souci. Those present were Mrs. William Smethurst, Mrs. Merle Cornelson, Mrs. Oris Padberg, Mrs. Archie Munkers, Mrs. Florence McMillan and the hostess and co-hostess, Mrs. C. C. Jones.

Holly Rebekah lodge met last Thursday night for its regular meeting. At this time the charter was draped in honor of Mrs. Helen Christianson Brown of Monument. This was done by the following members dressed in white carrying the pink roses: Mrs. William Smethurst, Mrs. Florence McMillan, Mrs. Archie Munkers, Mrs. Charles Colley, Mrs. Joe Yocom and Mrs. Charlie Padberg. Following the meeting games were played and later refreshments were served both the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs in the dining room. The tables were decorated in a clever St. Patrick motif with the dessert being green pie with white topping.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Van Winkle and Mrs. Edna Munkers were Pendleton visitors one day last week.

Card Party Series Ends

The last of the series of the six card parties was held on Saturday night at the IOOF hall. Prizes for the series were given, with pinocle women's high going to Marilyn Bergstrom, men's high to Frank Robinson, women's low to Mrs. Elsie Ayres and men's low to Frank Turner. Bridge prizes were as follows: women's high, Mrs. C. C. Carmichael; women's low, Mrs. Gene Cutsforth; men's high, Bill VanWinkle, and men's low, Gene Cutsforth. The prizes were ceramics made by Mrs. Alonzo Henderson assisted by Mrs. C. C. Jones. Plans are to start the same time next year and with a series of six games.

Group To Have Speaker

Women's Fellowship Group is scheduled to meet Tuesday, March 17, with Mrs. Effie Ritchie of Milton-Freewater as speaker. Members and friends are urged to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Messenger, Sr., of Mitchell spent the weekend in Lexington visiting with their daughters and families.

Mrs. Bill B. Marquardt has been on the sick list the past couple of weeks.

Don't forget Lexington Grange Saturday night. Potluck dinner is at 6:30.

Date Set, Committees At Work on Plans For Church Benefit

IONE—Members of the Ione United Church of Christ are again busy making plans for the annual auction and barbecue to be held on Saturday, June 6, to benefit the church, announced Bob Jepsen, general chairman.

Along with the auction and barbecue will be the popular stage coach rides with Buck Lieuallen and his palomino driving team and bargains galore on the silent auction table. Also there will be the snack bar open all day. Anyone wishing to donate services or merchandise for the auction may list their contributions with Lindsay Kincaid, chairman of the merchandise committee (phone 422-7418) or list at Bristow's Market.

Committee chairmen for the event are: Bob Jepsen, general chairman; Alfred Nelson Jr., vice-chairman and barbecue committee; Mrs. Norman Nelson and Mrs. Ella Burgoyne, snack bar and silent auction committee; Lindsay Kincaid, merchandise, Mrs. Cecil Thorne, dinner; and John Jepsen, arrangements committee.

Knitting Club Meets

The 4-H meeting of Bee's Busy Buddies was held at Mrs. Ewing Hynd's home on Friday, March 6. Jane Krebs demonstrated how to cast on knitting stitches. I demonstrated how I made my knitted hat. Clint Krebs was in charge of recreation. The name of the game we played was My Old Indian. We met again Friday, March 13.

Boardman News

A National School Assembly was presented at the school last Wednesday by Ed Schetter on physical fitness. His program gave the history behind Yoga, what it consist of and where it comes from. He brought to light many of the false ideas connected with it.

"Yoga presents a physical fitness program for all ages," Schetter stated, and he not only tells about it, but demonstrates these almost impossible exercises, highlighted by a program of simple exercises you can do yourself.

Mrs. Elmer Messenger was hostess for the Ladies Aid Society of Community church at her home Wednesday afternoon of last week, with Mrs. Leo Potts as co-hostess.

Rev. Wallace Bell had charge of the missionary lesson, taking as his topic, "Be Thankful."

The Busy Bakers 4-H cooking club have held two more meetings recently at the home of their leader, Mrs. Arnold Hoffman, and at the home of Charmalee, Flock, at which time they were taught how to make peanut butter cookies and oatmeal raisin cookies.

Dewena West, Riverside High school junior, participated in the speak-off essay contest Sunday in Pendleton for the fifteenth annual United Nations contest.

Dean King was a patient in St. Anthony's hospital in Pendleton last week where he had surgery on Monday.

Schools in Boardman will be dismissed during the week of March 16-20 for spring vacation.
