Delta Kappa Gamma Hears Talk on Alaska

"Forty Years with Dick and Jane" was the title of the speech given by Miss Genevieve Mayberry of Milton-Freewater at the March 7 meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma. The luncheon meeting was held at the Tapadera in Pendleton.

Miss Mayberry gave some very interesting and amusing highlights of her experiences as a teacher in Alaska over a 23-year period.

Officers for the next two years were elected at the business meeting. Information about the state convention to be held in Portland May 1, 2, 3 was discussed, and members urged to attend.

The next meeting was announced for April 18 and will be held in Heppner.

Those attending from Morrow county were Joyce Smith, Ruth Bentley and Gladys Hobbs of Irrigon; Gladys Ely of Ione, and Velva Becholt of Hardman.

Guild Holds Meeting At Parsonage Home

Mrs. Charles Knox was hostess last Wednesday when the Christian Women's Guild met in her home to continue their study of foreign missions.

Mrs. Everett Struckmeier, study chairman, led the group in the study of missions in India.

Mrs. Knox served cookies and sherbet to her guests.

Elks Lodge to Stage Crab Feed and Dance

The music of Bob Kasnick will provide the musical atmosphere for dancing at the Elks' temple Saturday night, March 14, starting at 10:00 p.m.

The dancing will follow a crab feed to be held at the temple from 7 until 9 p.m. Elks and their guests are invited to attend.

Convention Reports Heard at Sans Souci; Birthdays Observed

Sans Souci Rebekah Lodge No. 33 was well attended Friday evening for its first meeting in March. Mrs. Prudy Casebeer, noble grand, conducted business of the evening, when reports on participation in the IOOF District Convention were heard.

Mrs. Frank Ayers, chairman of the convention dinner, expressed appreciation to committee members for their help. Members extended congratulations to Randall Peterson, convention president, on the well-planned program, with fine representation from other lodges in the district.

Mrs. Lucille Parrish, vice grand, reported sympathy cards sent to three of Sans Souci's past noble grands, Mrs. George Kruger, Mrs. Randall Martin and Mrs. Alvin Wagenblast, upon the death of their father, A. W. McLeod. W. T. Thomas, husband of Mrs. Leta (Humphrey) Thomas, Sans Souci member, was reported seriously ill in Tucson, Ariz., and Mrs. Pete McMurtry reported attending services for Mrs. Helen Brown in Monument. Mrs. M. N. Kirk reported that Mrs. Lola Osborne, a past president of the Rebekah Assembly and frequent visitor here, had died suddenly at her home last week. Reports of other members ill and of remembrances to some in Pioneer Memorial hospital were announced by Mrs. McMurtry.

Mrs. Larry Cook, Sr., lodge chaplain, gave an interesting and informative reading about the Bible.

Unwritten work, qualifying for an Assembly seal from President Bartra Bagley, was presented by Mrs. Rachel Harnett, past noble grand, and Mrs. Alice Luttrell, outside guardian.

A surprise skit is planned for the next meeting, March 20.

Hostesses, Mrs. Letha Archer and Mrs. Kirk, provided the decorated birthday cake honoring members whose birthdays were in January, February and March.

Women Join for Cards On Old Timer's Night

Elks' Ladies Night, last Thursday, saw 48 women present for an evening of cards, following the spaghetti dinner served earlier in observance of Old Timers' night.

High pinocle score was held by Mrs. Charles Phegley. Mrs. Edna Turner was low, and Mrs. Howard Keithley won the door prize.

Out of five tables of bridge, Mrs. Pat O'Brien had high score and Mrs. Claude Graham, low. Mrs. Gordon Hutchens won the door prize.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Matt Hughes, Mrs. Len Ray Schwarz and Mrs. Jack Healy.

ELIZABETH ROSE

Heppner Girl 'Capped' In Nursing Training

Miss Elizabeth Mae Rose was one in a class of 16 who were capped in a special ceremony recently after completing requirements in practical nursing courses at Blue Mountain College, Pendleton. The ceremony was held in the auditorium at St. Anthony's hospital, Pendleton, sponsors of the training.

Miss Rose, daughter of Mrs. Ethel Rose, Heppner, is working part time on the floor at the hospital and attends classes at the college. She will receive her degree in nursing at graduation exercises in September.

She has recently announced her engagement to Charles Bailey, Heppner, with wedding plans set for June 6.

Shower Party Honors Shirley Van Winkle; Life History Revealed

Miss Shirley Van Winkle was honored with a bridal shower at the Jim Thomson home Wednesday evening, March 4. Hostesses with Mrs. Thomson were Mrs. Bill Blake, Mrs. Marcel Jones and Mrs. LeRoy Gardner.

Entertainment for the evening was centered around the theme, "This is Your Life, Shirley." A very entertaining skit was enjoyed, with aunts of the bride-elect, Mrs. William Van Winkle and Mrs. John Ledbetter taking part. Mrs. Emil Groshens did the narrating, cleverly working in song titles and background music which were in keeping with incidents in Shirley's life history. Guests joined in by providing the sound effects.

Many lovely gifts were presented the honor guest. Adding to the enjoyment of all, a secret written record was kept by Mrs. Thomson of varied expressions heard throughout the unwrapping session, then read aloud.

High school girls assisted about the rooms and with the serving of refreshments.

Miss Van Winkle will become the bride of Kit George at a private ceremony Saturday, March 14, at the Christian church.

Lexington Co-op Club Meets at Hynd Home

The Lexington Co-op Biddies met at the country home of Mrs. Ewing Hynd near Cecil last Tuesday, March 3, for a day spent in hat making, knitting and making of aprons. A potluck luncheon was enjoyed by seven members and one guest.

The next meeting is scheduled for April 6 and will be held at the Lexington City Hall.

Auxiliary Postpones Legion Observance

An American Legion birthday observance originally planned for Sunday, March 15, has been postponed until a later date.

The auxiliary has not yet received the set of flags which it had planned to present to the Post. This presentation will be made at a meeting later in the month, according to Mrs. Hazel Hamlin, auxiliary president.

Masonic Lecturer Coming Here Tuesday

The Rev. Clarence Kopp, 33rd degree Mason of Baker, a well known lecturer on Masonic Science, will appear at the Heppner Masonic hall Tuesday evening, March 17, at 8 p.m. The meeting will be open to Masonic members only. Refreshments will follow the lecture.

Rev. Kopp is also scheduled to make appearances in Fossil on Thursday, March 19, and in Condon on March 20.

First Degree Team To Initiate IOOF

First degree team of Pendleton IOOF Lodge No. 32, totaling about 20 members, will be in Heppner Saturday evening, March 14, to conduct initiation ceremonies for nine initiates into Willows IOOF Lodge No. 66. Ceremonies will be held in the IOOF hall, starting at 8:00 p.m.

Dinner will be served at the hall preceding the meeting, according to plans announced by Randall Peterson.

Pvt. Steven Flug, who is completing eight weeks of basic training at Fort Ord, Calif., this week, is expected home on leave by Tuesday, according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Agnes Flug.

Upon completion of his leave, Pvt. Flug will report for permanent placement at White Sands Base, New Mexico, on March 27. He is in an engineering division, having graduated from Oregon State University last June with a mechanical engineering degree. He was a graduate of Heppner High school in 1959.

Band Carnival Plans Underway

More plans materialized Monday evening for the annual Band Carnival, as officers of the Heppner Band Parents met at the home of Howard Pettyjohn, president.

Cards will soon be going out to parents of band members so they may designate their preference in how each would like to contribute to the carnival's success. Mrs. Ed Schaffitz, secretary, urges everyone receiving these cards to fill them out and return them to her as soon as possible for many aspects of the event are based on this information.

Proceeds from the Band Carnival go towards replacing band uniforms and for sending deserving band students to summer school at Washington State University.

This year's carnival will be held April 11 at the fair pavilion with the program following the pattern of the past several years.

Meeting at the Pettyjohn home Monday were Howard Pettyjohn,

IRRIGON NEWS

The banquet room at Carrie's Cafe was the scene of a party Saturday honoring Joni Tiller on her 10th birthday. Eighteen guests enjoyed an afternoon of games and refreshments. Patti Proctor won first prize in a word game. One of the guests, Debbie Brown, who shares the same birth date, was presented with a surprise birthday cake when refreshments were served by Joni's grandmother, Mrs. Rogers, and Carrie LeBlanc presented both Joni and Debbie with a free ticket for one of her delicious Smorgasbord dinners after April 1. Out of town guests were Joni's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eoy Tiller of Hermiston.

Paul Warren, Mrs. Ed Schaffitz, Arnold Melby and Bud Peck.
