

SUSAN LINDSTROM, worthy advisor of the Ione Rainbow Girls, pins a paper Easter lily corsage on Joe Hartle, Gazette-Times printer, while Mrs. Robert (Darlene) Hoskins of Beta Omega sorority, Ione, watches. The sorority is in charge of the Easter seal sale of the Oregon Society of Crippled Children and Adults this year, and the Rainbow Girls will conduct sale of the Easter lilies to aid the cause. Joe was first recipient of the lilies. (G-T Photo)

Camp Easter Seal Said Successful

Camp Easter Seal, Oregon's ular staff includes a registered nurse as well as experienced camp counselors. To assure compatibility for the campers, the sessions are divided into age groups. Sessions this summer are scheduled as follows:

June 20-29, 7 to 10 years; July 3-12, 11 and 12 years; July 16-25, 13 and 14 years; July 29 to August 7, 15 to 18 years, and August 11-20, 19 years and older.

Practically all activities that young persons enjoy are available at the camp, Torson said, explaining that some activities are geared to the physical abilities of the campers. Boat excursions, swimming, fishing, cook-outs and horseback riding are some of the daily activities. Torson said applications are being received now at society headquarters, 1135 S. W. Yamhill St., Portland. The camp is financed through the society's annual sale of Easter Seals, the director said. A small fee is charged but there are campships available for those who cannot afford the nominal fee.
